

Heppner Dairyman Grew Up in Industry in East

Under the above heading, Oregon Farmer of March 7, gave recognition to Alfalfa Lawn Dairy, Heppner's chief milk source, in the following interesting manner: "I started in the retail milk business back in Pennsylvania in the days when we drove a wagon and housewives came out with pails and pails. That was in the '90s, and it wasn't until about 1900 that bottles came into much use," recalled R. C. Wightman of Wightman Brothers' Alfalfa Lawn Dairy near Heppner, whose nifty delivery truck now serves most of the households in the Morrow county seat. "I sold 14 quarts of milk for $1 when I started in business here 30 years ago. Now we get 11 cents for whole Guernsey milk. The quality is much better and costs of production have increased enormously."

The Wightman ranch on Willow creek, three miles northwest of the county seat, contains several thousand acres of range and farming land, but takes its name from a 60-acre planting of alfalfa made by Grimme. It was now all reseeded to Grimm. It was about the first in the district and the ranch is one of the oldest. The owner remembers plowing under bunch grass. It takes a herd of 60 or 70 mature cows, besides the young stock, to keep 40 milking, and 40 milking cows just about keeps the Heppner population of 1200 souls in good supply. The herd now is mostly Guernseys and it is headed by a purebred Guernsey bull and contains 20-odd purebred females, the increase from 10 heifer calves obtained from Wallace & Fordyce of Yakima some years ago. The famous bull Chiconia Lover Bold appeared in their sire's pedigree and also in that of the herd sire's dam, a Troutmeyer cow. There are a number of Ayrshires still in the stanchions at Alfalfalawn, but their days are numbered, for the owners have decided on Guernseys. Associated with R. C. Wightman are J. J., his brother, and M. R., his brother's son. They have the Heppner market practically to themselves as far as other dairies of any size are concerned, but they get plenty of competition from the one and two cow kind, it appears. Their daily distribution is 75 to 80 gallons of milk, besides cream.

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS A birthday dance was given in honor of Victor Johnson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Scott March 8th. Supper was served at midnight. A good time was reported by all. The high school entertained the grade school pupils and teachers on Friday afternoon at an ice cream party. Miss Creth Craber of the senior class presided as hostess. Toasts and jokes were given followed by solos by Vera McDaniel and Charles Johnson and a number of action songs by the primary pupils. Then the group indulged in a regular "sing," the popular songs being preferred. Miss Delise Bleakman and Irl Clary were outside guests.

The 4-H sewing club held its 6th meeting on Friday afternoon. Miss Delise Bleakman is leader this year. There are ten girls and four boys. The work is progressing nicely. Miss Ruth Nyland visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Robinson at Lonerock Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Christman were in town Sunday. Richard Robinson was visiting friends here one day last week. Mrs. Ada Osborne who has been caring for her father, B. F. Devore, returned to her home in The Dalles. Case Adams took her as far as Heppner and she took the stage from there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harshman, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren, Miss Gladys Lovgren and Delise and Buel Harshman were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. Retta Knighten gave a quilting party Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Dick Steers, Max Buschke, Charles McDaniel and Neal Knighten. Lunch was served.

The Rebeccas surprised the Odd Fellows Saturday night. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Corrigan and Raymond Howell were visiting friends and relatives here Sunday. Lucille Farrens returned with them where she will visit for a short time.

Vern McDaniel who has been ill for a month is able to be out. She is not improved sufficiently to be back in school, however.

The grade school is holding a benefit dance on Saturday, March 16 at the Odd Fellows hall. Forty cents will be charged for a dance ticket. Mrs. Carey Hastings and Miss Zetta Bleakman will serve supper. Music from Ione.

J. W. Stevens was ill the latter part of the week, suffering from rheumatism. He is much better now.

The school boys have begun practice for the annual spring track meet which will be held in Heppner in May.

Ester Stevens and his father J. W. Stevens report good luck with their lambs this spring, to date no loss whatever.

Mr. De Moss had dinner and spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary on Friday. The evening was enjoyed playing bridge.

Little Monte Roy, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald, was taken to the doctor last week but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beard and family have moved to Blackhorse where they will farm.

Miss Pat Bleakman has been quite ill at her home for the past week.

"An orchid to you Gordon Ridings (star of the N. Y. A. C. quintet and former captain of O'Connell)." With credit for the honorarium to the "great sage," these are the words of Stanley Brody, sports writer for the Seth Low Junior college paper, New York City, in applauding Coach Ridings'—son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark of this city—successful basketball season. His Seth Low team won 13 out of 15 games played, while Ridings himself was assisting the New York Athletic club through a good season as high point maker.

