OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY PUBLIC AUDITORIUM PORTLAND. ORE.

Heppner Gazette Times

Volume 52, Number 24.

HEPPNER, OREGON, THURSDAY, Aug. 22, 1935

Subscription $2.00 a Year

L SET FOR 14th RODEO QUEEN ILENE ON LISTS WELL FILLED JOSEPH T. PETERS ALL PREPARATIONS QUEEN ILENE PAST RODEO CHAMP OPAL MINING TO BE BUYS PROPERTY SET FOR BIG TIME KILLED IN WRECK Charming Irish Colleen and Boyy FOR BIG ARENA SHOW ROAD FETE FEATURE To Build Brick Office Structure Safeway, Central Market Sites of Comely Attendants to Have Included in Realty Deal. Prominent Place in Show. Track, Grounds, Livestock Natural Attractions Will Lloyd Matteson and Joe 60 Numbers Out at Close Miss Ilene Kenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, was in-stalled queen of Rodeo last Satur-day night at the close of a popular voting contest conducted at six Ready; Amplifying Give Enjoyment to Cel-Carsner Die in Flam-Expression of belief in the value of Entries Last Night; of Heppner business property was System on Hand. ebrants of Spray Road ing Automobile. 20 in Bucking. given this week by Joseph T. Peters of Portland when he purchased the voting contest conducted at six dances. She represented Lexing-ton grange. Her attendants, candi-TICKETS SELL FAST block of property from the Fannie MOVE GETS BACKING CRASH NEAR CONDON HOT RACES FORSEEN O. Rood estate comprising the ates sponsored by other granges of the county, are Miss Aileen Farley, Willows; Miss Maxine McCurdy, Rhea Creek, and Miss Camille Stanbuilding occupied by Safeway stores and Central market and the Outside Districts Give Support; Living Accommodation Headquar Tragedy Ends Trip to Look After Calf Roping Events Draw Many Envacant lot adjacent where formerly stood the Peoples Hardware store. ters at Hotel Heppner; Fair, R. C. Phelps and E. O. Fergu-Cattle; Matteson Won Bucktries; Parade of Old West to ley, Lena. They finished the race in the order named, with Miss It is the announced intention of Mr. Peters to start construction immediately of a single story, brick Dances, Carnival Add to Fun. son Put on Committee. ing Contest First Year. Furnish Climax Saturday. Kenny holding the lead through-Last minute preparations cover-ing the many phases of the Rodeo, ner lot at Main and Willow. Lloyd Matteson, champion cow-With 60 performers in the lists last night at the close of entries for today's performance at the arena; Opportunity to become acquainted It might be said that by right of boy at the first Rodeo, and Joe with one of the beauty sports of heritage as well as popularity, Queen flene attained her throne. The new building will contain spaces for four offices besides ad-4-H club fair and wool and grain Carsner, son of the late Senator R. Oregon, hitherto having its light to shine under a bushel, will be afwith some of the fastest ponies in J. Carsner, pioneer Spray cattle-raiser, met tragic death about 11 several years, and a booster for the show were well in hand this morn-ing, and with the city in gala attire, stract company, said J. Logie Richshow were well in hand this mornthe lists seen in many a day, and with the bucking stock keyed up to a high pitch, everything points to forded all who take Labor Day off to attend celebration of the Heppraiser, met tragic death about 11 raiser, met tragic death about 11 o'clock Saturday evening when the brothers, Eddie and Matt, have asardson, abstract company manager the Browning Amusement company ner-Spray road. Plans for enter-tainment of visitors include side trips from Wilson park, the celebraall set to go, the broadcasting sys-tem installed at the grounds, the grounds and livestock all in readi-Mr. Peters is a large property holda fine show. Among the bronc riders and ropwho acted as agent for the deal, on MISS ILENE KENNY Carsner car catapulted into the Carsner car catapulted into the sisted with the show in many ways, ditch 10 miles west of Condon and their names appearing in the lists caught fire. The smoking remains as ropers for several years. Mr. Peters is a large property hold-er in Morrow county, having much ers have come the class of the Rotion site, to the opal mines, the aluminum mines, "Pat Shea" mine, caught fire. The smoking remains of the car, the charred bodies of the occupants, and marks of the car Stores Close for Show ness, and the performers still com-ing, to say nothing of the ever in-Queen liene is a student of Hepp-ner high school. A comely Irish colleen, she is a daughter of the rangeland, as much at home in the deo performers from near and far. deo performers from hear and far. Of favorite cowboys of the past there's Pat Fisk, Kenneth Depew, Tony Vey, Lloyd Depew, Joe Pedro, Bob Fletcher, Jr., Ivan Applegate, Joe Kenny, Eddie Sheridan, Tom wheat land in the north end. The deal marks the first activity historical Camas prairie, and other Heppner stores will close each afternoon, today, tomorrow and Saturday from 1:30 until after the Rodeo. Deliveries today and creasing throng of expectant spec-tators, the stage is well set for spots of interest. W. H. French, whose Blue Moun-tain farm adjoins the Heppner-Spray road and the opal diggings, leaving the highway were mute evidence of the tragedy when the wreck was first discovered and re-ported by V. A. Behrs. The men had left Heppner earlier in the compiner series in Heppner business property in several years, and the interest manthree days of real entertainment as the 14th Rodeo opens today. Old Sol shines brightly. The saddle as in the role of student. She posseses a charming person-ality that befits well her royal pofested by Mr. Peters, who is widethe Rodeo. Deliveries today and tomorrow will be at the usual hours, 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. On Saturday there will be but one delivery, at 11 o'clock in the morning. Shoppers are asked to cooperate by doing their buying early. Healy and many others, while some of the new hands are performers of wide reputation who, 'tis said, will bear watching, among them Buddy Ryan, Ray Hartshorn, Dude Far-rell, Dug McDonaid, Bud Morrison. ly known as a competent business executive, is taken as indicative of gave enthusiastic support to the celebration this week through offerweather is pleasantly warm, and nothing remains but the unfolding sition, and with her court of charm-ing attendants, her reign will be in the evening, going