HARDMAN By LUCILLE FARRENS

Rev. Ralph Hinkle of the Episcopal Church of Redeemer at Pendieton delivered the baccalaureate address to the two members of the graduating class, Miss Creth Craber and Miss Dolly Farrens, and a large crowd of townspeople at the local church last Monday evening, April 22nd. Composing the choir which sang three numbers, "The Church in the Wildwood," "In the Garden" and "Higher Ground," were Mrs. Harlan Adams, Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mrs. Wes Stevens, Mrs. Henry Rowell, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Massey, Mrs. Robert Burnaide, Mrs. Nell Knighten and Irl Clary. Miss Ruth Nylund accompanied. Mrs. Neil Knighten also sang a solo, "Lilacs." The church was beautifully decorated with pink and while crepe paper and artificial flowers and house plants. Graduation exercises are tomorrow evening, April 26, a 8:00 at the high school auditorium. The Sunday school held special Easter services and a miscellaneous program at the church on Easter morning. An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by the little folks afterwards.

The grade school also enjoyed an Easter egg hunt at the school house last Friday.

Among those motoring to Hepp-ner for the show, "David Copperfield," last Sunday were Delsie Chapel Gladys Burnside and children Norcross, Forest Adams, Del bert Carmen, Roland Farrens, Chas. Johnson and Vester Hams.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Moore and Harley Matteson were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers last Monday J. B. Adams and Walt Scott were

Heppner visitors last week. Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings left last week for Dan Doherty's ranch near Lexington where Mr. Hastings has work with a shearing crew. Mrs. John McDonald and Lewis were visiting friends and relatives in Heppner a few days last week. Mrs. Holly Leathers of Kimberley is spending a while with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers while the latter Mrs. Leathers is ill.

Mrs. Lester Kirk (Loye Johnson) was given a miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hiram Johnson, last Saturday afternoon. Present were Mesdames May Adams, Effie Stevens, Ella Farrens, Opal Adams, Mary Mc-Donald, Ethel Knighten, Elsie Leathers, Mary Scott, Mary Brannon, Kate McKitrick, Ella Bleakman, Zetta Fuller, Debbie McDaniel, Hatte Johnson, Goldie Baird, Misses Zetta and Nellie Bleakman, Charlotte Adams, Dolly and Lucile Farrens.

The meeting of Lexington Scour troop No. 62, was called to order on Tuesday evening at 7:30 by Scoutmaster Gillis. The business meeting was very short, the only thing discussed was a hike, no definite date being set for it.

Robert Hayes, scout executive of the Blue Mountain council, Walla Walla, was at the meeting. He gave a short talk to the scouts. He is very much in favor of sea scouting for the older boys of the troop. In harmony with Mr. Hayes' talk on sea scouting, Lyle Allyn gave a report on sea scouting and the pos-sibilities of organizing a troop in Lexington The meeting was adjourned and every scout present hurried to the football field where marshmallows were roasted and eaten by all members of the troop. Games were played and enjoyed by all. The cup contest is progressing rapidly and all of the boys are showing keen interest. The same boys are still in the lead and are working hard to retain it.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:15 by the scouts saying the scout prayer. The next regular meeting will be held April 23.

Beside being an approved consignee by the Wool and Mohair Advisory committee of the Farm Credit administration, the Western Wool Storage company operates its own warehouse under license from the warehouse division of the U.S. department of agriculture, which is the governmental agency licensing all types of warehouses throughout the entire country. Storage facil-ities are thus available for owners of free wool, where wools not financed by government agencies can be stored in the grower's name under licensed warehouse receipts at this market center instead of on the ranch or in a country warehouse
