

Local Happenings

Don McLaughlin, field representative of Inland Empire Waterways association, was in the city yesterday from Walla Walla contacting the county court and budget committee in the matter of Morrow county levying a tax to help support the organization which is working in the interests of development of the Columbia river for transportation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox returned to town the first of the week from Ellis ranger station where Charles was fire guard during the fire season. On leaving there was six inches of snow in the Ellis vicinity which had started to melt. Mr. Wilcox bagged a nice big buck deer shortly before leaving. He is contracting hay chopping at present.

Charlie Latourell pulled into town yesterday from the annual deer hunt in company with friends from Marshfield, and reported slaying a buck weighing considerably more than 200 pounds. He expected to leave this morning to join his family at Culver City on the coast where they are living for the winter.

Among recent lucky hunters bringing in their mule tail bucks are Truman Babb and N. D. Bailey, local carpenters. Each of the men bagged his prize in a few hours hunt, Mr. Babb having his loaded on the car trailer in less than two hours after he started to hunt.

Charles Cox and Charles Vaughn, postmaster and garage proprietor respectively, returned the first of the week from their annual deer hunt with a 200-pound buck apiece. The two Charlies are veteran hunting companions and rarely fail to get their meat.

LeRoy C. Wright, county agent from Oregon City, enjoyed a deer hunting trip with Joseph Belanger, local county agent, the first of the week and succeeded in bagging a nice little buck. The men returned to town yesterday.

Leonard Carlson was in the city Friday from the Gooseberry district expecting that the newly sown grain would be coming through the ground very shortly following the good rains.

Friends have received word from Mrs. Anna Keithley that it has been necessary for her to reenter a hospital in Portland, after having been dismissed recently following a goiter operation.

H. O. Tenney, Hotel Heppner manager, returned home Tuesday from Hot Lake where he spent a week at the famous health resort recuperating from an attack of flu.

Bonnie Cochran had the misfortune to sprain her knee this week which is keeping her confined at home. She reports she is otherwise o.k., and "getting around fine."

D. P. Phelan, engine watchman for O. W. R. & N., is reported confined to his home suffering an attack of diphtheria. Mr. Phelan is indisposed also with tonsillitis.

Clyde Wells was a visitor in the city yesterday, coming over from the home at Pendleton where he handles real estate and has a newspaper agency.

The dance announced for Rhea creek next Saturday night has been postponed because of the pioneer reunion dance at Lexington on the same date.

Harry Quackenbush is reported slightly better, holding his own and then some, in the severe illness that has kept him bedfast for some time.

Lawrence Redding was in town Saturday from Eight Mile. He was quite well satisfied with prevailing growing conditions for the new crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Parker have returned to town from Madison butte where Mr. Parker was looking out during the fire season.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the HEPPNER HOTEL on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30TH.

Francis Nickerson bagged a nice young buck Sunday while hunting with his father, F. B. Nickerson, and J. O. Turner.

Mrs. Chester Saling of Prairie City and Mrs. Walter Farrens of Hardman were visitors in this city Saturday.

Mrs. John Anglin has been quite ill at her home for several days.

Editorial

It is most gratifying to observe the wide circulation of our local paper. The people of Condon showed almost unbelievable interest in the Hehisch. Their response to the appeal for loyalty given last week was magnificent. They had fully as many people attending the game as came from Heppner, despite the distance from which they came. That should be a supreme humiliation to Heppner. "The opposing team had more rooters than the home town boys." Does that sound complimentary? Your team plays long else this Friday and will appreciate your support. The next week end they play Mac Hi here. Mac Hi is rated as the strongest team on the schedule and the team will need the support of everyone. It is the last game on the home field. The grandstand should be filled. Don't let other towns get ahead in enthusiasm. Support the team yourself.

Huckleberry Finn

Oh-oh! What's this? Is that boy crazy? Who ever heard of Paul Brown on his knees begging Marjorie Parker to become his "Hungarian Goulash"? Tsk! Tsk! Marjorie refuses. That is too bad. But just wait awhile. I bet something else turns up.

I didn't know Kay Parker could peel apples so fast. And consume them! I'll wager that this ends in a romance, too—if she doesn't get too many green ones.

La Verne Van Marter is going to have another infected hand if he isn't careful! He has been spending his spare time rubbing a lamp chimney trying to make a genie (or "jennie" as he pronounces it) appear.

Van thinks that he can communicate with the dead, because he can talk to Len Gilman, and Len is dead from the neck up.

