The Rebekah lodge entertained the members of the junior and se-nior classes after their regular meting last Thursday evening. The affair is an annual one and is looked forward to eagerly by the guests. This year's party was especially en-joyed, the entertainment being centered around a track meet idea with various contests between four teams named for colleges. Dancing was also enjoyed and delicious refreshments served at the supper hour.

Mrs. C. F. Feldman and Mrs. Bert Mason were hostesses for the April social meeting of the Women's Topic club at the home of the latter last Saturday afternoon. Bridge was the diversion of the afon, prizes going to Mrs. D. M. Ward and Mrs. Henry Gorger. Oth-er guests were Mrs. M. E. Cotter, with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Year With Playday Boardman high school girls' athletic association completed a successful year by entertaining girls from Ione, Lexington, Irrigon and Imatilla at their annual Playday, April 17, at Boardman. The afternoon was devoted to folk dancing, races and games, baseball, and bound volleyball, the entire group being divided into four color groups the afternoon's competition. for After these activities each school presented a stunt, followed by lunch in the cafeteria.

Physical education combines a on pitched the game and Francis regular gym period twice a week with the Oregon state point system. Under the direction of Clara Ruff. high school teacher, and Esther Jones, student president of the association, a wide variety of activ-ities has been made available to students, such as volleyball, bas-ketball, horseshoes, track, folk dancing, tumbling, baseball, table tennis, bound volleyball, handbat, hit pin baseball, hiking, and riding. These are handled with the aid of a student head for each sport, coordinated by a head of sports, Mildred Avers. Awards to individual girls are made on the basis of school year, taking into considera-tion interest and sportsmanship This program is topped off by the annual Playday.

Visits on Campaign

Before becoming one of Portland's leading general practition-ers, Dr. Joseph F. Wood practiced medicine for 12 years at Condon. He became acquainted with many Morrow county folk at that time, and when in the city Tuesday evening in the interests of his candidacy for democratic sational committeeman, said it felt just like getting back home.

Dr. Wood was accompanied by Hal Moore, Oregonian political writer, and Bob Wiley, young dem-ocrat, as chauffeur. The doctor said this is his first experience as a political candidate and he admitted unfamiliarity with the campaigning technique. The plunge in-