over to the Spray country to look after some better times in this section ing assistance in directing folk to the bed of irradiant gems, where of events to bring thorough enjoy ment of the occasion. cattle, and were expected back here again that night, according to repopular, indeed. the bed of irradiant gems, where they may enjoy the sport of crack-ing open the opal carrying matrix and extracting their own "shiners." Impetus to organization plans was also given this week by the appointment of R. C. Phelps and E. O. Ferguson on the general com-Aiken and Moore to Queen and attendants will hold Hotel Ticket Headquarters ports. They had left Fossil and were headed toward Condon when a place of prominence throughout the show, and will ride at the head Lloyd Depew's Guess Good. Demand for reserved seat tickets on Friday and Saturday has been Lions Hail Queen Ilene; Rodeo Spirit Engendered The Lions chib jumped enthulic Twenty top-hands were in the bucking contest last night, half of of the Parade of the Old West Sat-Many of the Heppner Rodeo norses and most of the riders are urday morning. Queen Ilene will wear the black and white leather especially strong. Tickets for Thursday have been going more slowly, but there has been a goodly norses and most of the riders are moving to Condon immediately af-ter the performance ends here to put on the two-day entertainment program for the Gilliam County fair. With Henry Aiken and Ad Moore in charge, Condon is looking forward to one of the best wild west above presented in several wars whom will go up today and the oth-er half tomorrow. Those qualifying riding skirt that accompanies the position, while her attendants will be clad in black breeches, white shirts, and all will wear black boots mittee to represent the city of Heppner. Invitation was extended sale of these also, making prospects bright for a large attendance. The will be in Saturday's semi-finals, and the best five from the semi-fin-The Lions club jumped enthusi-astically into the Rodeo spirit Mon-day, when the members donned the victims were held Sunday, Cars-ner being buried in the Haystack Spray to appoint two members to the general commitee, also. C. B. and the best nye from the semi-in-als will ride in the finals. A feature of last night's drawing was Lloyd Depew's announcement of his horse before he had drawn. "Til take Herb French," he said, and when reserved seats will continue to be cemetery, beside the grave of his father, and Matteson being interred in the local cemetery with Alvin Kleinfeldt, Christian minister, ofand black hats trimmed in white. Some of the finest horseflesh in the sold as long as they last and will Cox and E. L. Morton are general brightly colored windsor ties and be available mornings at Hotel committeemen from the Lions club. Heppner. warmly welcomed Queen Ilene as county has been procured for their shows presented in several years. The fair is next week end with the That news of the celebration is being heralded beyond the confines of the road's immediate vicinity is Hotel Heppner is also headquar-ters for living accommodations, and their guest. mounts In recognition of her introduc-tion by Henry Alken, Rodeo presi-dent, Queen liene said, "I am happy to have been selected as queen of ficiating. the slip was opened, Herb French rodeo entertainment Friday and No immediate members of Matte-on's family reside here. His moth-WIGHTMAN'S HAVE SON. A con and heir was born this norning to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. he had. those arriving today and tomorrow Saturday afternoons. evidenced in communications being received by S. E. Notson, president Among those with racing ponies are Frank, Gerald and Merle Swagexpecting to stay over should make A program similar to the Hepp-ner affair is in store for the Condon er is believed to live in Alaska. Carsner is survived by the mother, Mrs. Willa Carsner, and his broth-er, Jim. Both were well known in inquiry as soon as possible. Every possible effort will be expended to the Rodeo, and sincerely thank all those who assisted me." of the commercial club, who has been sending out invitations. Word Wightman, weighing 8 pounds. The young man has been named James Monroe. gart, Pete Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Moore, Walla Walla, W. N. fair attendants, reports Mr. Aiken, with a few changes which will offer provide accommodatioos for everyfrom Judge R. W. Sawyer of Bend, former state highway commission-Dr. R. C. Lawrence and Joseph Huddleston, Ukiah, and Ad Moore. There will be three relay strings and change for those from this coun-Heppner. Matteson, besides win-ning the bucking contest at the first Belanger gave a solo duet rendition Heppner. The show at the grounds starts at 1:30 each afternoon, and will provide from thre to four hours of er, stated it was probable other plans would prevent his attendance, of an original song (said to have Bill Huddleston and family artwo pony express strings at the post Condon streets will be decorated. Rodeo, was a performer at succeed-ing Rodeos. Carsner had delivered cattle here many times. Matteson's age is given as 35, and that of Cars-ner, 24. Bill Auduleston and family ar-fived in the city yesterday from Ukiah to stay through the Rodeo. Bill assists in staging the cowboy convention in his town each fourth of July. been anonymously written by a cer-tain member of the club) dedicated today, and keen competition is promised in the flat races. Some It's 35-piece band will perform for two afternoons. The rodeo togethprovide from thre to four hours of entertainment, including races, calf roping, bucking contest, and spec-ial features—not the least of which will be the clown. At all times the crowd will be kept informed of every detail through the special applifying extent but that he would arrange to be there if possible. Phil Brady, Mitchell merchant, welcomed news of the celebration and said he would iend all possible and said he would iend all possible to Frank Turner's race horse. The float committee announced plans well in hand for the entry in the Parade of the Old West, and named er with the exhibits of farm, garamplifying system. Insure Against Dust The grounds and track have been ut in fine shape, having been thor-Under the shape having been thorden and home economics, is expected to make a worth-while for all who can attend.