We always thought Nonie McCreagh was Irish, but she is too superstitious for that. She broke a new cut-glass bowl because she would have had seven years' bad luck if it had been a mirror she had broken.

What do you think? At last Louise Anderson will get a chance to wear dresses below her knees and have a beau all her own. This is the result of Helen Van Schoick's begging Reverend Jones to marry her.

What is all this about? See junior play, "Huckleberry Finn," November 22.

Interview With Mrs. Rodgers

The president of the Morrow County unit of the Oregon State Teachers association this year is Mr. Stan Atkin, principal of the school at Irrigon. It's the intention of this organization to study a plan for a teachers' retirement fund. A county committee will soon be appointed to gather and disseminate information pertaining to the teachers' retirement fund. The Morrow county unit of the O. S. T. A. plans this year to sponsor a county music festival for both elementary and high schools, a typing contest for high schools, a spelling contest for elementary schools, and a track meet for elementary schools.

The next meeting of the county organization will be held some time in March. Delegates from this organization will be sent to the state organization which will be held in Portland in December.

The members of the teaching profession of Oregon are delighted that the next annual meeting of the education association will convene in Portland in July.

The county school superintendent will be glad to discuss this system with the parents at any time.

The rural teachers' club is again organized for the year with Lena Kelly, president; Mrs. Lillian Turner, vice-president; Norma Gibbons, sec.-treas. As their study topic this year they have chosen the subject of Remedial Reading and the members of the group expect to earn their reading circle credit through this study. All teachers of one-, two- and three-room rural schools are members of this organization.

Club News

The Benzine Ring held its first meeting of the year at the school house a week ago last Thursday night at which they elected the following officers for the first semester: president, Jim Driscoll; vice-president, La Verne Van Marter; secretary-treasurer, Nonie McLaughlin. After the election of officers a business meeting was held. An interesting experiment was performed by Jim Driscoll which involved the production of chlorine gas and some of its effects on living creatures.

Several members of the Girls' League are busy this week preparing a skit which is to be given this Saturday at Hermiston where there will be the fall convention of Girls' League delegates.

Girls' League Convention

The Girls' League will have a convention in Hermiston Saturday, the 26th. Each Girls' League has been asked to contribute some part to the program. Heppner league's contribution to this will be a marionette show. The skit will be a take-off of a Shirley Temple picture. The girls taking part will be Harriet Hager, Dora Bailey, Ariene Morton, Kathryn Parker and Marjorie Parker. Much interest has been shown in this convention and a large number from Heppner are planning to attend.

The Social Hour

Last Tuesday night the first social hour of the year was held in the school gym. The period from 7:30 to 8:55 was divided equally, the first part being given to playing games and the last part to dancing. Mr. Blankenship was in charge of the games, and Miss Leathers, Norton King, Gerald Cason and Buddy Blakely furnished very good music for the dancers. A very enjoyable time was reported by those who attended, and we hope that more will be present at the next social hour.

From Mrs. Rodgers' Office

Gordon Bucknum is planning on conducting classes in adult education. A class of recreation and health for men will be offered. Various other classes will be taught if there is enough demand for them. The New Oregon Blue Books have been distributed to each of the schools.

Mrs. Bloom is chairman for the music of the county this year. She will also have charge of the music festival.

Meeting of Principals

There was an Oregon high school principals' and superintendents' conference held at Salem, October 18 and 19. Mr. Bloom attended. Mr. Blankenship being unable because of the football game here Saturday. The purpose of this meeting was to study administration problems. The physical education under the new law was discussed. Other topics discussed were teachers' certification, teaching load of teachers, and training of teachers. The association favored requiring the high school teachers having five years college training before being certified for teaching.

Boys' Sports

The Heppner Fighting Irish tramped down the field to a 13-0 score against Condon Saturday at Rodeo field. At first Condon seemed to have the edge on the Irish, but after the second quarter the Heppner team started clicking. With a series of short passes and line plunges by La Verne Van Marter, the Irish went over for a touchdown.

The competition was somewhat harder in the second half, but as a whole the team showed up better. After the completion of a long pass which placed Heppner in scoring position, Len Gilman circled right end for the second touchdown.

On defense Jimmy Driscoll and La Verne Van Marter stood out, making more tackles than any other two men on the field. At the sound of the gun Heppner had the ball in Condon's territory.

Girls' Sports

The gym classes this week will be spent in rearranging the squads. New captains will be appointed and the squads divided more evenly. The girls will continue to play baseball outside as long as the weather will permit. Colder days will be spent in playing volleyball and practicing exercises. Several of the girls have already started hiking and riding in hopes of getting a letter at the end of the year.

