4 TEAMS COMPETE IN TWILIGHT GAMES

Two-Weeks Series Starts Tuesday Between Picked Town Teams.

ANIMALS WILL MIX

Tigers, Ground Hogs, Coyotes and Beavers Selected; Schedule Includes Eight Games.

There's going to be some dirt flying at Rodeo field when the Coyotes, Tigers, Beavers and Ground Hogs start mixing it. Saber teeth Bauman, Anne Miller, Tena Scott, and claws will clash, the hair will Margaret Leach, Trina Parker, Anfly, and it's just possible that an umpire or two may not escape un-

Anyway it's a likely looking prospect for a lot of fun when these four teams of the Heppner twilight league series start a two-weeks series of play next Tuesday evening. Numbered among the animals are nearly all the male inhabitants who ever had anything to do with Captains Clint Rohrer of the Tigers, Homer Hayes of the Beavers, Dave Wilson of the Ground Hogs, and Jap Crawford of the Coyotes were named by Al Massey, town team manager. The prospective material of the town was scanned and allotted in what was considered a manner to produce four evenly-matched teams.

A tentative playing schedule was then drawn up as follows: Coyotes vs. Ground Hogs, Mar. 26.

Beavers vs. Tigers, Mar. 28. Coyotes vs. Tigers, Mar. 31. Beavers vs. G. Hogs, Mar. 31. Coyotes vs. Beavers, April 2.

Ground Hogs vs. Tigers, April 4 Championship and consolation games will be played at later date, possibly April 7, unless an outside team is brought in for town team competition on that date prior to the Wheatland league opening. All games will start promptly at 5 o'clock, and will be run for five innings. No admission will be charged except for the championship game, when 25 cents a head will be levied to take care of baseballs and other expense. The roster of the four clubs is announced as follows, though anyone who may have been overlooked is invited to report to

Hogs-Dave Wilson, Rod Thomson, Lowell Turner, Dr. Tibbles, Merle Cummings, Bill Mc-Roberts, Clarence Hayes, Riley Munkers, C. Sprouls, Harold Gen-

Heppner Out in Lead In Telegraphic Shoot

Heppner-Pilot Rock trapshooters registered a perfect 75 for the second consecutive Sunday at in the Oregonian telegraphic trapshooting tournament then in its third round. Dr. A. D. McMurdo, Luke Bibby and John Lane each broke 25 straight on their first string for the team score. The local club has suffered but one defeat to date, that in the first round. Three more weeks of the competition remain before the closing date,

A feature of Sunday's shooting vas the dropping of but one bird by the five man squad in which the in the Barnett store recently is a local team scores were made. Dr. J. H. McCrady also went straight. while Chas. Latourell dropped his 25th bird, making a score of 124 out of a possible 125.
