Official Paper for Morrow County

As the World Moves.

MUSSOLINI'S guns are opening on Agawa in the domain of Halle Selassie... The League of Nations sets a new yardstick in history, dubbing Mussolini's move a war of aggression and proclaiming in favor of economic boycott against him...

Life is action. Life is conflict. The mighty ocean may not resist the blasting gales, Lashing tongues of flame lay low towering heads of stately forest monarchs...

Heppner receives the resignation of Mayor Smead with regret. He took an earnest interest in the governmental affairs of the city. He attempted to contribute to its betterment through inaugurating a program of street and water system improvement...

Our high school has a scrappy football team, doing its best to carry the glory of Heppner through ranks of opponents. It is entitled to the city's support. Let's give them a boost when they play Hermon here tomorrow.

BOARDMAN

By RACHEL J. BARLOW

A large number of out of town grangers as well as local grangers attended Pomona grange here at the Greenfield grange hall Saturday. Walter M. Pierce gave an interesting address during the afternoon program which drew a large audience...

The Boardman school was closed Friday when the teachers attended the joint meeting of Morrow and those counties at Pendleton. Those from here attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Ingles, Theron Anderson, Misses Mary Harney, Vivian Johnston, Lovely Burkholder, Clara Huff, Jeanette Turner and Mrs. Gladys Fortier.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

Gunshot Wounds

There are no more nasty and deceptive wounds of the human being than gunshot wounds of the liver. The assassin usually hits his victim in a prominent part of the body. The professional gunman may shoot through the head or the heart, but the crazy amateur killer usually shoots lower down. At least I have noticed that in my experience in such unfortunate cases.

I once saw a perfect Hercules of a young man shot by a small pistol just to the right of the stomach. The ball passed through the margin of the liver. The bullet did not go through as it was a cheap variety of gun. Within three days the victim was using his pillow for a football and wanting to get up and dress. People laughed about the trivial wound in one so strong. It had scarcely disabled him.

innoculation he had last Wednesday. Mavis Strum was brought home Sunday morning from the Pendleton hospital where she was seriously ill for the past week. She is greatly improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynne Ranney and daughter Phyllis moved to town last week from Messner and are living in the Murchie house. Mr. Ranney is helping at the Gorham store. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thomas and children and J. Litchman were dinner guests Saturday evening at the E. T. Messenger home. Schnetzer brothers have opened a broom factory in the old Broyles building. The machinery is installed and the work has started. The brooms are being made from broom corn grown on this project and are of a good grade. The Schnetzer brothers have been in the broom business for a number of years and expect to have a permanent factory here.
