

Local Happenings

Henry Peterson, Eight Mile wheat raiser, was in town Tuesday on business. Recent good rains have prevailed in his section and moisture content of the ground considerably increased, auguring well for the new wheat crop. Indications show that some damage to the growing crop was done by the recent cold snap where the winds had blown the snow away, he said, though he was not prepared to say to just what extent the damage would reach.

Earl Thomson visited over Sunday with Heppner relatives and friends, coming up from Portland where he is employed with Hudson-Duncan Co., wholesale grocers. He brought his mother, Mrs. Mary Thomson, home after a visit of several weeks in the city, and was also accompanied by a friend, Lester Hollenbeck who returned to the city with him Sunday afternoon.

Add-a-Stitch club met yesterday at their club rooms for quilting and pot luck luncheon. Attending were Elsie Cowins, Nina Snyder, Grace Shoun, Nettie Flower, Gladys Gentry, Emma Garrigues, Shirley Whitson, Zella Dufault, Ordrie Gentry, Mabel Burdick. They will meet again next Wednesday at the club room.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Githens departed yesterday for Berkeley, Cal., where Mr. Githens goes to build a house for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Lovett. Mr. and Mrs. Githens have been employed with Hugh Currin and sons on their Butter creek farm for the last year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee departed for California Sunday morning, going to San Francisco for a visit with their son, Orrin. Their daughter Kathryn, who holds a nursing position in Chicago, will join them while there and return to Heppner with them for a short visit.

Henry C. Aiken motored to Portland Tuesday on business in connection with opening the new garage now under course of construction by Henry Crump. Mr. Aiken expects the building to be ready for occupancy in order to open for business Thanksgiving eve.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark returned home Sunday from a ten-days' visit in Eugene at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs. They went down in time to attend the annual O. S. C.-Oregon football game.

Frank Hayes, WPA project field supervisor from Pendleton, was in the city last Friday. He is a brother of Andy Hayes, long a Heppner resident and now of Spokane, and uncle of the late Olin Hayes whose funeral was held here Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Thompson, who has been ill for some time, was taken to Portland Saturday by Phelps ambulance and has entered Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. R. C. Phelps attended her on the trip and Harold Hill drove.

Harlow Parkins, district agronomist, and Mr. Hill, district soils man, with the soil conservation service, made an official call on the local office the first of the week. Parkins will be stationed at Condon.

Louis Gilliam and W. O. Bayless each was successful in landing his bull elk this week. They hunted in company with Len L. Gilliam and Ray Drake over in Grant county near the head of Indian creek.

Among the party of Gideons who will conduct services at the Methodist church here Sunday morning, will be Otis W. Smith, cousin of W. O. Dix, and prominent radio singer.

J. H. Frad was up from Portland the end of the week attending to matters of business and visiting at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Pieper.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins were down from their Camas prairie farm home Monday. Winter has pretty much taken charge of the weather in the mountain section.

H. A. Tamblin, county engineer, has been confined to his bed at home for a week, suffering from effects of having his teeth extracted complicated by a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Currin departed yesterday afternoon for their home at Pilot Rock after spending a week here on business and visiting with relatives and friends.

There will be a dance at Rhea creek Nov. 23, with Kanouse's orchestra playing. A free chance on Thanksgiving turkey will be given with each dance number.

Chas. Bartholomew and L. D. Neill were among farmers of the Pine City district transacting business in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer and W. F. Palmateer were business visitors in the city Tuesday from the Morgan farm home.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at Hotel Heppner on Wednesday, Nov. 27, hours 1 to 7 p. m.

C. J. D. Bauman, sheriff, returned home Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.

The latest public performance at the gymnasium was the Library Benefit performance. This was not given only for the benefit of the library, but also for the benefit of all the people who wished to attend. Organizations and groups from Heppner and neighboring towns were asked to give some sort of entertainment so that they would do their part in the way of benefit and performance. All that the audience was required to do was to sit quietly and enjoy the show. But instead of that a great many of them insisted on making such a disturbance during acts that it ruined practically everyone's evening, and made the people on the stage feel as though they should not be there at all. This was just one of the many nights that children and adults failed to conduct themselves in the way that befits any well-mannered and considerate group.

An audience that carries on in this way can be compared to the dog, in the story of "The Dog in the Manger." If you do not wish to enjoy a performance yourself, at least be considerate enough to let those who are interested enjoy it.