support. He promised attendance of himself and family.

a number of club members to assist Club guests included Arthur Pri-aulx of Chiloquin, chairman state of the better ponies are being held back for the Grant County derby tomorrow and the Morrow County derby Saturday.

Prizes for Parade

Besides the regular bucking con-test, fourteen buckaroos had entered the bareback riding contest, seven of whom will go up today and seven tomorrow. There were 12 ropers entered in professional calf roping event, and 15 in the amateur calf roping, all of whom will show today. Entries are made up by 10 o'clock each evening today and tomorrow for Friday's and Saturday's events, and many new faces are expected to appear in the lists before the show is over. Entries for today will be found with program in another column.

put in fine shap oughly soaked for several days to allay dust, and continued sprinkthroughout the show insures ling that dust will be kept to a mini-

A limited amount of parking has been made to sell tickets to nationally-known neighboring show, gate at the extreme east entrance. Those who desire to see the show in this manner should be on hand early, however, as the space will go stowed upon her court. No spectators will be allowed on the fence or ground next to the barns. Those in cars will be charged the general admission price of 75 cents, and general admission seats also will be available in the seats also will be available in the bleachers. Reserved seat tickets Canyon here the night of August are $1.50, and grandstand seats 31, it was announced today by J. other than reserved will cost $1. J. Bauer, chairman of the big af-Child's tickets are 50 cents today and Saturday, with all school children being admitted free tomorrow.

