Official Paper for Morrow County

Let's Put It Over.

HEPPNER has assumed no financial obligation in entertaining the district basketball tournament here March 6-7, but its reputation as a host city is at stake. The success of the tournament will bear largely on the coming of such events in the future.

panied them as far as Reith where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Sybil Pettys.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Halse and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Halse, parents and brother of Mrs. G. E. Sturm, left this week for their home in South Dakota after several weeks' visit with relatives in Oregon and Washington.

Help Improve Health.

GENERAL cooperation with the P.W.A. program of replacing of fly-proof construction will do much toward bettering health conditions in the county. Probably the greatest single enemy of health is the common house fly, and the old open toilets are known to be the source of much contagion which flies carry, as well as a large breeding source of the flies themselves.

On January 24 Dr. Walter Myers of Salem and Clarence Planning of Pendleton met with all those interested in Christian Endeavor work. At six o'clock there was a supper at which thirty or forty were present.

PINE CITY

By LENNA NEILL The Pine City school is closed for this week due to a scare of scarlet fever. There are no cases in the vicinity, but some of the people have been exposed.

L. D. Neill was a business visitor in Heppner Wednesday. Mrs. Emory Cox and family spent Wednesday visiting at the H. E. Young home.

Miss Isabella O'Brien returned to The Dalles Sunday to resume her studies at St. Mary's academy. Miss Erma Scott of Lexington has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. L. D. Neill.

IRRIGON

By MRS. W. C. ISOM The Irrigon school closed Tuesday for an indefinite period due to a severe epidemic of measles in the community.

Ray Sparks who has been seriously ill with measles is being cared for at the Ollie Coryell home. Mrs. Beale Wisdom visited Mrs. Fred Beake Thursday afternoon.

The section men have been busy the past week moving the mail crane and repairing the depot.

Mrs. Don Kenney left for Portland Monday to visit relatives. The Pep club gave a card party at the gym Wednesday night.

J. W. VanCleave's son from Portland is visiting his parents. Mrs. Walter Grider has been on the sick list the past week.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys from Portland will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday, Feb. 2nd, at 3 o'clock p. m.

William Kick of Hermiston was a business visitor in this vicinity Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kendler and daughter motored to Walla Walla

Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gene McFarland of Umatilla accompanied them.

Air-Screen Fanning Mill Best for Smut Cleaning

For removing smut balls from feed wheat, certain fanning mill types which use screens and air blasts for cleaning have been found most effective in tests by the U. S. department of agriculture, reports George R. Hyslop, head of the farm crops department at Oregon State college.