Grade School News

The first grade pupils are going to make the cover for the next issue of "Dog Barks," a paper by the first four grades.

The first grade pupils also have a special interest in goblin pictures and poems. They are making masks for Halloween.

The second grade pupils are studying the life of bees. They are making a book of bees which will be illustrated with their own drawings.

Richard Leep of Enterprise has enrolled in the second grade. Dick Johnson, who enrolled in the second grade in September, has returned to his home in California.

Robert Leep of Enterprise has enrolled in the fourth grade. The fifth grade pupils have a display of their soap carvings in their room.

The fifth grade citizenship club have elected their officers. They are as follows: President, Dorothea Wilson; vice-president, Neta Rae Bleakman; secretary, Claud Drake.

Feature Story

"Say, will you tell your father to keep his cows at home at night?" "Why?" "Because I can't possibly sleep with them mooing in my ears all night long. Furthermore, they frighten me out of my wits. This fair young lady who says she is 'frightened out of her wits' apparently does not like cows. But should we make fun of her? No, because we all have our pet likes and dislikes, don't we."

Is Glory All?

This question was asked of a famed and renowned athlete as he,

far from the plaudits of an admiring throng, prepared for his last "great stand."

He cast his eyes about the ever-deepening shadows of the little hospital room, flashed for one brief moment a reminiscent smile, then said:

"Long ago, at the little school back home, I learned to laugh at glory."

"It was our big game. A win had been expected from us, but we had failed, and now in the final fleeting minutes, despair precipitated mean, ugly, unsportsman acts. Yet amidst all, our opponents' smiling midget captain voiced not a word of complaint. Beneath the grimy 'pile up' of a skirmish I succeeded in administering a few un-called-for punches. The little fellow jumped up first, grabbed my hand and helped me to my feet. He smilingly patted my shoulder and said: 'Don't be glory's fool!'"

For a moment I stared blank-faced at nothing, then burst into laughter. I laughed again and again for now I saw, as he had been used to seeing, glory not as an end but a myth. What if we lost! We had fought the fight and in losing could still gain, for now had come one moment in life that was to make many more worth living. No—glory is not all—Glory is the least!

Humor

Mr. Evans: How can you be so lazy?
Lawrence: Oh, that's not hard at all.

Mr. Bloom (in American History): What is William Penn remembered for?
Emmett Kenny: Cigars.

Harriet H. (at the football game): Do you know the fundamentals of football?
Arlene M.: Sure, fullbacks.

Gerald: Have you seen Larry's girl friend?
Lola: Which one?

HAVE YOU EVER—
Heard Pinky Clark modestly admit that he was fullback on the team?
Heard of two rallies in one night?

Seen Harriet Hager pheasant hunting.
Seen Phyllis Tice after the rally? Wondered why Mr. Blankenship went to the rally Friday night? Noticed that Norton likes blondes?

Seen Bill Browning out riding with Kathleen Furlong?
Seen Van Marter's new hat? Wondered how Gerald skinned his nose?
Noticed how tough the Condon boys are?
Seen Scott McMurdo walking home holding hands with "Peaches" Browning?

Don't Delay that Winter Check-up

● There's new snow in the mountains and a freeze-up may come any time. If it catches your car it may result in a cracked engine block or other costly trouble. Besides, lighter oil and grease, and carburetor and ignition adjustments are needed for efficient and economical operation during cold weather.

● Just say "Cold Weather Check-Up" when you bring in your car and our expert mechanics will do the job—COMPLETE.

FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS I COULD SEE TO READ IN THIS CHAIR.

YES, AND THESE NEW BETTER SIGHT LAMPS MAKE SEWING EASIER.

Amazing new I. E. S. BETTER SIGHT LAMPS actually help prevent eyestrain!

● If you have difficulty reading or doing any fine visual work in your home, the chances are that your lighting is at fault. Either you haven't enough light—your lamps are incorrectly placed—or your eyes aren't getting the right kind of light. If you persist in using your eyes night after night under these conditions, serious eyestrain is likely to develop.

The only way to be certain about your lighting is to have it checked with a sight meter. Then you will know not only how much light you have now, but also how much you should have for every type of visual task. Ask our nearest office to have one of our home lighting experts call at your home and make a lighting analysis. Let our expert advise you about your lamps, too, and tell you more about the new sight-saving I.E.S. lamps. This service is given without charge or obligation. Please write or phone for it today.