Fair Will Interest

The Heppner school band, in their purple and gold capes and caps, will be on hand to play at the performance all three days, and re-

(Continued on Page Eight.) ATTENDANT

MISS CAMILE STANLEY

Queen Helen (Miss Helen Han-matter of the road's celebration C. Phelps. Queen liene to be an honored guest event.

at the Rodeo court tomorrow and The general committee will soon A limited amount of parking Saturday. It is expected Queen have definite announcements to space for cars is available next to Helen will be accompanied by seving the arena, and provision eral in high authority of the interdefinite announcements to Woolen Goods Exhibit mind and to plan on being there car occupants without necessity of including Dr. W. D. McNary, pres- Tentative plans include the staging unloading as they pass through the ident, and George Strand, parade of a short, but appropriate, pro-gate at the extreme east entrance. director.

Queen Ilene has expressed pleas-

COWBOY SHUFFLE SET.

Pendleton, Aug. 21.-(Special)-Eli Rice and his colored orchestra will play for the 26th annual Cowfair.

Up.

chandise.

man, $5.

tonic.

x-ray.

age, $5, $2.50, camera.

(Continued on Page Eight)

The dance is held in connection with the Dress-Up parade at which time all Pendleton citizens start active preparation for the Round-

PARADE PRIZE LIST 1. Grand sweepstakes, $25. 2. Floats, $30, $20, $10. Best costumed lady riding side-saddle, $10, $5 merchandise. Four-horse team, $15, $10, $5. 5. Best costumed cowgirl, $5 mer-chandise, $2 merchandise. 6. Best costumed cowboy, $5 merchandise, $2.50. Best equipped horse, $3 mer-chandise, $2.50 merchandise. 8. Best buggy team, $5, $2.50 mer-

 Wilkins Williams, Pendleton
Charlie Hirl, Heppner
Dude Farrell, Miles City, Mont.
Buddy Jorey, Pendleton
Bobby Roach, Pendleton
Wilkins Williams, Pendleton
Wilkins, Nendleton
Vic Tarter, Union
W. N. Huddleston, Ukiah
A. J. Vey, Pendleton
Biddon Michael, Pilot Rock
Budd Walton, Ritter
Itos, V. Pedro, Pilot Rock
Ed Hirl, Lena
Ronald Sherman, Ukiah
Bud Morrison, Pendleton
Benton Carter, Long Creek
Tom Healy, Pendleton,
Reeves Taylor, Pilot Rock
J. Kenny, Heppner
Benton Carter, Long Creek
Tom Healy, Pendleton,
Reeves Taylor, Pilot Rock
J. B. Kenny, Heppner
Lee Vinson, Lena
Phil Armstrong, Meeker, Col.
Duff McKitrick, Rhea Creek
Walter McKitrick, Rhea Creek
Walter McKitrick, Hardman
Pat Fisk, Heppner
Bob Burke, Adams
By Roch Richmond
R. J. Burke, Cayuse
Si Lyma, Peterson Ukiah
Ray Hartshorn, Enterprise
Nick Mullinchuk Bend
Paddy Ryan, Bend
By Jess Farron, John Day
Heete Gillland, John Day
Heete Gilland, John Day
Heete Gilland, John Day
Heete Gilland, John Day
Heete Gilland, John Day
Herte Gilland, John Day
Herte Gilland, John Day
Henter Hager, Hep 9. Best costumed juvenile cowboy or cowgirl under 10 years of Best clown with animal and equipment, $5 merchandise, $2.50. 11. Oldest Morrow county pioneer 12. Oldest Morrow county pioneer 16. Cowboy with longest beard, haircut and shave. 17. Baldest cowboy, bottle of hair

18. Pack outfit, $5. 19. Gold miners, $5, $2.50. 20. Best representation of historic 55 character, fountain pen. 21. Ugliest, leanest an most rundown conditioned cowboy, free sell) of the Pendleton Round-Up well in hand at Hardman, and that Spencer Crawford told of activit-has accepted the invitation of community is solidly behind the ies at the state Legion convention Spencer Crawford told of activitin the main program feature.