Mr. and Mrs. (nee Marjorie Clark) Ridings are both doing graduate work in teachers college, Columbia university, aside from Ridings' coaching position with Seth Low. Mrs. Ridings has been one of the hottest fans at the games in which her husband or his team participated, and the good reports reaching home folks have been joyously received.

Mrs. Ridings writes that they have had a wonderful time in New York this winter, but that they are already studying road maps to choose the route they will take home to Oregon as soon as the school year closes.

More from the pen of Stanley—not Steve—Brody, follows: "There comes a time when all good men must speak up. . . Today I dedicate this column to the creating of confusion among the ranks of the deprecators of the zone defense and to the praise of Gordon Ridings whose team has just completed the most successful season in the annals of Seth Low basketball. . . ."

"The Eagles won forty-three and lost twelve, since Gordon Ridings took charge of their fortunes. Of the 12 lost, five were played on our home court. During these fifty-five games, Seth Low scored on an average of thirty-nine points to twenty-six for the opposition, which is a record to be proud of in any man's league."

"Typical of many clippings received, is one from the New York Times, concerning Ridings' playing with N. Y. A. C.:

"Starting the second half with the slim lead of 14-13, the New York A. C. basketball team continued a steady attack to defeat the Columbus Council K. of C. quintet, 35-21, on the latter's court in Brooklyn last night. The game was an Eastern Athletic Clubs League encounter and also was one of the engagements in the George V. McLaughlin tournament."

"Gordon Ridings, Winged Foot left forward, proved outstanding in the victory drive after the intermission, scoring five field goals in a row for scoring honors."

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS.

The card party sponsored by Willows grange last Saturday night proved an entertaining variety from an all-evening dance as heretofore. A couple of hours spent in dancing with a nice lunch completed a very pleasant evening. Winners at Pedro were: high score, George Krebs and Hattie Crabtree, low score, O. L. Lundell and Mary Lindsay. Winners at 500 were: high, Marie Ledbetter, low P. C. Peterson. Winners at pinocle were: high Alex Huber and Opal Finn, low Harry Shipley and Ida Kopp. Date for another card party will be announced later in this column.

On Sunday, March 17th, members will meet at the Willows grange hall at 10:00 o'clock, with a pot-luck dinner at noon. Officers will practice degree work, while other members and H. E. club will mature plans for new cupboards and kitchen improvement.

Barney Devlin, one of our genial patrons, entertained with a turkey dinner Sunday. Grangers present were the Deeg and Lundell families. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grimm of Pendleton and Jimmie Monahan of Heppner.

The young folks serving on the kitchen committee this month are setting up some "feeds" that make the older heads sit up and take notice. Well done, young people.

Worthy Master and Sister Spaulding motored to Hood River Sunday morning where they visited with Rev. and Mrs. Spaulding, parents of Master Spaulding.

Past Master Oscar Lundell and Sister Ida Kopp carried home the prize chickens donated by Past Master Vida Heliker. Let's all look forward to a chicken dinner; what say, brother and sister?

Brother Otto Kurth "took the cake" Saturday night; meaning he was fortunate in getting the wonderful fudge cake sold by the grange. The cake was a piece of perfection demonstrating the culinary art of Sister Margaret Hurst. If Otto were the brother he should be, the cake would be featured in that chicken dinner of Oscar's and Ida's.

Next grange meeting Saturday night, March 23rd, when the 3rd and 4th degrees will be exemplified and another installment of the serial story, "Emandeen" will be read. The young folks committee will serve lunch.

Sisters Annie Krebs and Harriet Deos who have been under the care of a physician are both much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and family and Mr. and Mrs. Marley Gardner surprised Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers with a card party Saturday night.

Spring Requisites--

March 15, 1935.

Maybe you've noticed it! There are some things in life that just seem to go together. To be admirably mated and supremely suited to each other.

Like a boat on the water, or a knob on the door, or a pint on the hip.

That's the way it is with CURLEE CLOTHES and that elusive something or other known as STYLE. For more than thirty years the CURLEE people have put it INTO their Suits and Top-coats and made 'em different.

You've seen men wearing clothes that seemed to be nothing more than a back and a front and a pair of sleeves. While other men wear clothes that seem to "stand out in a crowd." That's Style!

CURLEE CLOTHES embody wonderful workmanship, marvelous materials, the season's newest color combinations and, best of all—

They do not cost you a penny more than the other kinds. Really, you'll just be sidestepping a lot of satisfaction if you don't come in soon.

We're waiting for you. Cordially yours, WILSON'S
