Have You Had Your Chain Letter Today?

LIKE pee-wee golf, jig saw puzzles and ping pong, the craze is upon us. Everybody's doing it. And Uncle Jimmy Farley says, "Let 'em go to it, they're helping the government."

Ain't it the truth? For every dime you mail, you mail five letters. If the dime and all the letters are mailed out of town first class, you pay Uncle Jimmy (or Uncle Samuel) 18 cents. Why should Uncle Jimmy be kept about stopping the new chain letter racket?

That word racket is used advisedly. The fellow who thought of it was a smart guy. Under promise of receiving $1,562.50, and in the interests of "Faith, Hope and Charity," you are inveigled out of a dime. Who wouldn't spend a dime to make $1,562.50, or—less postage—$1,562.22? But such excessive profits for such little expenditure is plain racketeering—no such profits were ever made from bootlegging or hijacking.

And Jimmy Farley, smiling, says, "It's okay by me." But why discourage it? Nobody is hurt by giving a dime. And every time somebody's name is dropped off the list that person has a pocket full of money which he will immediately spend. Dr. Townsend's scheme is a piker for stimulating the flow of money through channels of trade when compared to the chain letter—even at a dime a throw.

A dime is kid's play, however. More adventurous souls have boosted the ante to 25c, 50c and a dollar. Then there are those who are not satisfied with the mathematical formula which multiplies by five. Mimeograph machines and printing presses are at work. Who knows but what hundreds, maybe thousands of copies of the same letter are being sent by one person instead of five. Such procedure may soon "gum the works."

Uncle Jimmy, if you want us to play the game, please furnish some rules and referees.

Honoring the graduates of the Hardman Union High school, commencement exercises were given by the school Friday evening, April 26th. George A. Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination; backache, headache, dizziness, swollen feet and ankles? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly, for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.
