Ideals . . . the approach

I find no essential difference beween the avowed objectives of all Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bunner returned to Heppner Monday from ing to put their ideals into enterprise for the same ideal, that of restriction of the social and economic orthe different groups which are striv-ing to put their ideals into effect, making the social and economic or-der so that life will be easier, or at least more bearable, for everybody

I am certain, however, that not all of the methods by which nations are striving to reach that goal can be right. Leaving personal and party ambitions, jealousies and hatreds out of the question, some of the plans must be wrong.

My feeling is that every plan to make the world over will fail unless and until it is approached as a spiritual problem. Politics cannot instil the spirit of fair play and tolerance; still less can war make for brotherly love. But social justice and economic security will be idle

Money . . . changes there are for the sum represented by 12½ cents. In my boyhood it used to be called a "York Shilling," Edward Burchell underwent an and not many years ago I still heard operation for appendicitis at a rural residents of New York calculating in terms of shillings eight to the dollar. Our "New England Shilling," on the other hand, was a sixth of a dollar-16 2-3 cents. In the South, as far north as Virginia, I used to hear 12½ cents called a "Levy." I do not know whether the term is still in use or not. But I hear western friends refer to a quarter as "two bits." I can remember when no actual coin smaller than a five-cent piece circulated on the Pacific Coast or in the Deep South. Newspapers all sold for a nickel, and all the store prices were in multiples of five A San Francisco merchant nearly caused a riot by bringing in a few tons of pennies and marking goods in odd-cent prices.

Coins . . .

The Treasury is proposing to issue new kinds of money. Half-cent pieces, of copper, and one mill -a tenth of a cent-coins of aluminum, may soon come into use. The need for these coins arises from the sales taxes in many states.

The suggestion of the new coins takes me back to boyhood, when many coins were common which have long since vanished. The big copper half-cents were often seen, but commoner was the two-cent piece. Then we had two kinds of three-cent pieces, one of nicket, about the size of a dime, and one very much smaller, made of silver. Silver five-cent pieces were in common use in the 1870's. We also used to see twenty-cent silver coins, about the size of a nickel. It seems to me that the one new coin that is most needed is a 2½cent piece. It would find a variety of uses, especially in buying items now sold "two for a quarter.

Tenant Farmers Aided In Buying Own Farm

The first tenant farmer in the northwest to receive a farm pur-chase loan under the broadened provisions of the farm credit act of 1935, which authorized the use of words, signifying nothing, until Land bank commissioner's funds those spiritual ideals rule the world. property as well as to refinance farm indebtedness, offers a typical example of how other tenants can Money and customs concerning obtain financial aid to buy a farm obtain financial aid to buy a farm of their own, says E. M. Ehrhardt, president of the 12th district bank president of the 12th district bank at Spokane. "After working diligently for several years, Raymond Patricks, thrifty young farmer of Valley county, Idaho, accumulated some live stock and equipment and saved enough cash to apply as a sufficient down payment on a 160-acre place he considered to be an especially good buy. His problem of financing the balance was solved by obtaining a Land bank commissioner's oan. "In this instance the Land bank, acting as agent for the Land bank commissioner in administering this of San Francisco, a corporation. Plaintiff, emergency fund, found that the purchase price was within the normal valuation, or debt-paying ca-pacity, of the property, and the loan was closed for the amount Mr. Patricks needed. "It should be understood, however, that not in all cases can comfinance the full balance of the purproposed chase price. The price a tenant farmer is willing to pay and what an owner is willing to sell for is a matter resting entirely between themselves. But when an application is made for a commissioner's loan it should be borne in mind that the Land bank is not permitted to lend in excess of 75 per cent of the normal agricultural value of the property, as determined by careful appraisal. If the sale price exceeds the appraised normal valuation the purchaser must be in position to finance the difference without encumbering his farm beyond the 75 per cent of normal value.

"This provision for the borrower to have a clear 25 per cent equity in his farm as a condition of the loan is for the borrower's own protection, helping to insure his success in working out of debt and owning his farm outright in the shortest time possible."
