he saw the Washington Irving colfamous paintings, spent an afternoon at Radio City, attending one of the three theaters in the building, seeing the show and later going back stage to see how everything was handled, seeing the p jection room and going through the N. B. C. studio and the executive offices. On Sunday he attended the Riverside church, built by Rockefeller, went up in its tower which is twenty-six stories high, and saw and heard the largest carillion in the world played there. Grant's temb which lies across the street was seen. The following day he went out to see the statue of Laberty and spent some time on a fire boat. The Empire State building was visited and he was carried to its top in an elevator that trav-eled at the rate of 1000 feet per

On the 21st the boys attended a small jamboree in Central Park when President Roosevelt spoke to them by radio. Other notables in different fields were present and gave short talks and ten scouts from nett spent last week at Crater Lake Walla Walla were presented their Eagle badges by Mayor La Guardia Mrs. N. A. Leach who have a sumwho was the main speaker. The next few days were spent at the Schiff Scout reservation, 40 miles from New York at Mendham, N. J. On the 26th the boys went to Philadelphia where they went through the U.S. mint, the aquarium and Congress hall. They saw the Lib-erty Bell, the grave of Ben Franklin and the Betsy Ross house. In the evening Junior and another scout spent four hours in Frank-lin Institute. The following day a ten-hour stay was made in Washington and to see the many things the boys had to trot from one point of interest to another to cover the ground in the time allotted. They saw the Capitol, the supreme court building, the Federal Bureau of Investigation building, the Smithsonian Institution, the White House, and visited Mt. Vernon and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington cemetery. Leaving Washington D. C. they went to Chicago where they spent one day. There they went through the Field museum of Natural History. From Chicago to Omaha where they saw the original stream lined train, then to Salt Lake where they enjoyed an organ recital in the Mormon Tabernacle and a swim in Salt lake, arriving in Pendleton Sunday af-Junior was met at that point by his father.
