Official Paper for Morrow County

Sap . . . the season. It's "sugaring-off" time now up in my home county of Berkshire. They are tapping the maple trees in every "sugar bush".

Success . . . one business. I am always interested in men who started at the bottom and have worked up to the top in one business.

Fare . . . and passes. The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered all the Eastern railroads to reduce their passenger fares to two cents a mile.

King . . . style. King Edward is starting out to be just as good a salesman for British Empire products as he was when he was Prince of Wales.

Tithes . . . abolished. One of the rules laid down in the laws of Moses for the Children of Israel was that every farmer must give one-tenth, or a "tith" of his income to the temple and the priests every year.

England in 1712 to provide a fund, called Queen Anne's Bounty, to support poor churches whose members could not afford to pay the ministers a decent living.