We are not aiming this at any certain person or persons. The criticism is general as the guilt is general.

Next Friday night the junior play is to be presented. It is a play that is thoroughly enjoyable, outstanding in humor. It is to be hoped that the competence of the players and the excellence of the play will not be destroyed by the demonstration of stable manners which has hitherto characterized audience conduct at public programs. While certain individuals demonstrated stable manners at the last function in the school auditorium, it is obvious that they did not exercise horse sense.

"Huck Finn" to Commemorate Hundredth Anniversary

At this time the world over is showing its appreciation of Mark Twain by honoring his 100th birthday.

Samuel Clemens, known better as Mark Twain, was born Nov. 30, 1835. "Huckleberry Finn" is his masterpiece. No other writer has so vividly portrayed the irrepressible American boy, or given his readers so adequate an impression of the large, homely, spontaneous life led by native Americans along the Mississippi river. That is where he got many inspirations for his stories.

Remember! This is your first, last, and only chance to see "Huckleberry Finn," as it will be presented here November 22.

An Apple Story

Everyone was started Thursday evening while the junior play cast was practicing by a phenomenal occurrence. It all started when Kathryn Parker brought a pan of apples to supplement her act. She put the pan, with the apples, on the radiator while she went through the first two acts. In the third act, the pan was found empty on the radiator. The only explanation offered was that the heat from the radiator had evaporated the apples.

Class News

The chemistry class have been in a mental whirlwind trying to understand Charles' Law, Boyle's Law, Avogadro's hypothesis and Gay-Lussac's generalizations. Day by day the members are learning more and more about less and less—or is it the other way around?

The Art and Design class have been working on lettering. They will soon start work on the lettering for Christmas cards.

The biology class is still pondering on the connections between the rusting of iron, the evil smell of sulphur dioxide and the high body temperature of the vulgar English sparrow.

The public speaking class will soon begin work on a Christmas program.

Grade School News

The first grade has a display of new books on their library table.

Twelve mothers and Mrs. Rodgers visited the second grade last Friday afternoon. The children entertained them with a program.

The third grade is making a Thanksgiving frieze about the first Thanksgiving.

Melba Burnside, from Hardman, is a new pupil in the third grade.

The fourth grade is making a large book consisting of drawings of scenes from the books they have read. This is in connection with their reading and art course.

Patrick Kubat, from the fifth grade, has moved near Portland where he will live on a ranch and attend a country school.

The sixth grade is going to organize a reading club in which they will report on books they have read.

The eighth grade has two new students. They are James Wood from Wasco and Bill Wood from John Day.

Club News

Boys' chorus, which was discontinued for several weeks, was resumed Monday.

The Benzine Ring met last Wednesday night. Ethyl Hughes was initiated. Neva Bleakman gave a report on "Liquid Air and Liquid Fire." Ray Coblantz reported on "Inheritance." It was decided to ask Miss Rockhold to give a talk on "Etiquette" at the next meeting, which will be on November 20. The Benzine Ring banquet will be postponed until December 6.

The Grand Old Speaker

A special assembly was called at 10 A. M. Friday for the purpose of hearing one of Oregon's leading speakers—Mr. Dan Poling, a long time promoter of higher education. He gave a very interesting talk on building the mind while in youth so that you can face the world at your entering into social and business life. He then led the assembly in singing, at which time many old "live forever" songs were sung.

Afterwards he held conference with the seniors, who welcomed the first interview, about higher education, for this year.

Boys' Sports

The Fighting Irish basketball team started practice Monday evening with a strong turn-out. The absence of Leonard Gilman and James Driscoll weakens the squad but they are expected to be in uniform soon. In the interclass basketball tournament staged last week the juniors narrowly edged out the seniors to win the championship.

The boys of the gym class who wish to may now join the tumbling team. The team has been practicing some fancy stunts and promises some lively entertainment between halves.

FARM HOME RAZED.

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Spencer near Stanfield was razed by fire about noon Friday just as Mrs. Spencer was cooking dinner, apparently starting from a faulty flue. The house and practically all the personal belongings were a complete loss, though some insurance was carried on which full adjustment was allowed. Neighbors assisted them in constructing a temporary tent house in which they will live until arrangements can be made for rebuilding. Mr. Spencer is a brother of Mrs. Cora Crawford of this city.

ONE MILLION FORD V-8 CARS AND TRUCKS IN TEN MONTHS

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out, in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,989.00 for materials.
