Bonds for Water.

The council has set Saturday, February 15, as the date for holding the special election to vote on issuance of $7000 general obligation bonds for improvement of the water system. All legally qualified citizens of the city may vote whether or not they are taxpayers.

An Eccentric Old Gentleman

GREATER furor was probably never caused by an unobtrusive citizen obtruding himself upon the focal center of public attention than in the instance of Dr. John F. Condon, intermediary in the Lindbergh kidnapping case.

should ring true. Jafsie should have given his best efforts toward seeing justice through to the finish. The people of the United States want to see the Lindbergh case cleared up and the guilty parties properly punished.

Jafsie's story smacks strongly of his having fallen victim to commercialized sensationalism. It is to be hoped he may be yet, as he prefers to view himself, just an eccentric old gentleman.

Now Walter Pierce comes forth with House Joint resolution 471 proposing an amendment to the constitution that would give congress the right to legislate without supreme court passing judgment on its acts.

Postal receipts totaling $631,567 in 1935 set an all-time record for Greensboro, N. C.—New Dealer filer in East Oregonian. If New Dealer inflationists aren't curbed, the Greensboro figure won't hold a candle to postal receipts at Squaw's Crossing.

Mr. Groundhog saw his shadow Sunday. He shivered; ducked back into his hole for six weeks' more slumber, and winter continues.

"In regard to the Morrow county checker players that were mentioned in the Gazette, Times last week, it is to be omitted for Stanley says another checker fan, Stanley Minor, 'Especially John Wightman and C. J. D. Bauman,' he says. 'Even a bum checker player like me can keep them from getting on first base.'"

Notice is hereby given of a special meeting of the stockholders of the Lexington Farmers Warehouse Company, to be held on the 15th day of February, 1936, at the hour of 1:30, in the Leach Hall at Lexington, Oregon, for the purpose of re-organization and preparing for Spring activities.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDATE.

Notice is hereby given that I will be a candidate at the May primaries for the republican nomination for County Judge of Morrow County. GEORGE BLEAKMAN, (Paid Adv.) Heppner, Ore.