On Display at Bank

A Rodeo and fair attraction which brought about the road's comple-tion will be properly eulogized. It is expected, however, that the scen-ship of Morrow County Woolgrowis expected, however, that the scen-ic attraction which nature has pro-vided will abundantly serve to keep the five classes, and additional en-tries will be received at Gordon's everyone entertained for the day, pharmacy up to judging time at 10:30 tomorrow morning. RODEO PERFORMERS First, second and third prizes are offered in each of the five classes. which are made up as follows: af-

24-25

MISS MAXINE MCCURDY

PROGRAM ••• FIRST DAY • THURSDAY, AUGUST 22

The Management reserves the right to makes changes at any time.

1. GRAND OPENING.

2. SADDLE HORSE RACE.

1st, $5.00; 2nd, $2.50. 3 Horses to start. Entrance fee $1.50 added. Horses to run 50 yards in opposite directions and turn on line. DAILY EVENT. Winning horse eliminated each day. 49-52-54

3. CALF ROPING. Daily Event. Ist, $30.00; 2nd, $20.00; 3rd, 10.00. Daily Event. Entrance fee, $5.00 and added. Rope and nogile3 feet crossed two wraps and half hitch to tie.

1-7-12-16-11-25-8-13-27-37-43-4

- 4. PONY EXPRESS. Daily Event. 1st, $17.50; 2nd, $10.00; 3rd, $7.50 Daily Event. Entrance fee, $2.50 and added. Four trips around track each day. Rider to have two ponies in charge of two assistants. First pony to go 1st and 3rd quarters; second pony to go 2nd and 4th quarters. 51.53.57
- 5. BAREGACK RIDING. Daily Event. $2.00 per mount. Not over 8 riders a day. 3-4-5-15-23-31-47-36
- 6. FREE FOR ALL RACE. 1st, $10.00; 2nd, $2.50. Entrance fee $2.00 and added. Half-mile race. Daily event. Winning horse eliminated each day.

38-40-41 7. AMATEUR CALF ROPING CONTEST. 1st, $20.00; 2nd, $10.00; 3rd, $5.00. Entrance fee, $3.00, added. No one eligible to enter this contest who has won money roping at Heppner Rodeo during last four years. Winners eliminated

2-3-4-10-11-33-19-21-60-32-18 -46-47-48-30

8. BUCKING CONTEST.

8. BUCKING CONTEST.
1st, $100.00; 2nd, $60.00; 3rd, $60.00; End, $60.00; Srd, $60.0

9. RELAY RACE.

1st, $25.00; 2nd, $15.00; 3rd, $10.00. Daily Event. 1^{14} -mile race. Each rider to have three horses in charge of two assistants, one to hild and one to catch. Rider to saddle, unsaddle, mount and dismount unassisted and change horses each 2 times around track. No cinch barred. 51---53

10. MORROW COUNTY DERBY. SATURDAY ONLY. 1st, $60.00; 3nd, $40.00; 3rd, $20.00. En. trance fee, $7.50, added to prizes. ONE-MILE RACE.

11. MUSICAL ROPE RACE. 1st, $2.50 each day. Winner eliminated each day and winners to make consolation race for purse of $7.50 the last day. 7-25

12. GRANT COUNTY DERBY. PRIDAY ONLY., 3-4 Mile Race, Free For All. 1st, $50.00; 2nd, $30.00; 3rd, $20.00. Entrance fee, $5.00, added.

Judges are Chosen

Arena judges will be Lawrence Lieuallen, Athena; Rich Thompson, Adams, and Chas. Trowbridge, John Day. John Carter of Long Creek will head the race judges, and Har-Coifoid of Portland will be chief timer.

Saturday's show will be climaxed by the Parade of the Old West at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and the grand entry at the grounds promptly at 1:30. The parade will made up on Gale street north of the Methodist church, and all entries are asked to be on hand not ry Coifoid of Portland will be chief merchandise prizes are offered in the various parade classes, a list of which will be found in another column

ATTENDANT

MISS AILEEN FARLEY