Reclamation Meet A Change in Payment

A new method of repayme construction costs on federa lamation projects was propos a resolution passed by the O Reclamation Congress in a session at Oregon State colleg signed to end the need of fu-moratorium extensions.

The plan proposed is to bas nual payments on five per ce the crop value each year rathe upon a flat cash rate. The cor expressed gratitude for the moratorium but said it need extended if this optional plan payment is adopted. The 25th or "Jubilee" sess

the congress was pronounced of the most successful in its tory with every speaker liste pearing on the program, incl Governor Charles H. Martin. governor lauded the congres its leadership in state develop and commended it for refusi follow Oregon's "prophets of idity" and "stalwarts of s idity" tion."

Though much of the program devoted to consideration of W ette valley development th drainage and irrigation, offici-tion of the congress as expa in resolutions took in the int of reclamation throughout state. Several proposals for r changes in state laws were and a request was sent the fe government to provide at least 000 for long-time experimen irrigation practices. Vale will be the scene of year's convention when opport will be afforded to view the and Owyhee projects in nearly pleted form. Robert Sawyer of Bend wa elected president and Dr. V Powers, O. S. C., secretary-Olen Arnspiger, Grants urer. was chosen vice-president for first district, Frank Morgan, N second district, and Kenneth M Portland, third.

The drainage section re-el Sam Brown, Gervais, chairman L. Powers, secretary; E Wist, poose, vice-chairman, and Grace Magruder, Clatskanie, lative committeeman.
