

Local Happenings

Henry Hapold returned from the mountains at the close of the deer season with a nice four-point buck.

Tim Rippee is among the big game hunters this season, getting a dandy 235 pound buck.

Mrs. Mark Merrill may not be all that is expected of an amazon but she at least matched the skill of male ninjas.

Two local hunters made their first kill of a deer this season. They are Stanley Minor and Robert Jones.

Announcement has been received of the arrival of Billy Lee, weight 9 pounds 3 ounces.

Floyd Worden of Eight Mile didn't get his buck, but he did get a good sized bear as a trophy of the hunt.

Kenneth Oviatt has succeeded Clinton Rohrer as assistant postmaster.

Walter Blackburn spent a few days before the close of the deer season at Ukiah and went out into the timber long enough one day to land himself a nice little two-point buck.

Roy Lieualten was out with a party of eight hunters over in the Tullgate country and bagged a 234-pound buck.

T. E. Sheridan, former resident of this county, was in the city Saturday from Hood River where he has been located for several years while following railroading.

Earl, Len and Louis Gilliam spent the closing days of the hunting season over in the Greenhorn mountains at the Dan Stalter mine and each landed his buck.

Eddie Sheridan landed a buck weighing considerably over 200 pounds while hunting in company with E. R. Schaffer last week end.

Which Are We? When we get a new book we notice that it has a shiny new paper cover.

This fittingly represents life. The new cover represents the people who coop themselves up like hermits to live lives of no value to anyone.

When we get a new book we notice that it has a shiny new paper cover. After we have used this book year after year the pretty new cover is soiled and torn and we must discard it.

Heppner's football team defeated the Ione team last Friday in an easy victory. At the beginning of the first half, Heppner scored a safety followed by two touchdowns.

final minutes of play Ione made its only scoring of the game; the final score was 22-6. This was Heppner's first scheduled game in which they have been scored upon.

Next Friday promises to be the biggest game of the year, with Mac-Hi. As this is a home game, let's see a good crowd out there.

Class News

The boys' gym class is going to begin a volleyball tournament this week. Those boys who wish to are practicing tumbling after school and they plan, when the basketball season begins, to do tumbling between halves of the games.

The Spanish class is having lots of fun experimenting by talking nothing but Spanish a part of their class period. Since they have practically finished their review on verbs and grammar, they hope to receive their Spanish readers soon.

The freshmen are planning to give the freshmen return party in the near future. If you have noticed a fishy attitude among some of the Heppner high school students you will know that it is just because the biology students are studying vertebrates this week.

The home economics class will have finished their aprons by the end of this week and the art class is beginning to do lettering.

New Tennis Courts at School

Before many months it is hoped that two new tennis courts will be completed. They are to be erected on the school grounds, south of the gymnasium.

The sixth grade entertained the fifth grade with a play last week. The play, "A Good Scolding," was written by Lucille Barlow.

The fifth grade Citizenship club appointed the following monitors

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS

Among those attending the Stunt Night entertainment at Heppner last Monday evening were Mrs. Irl Clary, Richard Robison, Delvin and Dallas McDaniel, Delsie, Zetta and Pat Bleakman, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings, Ronald Farrens, Lois Stevens and Opal Hastings.

Among Hardmanites attending the pioneers' reunion at Lexington last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel, Herman Neilson, Mrs. Chester Saling and Mrs. Walter Farrens.

J. C. Walker had the misfortune to break both bones near the ankle of the left leg while walking about in his yard last Friday when one of the crutches fell from his hand.

Mr. Walker was left a cripple as the result of a serious illness many years ago and has been in the barber and cobbler trades here for some time.

Mrs. Lillian C. Turner, teacher in the local schools, spent the week end in Portland.

Mrs. Charles Roach and small daughter of Kinzua were visiting at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers a few days last week.

Heppner visitors last Monday were Carl Leathers, Robert Burnside and Forest Adams.

Mrs. J. B. Adams returned home last Saturday from the Lotus Robinson ranch on Rhea creek where she has been employed the past month during the illness of Mrs. Robinson. She reports Mrs. Robinson to be much improved.

Sunday school was organized last Sunday with almost twenty members enrolled.

Max Buschke and Carey Hastings are busy repairing the grade school building this week. It is expected that there will be about forty days work before the school can be removed to the grade school building. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swift and Joe Thornburg were visitors here last Sunday from their Lexington homes.

This vicinity was treated to some winter weather last Tuesday when the ground was covered with a blanket of snow.

Mrs. Chester Saling returned to her home at Prairie City last Sunday, having spent two weeks at her home here.

IT'S CHEAPER to rent a safe deposit box than to replace lost papers. Many valuable papers if lost could never be replaced. Others could be replaced only at a great cost and inconvenience. If you lose an insurance policy, for example, or a stock certificate, you will have to put up a surety bond to procure a duplicate. It's far cheaper and safer to keep such papers in your own safe deposit box, which you can rent for as little as $3 a year. ARRANGE TODAY FOR A SAFE DEPOSIT BOX HERE! E. L. Morton, Manager.
