

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson arrived the end of the week from their home near Gold Beach and are visiting with relatives and friends. They reported cold weather prevailing on the coast when they left, though not as cold as encountered here. Among other things, Mr. Ferguson is breeding mammoth frogs on his coast farm. It takes a few years to bring these to marketable size, but good demand prevails for their legs as a delicacy in city restaurants.

J. O. Kincaid was a visitor in the city Monday from his farm in the Ione section. He had not seeded his fall wheat crop, and was not altogether sorry as it appears the newly sown grain may have been hurt by the recent cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harding arrived the end of the week from their home at Port Orchard, Wash., where they conduct a service station, and visited with their son Jack, local barber.

John Troedson and son Verner were business visitors in the city Monday from the north Ione farm. The cold snap was quite severe in their section.

Ivar E. Nelson, wheat farmer of the south Ione section, was transacting business in the city Tuesday.

RHEA CREEK

The regular meeting of Rhea Creek grange was held November 3 and the following officers elected for the coming year: Ray Wright, master; secretary, Ruth Stevens, chaplain, Tracy Parker; lecturer, Marjorie Worden; overseer, Floyd Worden; treasurer, O. E. Wright; lady assistant steward, Gladys Beckett; assistant steward, Ben Anderson; steward, Joe Stevens; door keeper, Charlie Beckett; Pomona, Pearl Wright; Flora, Eva Wright; Ceres, Anna Heinie; executive committee, Walter Beckett, Fred Akers, Frank Parker; juvenile matron, Alice Anderson. Installation will be held at the regular meeting Dec. 1st, Mary Lundell in charge.

Renovation of the grange kitchen will begin Tuesday, Nov. 12. Members are urged to be there early. On Thanksgiving a pot-luck dinner will be served at 6 o'clock with a social time following. Members and friends are cordially invited. Juvenile grange was reorganized under leadership of Alice Anderson. Officers for the coming year were elected and will be installed December 1st.

Those attending the grange conference at Ione were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Walter Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Stevens, Mrs. John Bergstrom and Mr. and Mrs. F. Worden.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Wright are spending the week in Portland. Roy Lieualen and Dale Brown made a business trip to Pendleton last week. Alpha Knott was a visitor at the Joe Batty home over the week end. Bill Mahrt of Pendleton was in Eight Mile this week. He expects to install some new Delco plants there in the near future.

"Huckleberry Finn"
Kathryn Parker
—H.H.S.—

Play Soon to be Presented.
Just think! Three more weeks and we get to see "Huckleberry Finn." The cast has been practicing for more than a month, and from what we hear it is going to be a great success.

Don't you think you will enjoy seeing Paul Brown propose to Marjorie Parker? William McCaleb is good at making love, isn't he, Kathryn Parker?

Just to let you know the other characters, I now introduce you to: Kathryn Parker as Aunt Polly, who is "so nervous."

Marjorie Parker as Ruth Watson, her sister.
Dora Bailey as Mary Jane, their niece.

Paul Brown as Fred Raymond, in love with Ruth.
Nonie McLoughlin as Melba White, colored maid at the Watsons'.
Helen Van Schoiack as Clara Wappinger, church deaconess.

Louise Anderson as Amy Wappinger, her irrepressible sister.
La Verne Van Marter as Huckleberry Finn, who loves to play pranks.

William McCaleb as John Finn, his father.
Len Gilman as Tom Sawyer.
Huck's pal and comrade.
Don't you think it should be a good play with such a cast?
Remember! This play is based on the immortal story by Mark Twain.

Hot Lunches to be Served.
Serving of hot lunches started Tuesday. These lunches are being served on the same principle as those of last year. One hot dish is served every day to supplement the students' lunches. The menu consists chiefly of soup, stews, and chocolate. It is hoped these services can be given free to students who ordinarily bring their lunches.

Class News.
The Spanish class has received its new "Par Espana" books from which they will start studying immediately.

The girls in home economics I have completed their aprons. They are now beginning their next project to consist of one of the following: slippers, gym shorts, dance set.

The English classes have been taking up effective speaking. Each student is required to give several speeches of various lengths.

The girls' gym class has started a series of volley ball games. Each squad is being divided to compete for the championship.

CLUB NEWS.
Initiation Given.
Ariene Morton and Jackson Gilman were duly initiated into the Benzene Ring at the last regular meeting. At this meeting Bernard McMurdo gave a report on "Time" and Betty Doherty gave one on "The Living and the Dead." Suggestions were made for new members.

Reports Heard.
The Girls' League assembled at 3 o'clock Friday. The delegates who attended the meeting in Hermiston gave interesting reports of what they had seen and heard.

Scout Meeting.
The weekly Scout meeting was held in Mr. Pevey's room Monday night. Tenderfoot tests were passed and signaling was studied. John Crawford gave a talk on the Scout laws.

Huckleberry Finn.
"Only fifteen more days, kids!"
"Fifteen more days till what?"
"Until the Junior play, 'Huckleberry Finn.' You know we'll get to see La Verne Van Marter and Len Gilman going around barefooted. Gosh, I hope they wash their feet. I've heard that Dora Bailey and Louise Anderson are learning to giggle, but I don't think they need much teaching."
"They tell me," chimes in another, "that Helen Van Schoiack and Kathryn Parker are two old maids. That is rich! It's going around that there is going to be a pretty good fight between Bill McCaleb and Paul Brown. They say that Marjorie Parker falls in love with the winner. Marjorie, how could you?"

"I'm surely going to save my money to see that Junior play, to be given November 22 in the gymnasium."

HUMOR.
Popular songs and their writers:
"Love in Bloom," Kathryn and Paul.
"I'm in the Mood for Love," Betty and Howard.
"Cheek to Cheek," Dora and Ellis.
"When Your Hair has Turned to Silver," Beth and Howard.

When Irene Beamer flirted with the boys?
Coach—"There were only two good tackles the whole game."
Spud—"Who made the other one, Coach?"
Mr. Bloom: Where did the battle of Brandywine take place?
Phyllis: On top of page 22.
Mr. Evans: What's a metaphor?

Andy: To keep cattle in.
Dr. Rice: Your test shows you're a minus.
Miss Rockhold: Why! How dare you?
Mr. Bloom: What were Nathan Hale's last words?
Norton: Give me liberty or give me death.
