HARDMAN
By LUCILLE FARRENS
The Fourth of July was appropriately observed with family dinners, picnics in the mountains and out-of-town motor trips to neighboring celebrations.

Mrs. Roy Neill of Pine City is spending a while with her daughter, Mrs. Neil Knighten.

Ad Inskip was working last week making cord wood in the mountains.

The marriage of Miss Annie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson of Hardman, to Mr. Darrel Hiatt of Lena was an event of last week at Walla Walla.

Many people from this community attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Harry Petersen, nee Miss Alice Bleakman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bleakman of Heppner, whose death followed a lingering illness of a few months' duration, at Pendleton last Thursday, July 4.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church in Heppner last Sunday afternoon. Alice formerly attended Hardman grade school when the Bleakman family lived here and had many friends, both young and old, who were shocked at her untimely passing.

The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marquardt of Lexington spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel in the mountains. Herman Neilson was also present and Mrs. Walter Farrens and Lucille.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside were Heppner visitors last Sunday. Mrs. Burnside remained at the home of Mrs. Corda Saling.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and daughter have arrived from Brown, Mont., where Carey has been shearing sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McDaniel recently returned from a trip to Arlington where Mrs. McDaniel went to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bud Flisk who has been ill at her home there.

Miss Rose Anne Cunningham spent the Fourth of July holidays with her sister, Mrs. Jim Brannon, from her home at Heppner.

IRRIGON
MRS. W. C. ISOM
Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Coryell motored to Pasco Sunday.

Mrs. Ellis has her sister as a house guest this week.

Mr. Van Cleve who has been very ill is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Lukheart of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fredrickson.

Jess Oliver returned home Tuesday night from Washington where he has been shearing sheep for several weeks. He was shopping in Hermiston Wednesday, accompanied by his daughter, Ethel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Browning, Jack Browning and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bedwell were called to Lewiston, Idaho, Tuesday by the death of Mr. and Mrs. Browning's daughter and sister to Jack Browning and Mrs. Bedwell. Mr.

and Mrs. Jack Browning returned with the tiny four-days-old baby boy of their sister who died and will adopt it as their own. Friends extend their sympathy.

A majority of Irrigon folks celebrated at Umatilla Thursday.

Little Yvonne Kendler of Umatilla spent four days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom this week while her parents were visiting in Seattle.

Mrs. Tom Caldwell, Wayne Fagerstrom and Rev. Crawford returned from Washington Monday evening, where they had been attending camp meeting.

Mrs. Lilla and two daughters, Verna and Lela of Monmouth spent Wednesday night with Alva Bowliare and H. C. Warner families. They were enroute to the Atlantic coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Umiker are the proud parents of an 8 lb. baby girl who arrived the morning of the Fourth. The little one is christened Kathleen Jeanette.

Miss Billie Markham is spending a few weeks at Cannon Beach.

Little if any hope is held for the recovery of Gilbert W. Phelps, circuit judge, who suffered paralytic stroke July 1.
