Official Paper for Morrow County

A Gracious Gesture.

TOMORROW, at Long Creek, will be held a celebration of the completion of the Pendleton-John Day highway. A large crowd of Grant county people will be in attend-ance and word has drifted out from Pendleton that a representative delegation will be on hand from there.

It is presumed that this is not an exclusive party and that people from other sections will be wel-We like to flatter ourselves come. that Heppner folks will be received cordially, if any there are who take time off to visit our Grant county neighbor. Time was when Hepp-ner was the chief trading point for the territory to the south and it is not a pleasant thought that that old relationship is anything but friendly today.

Doubtless a few of our citizens will drive over tomorrow and fraternize with the good people of Long Creek and Grant county. It is just as well to keep alive that friendship which has prevailed for many years, and although Heppner is slightly handicapped by road con-nection with that section, let it be known that the spirit of friendship is as warm as ever and felicitate them upon their good fortune in securing this modern contact with the outside markets. Some trade, perhaps much of it, that has always come to Heppner from the John Day section will be diverted to Pendleton. This is to be expected and while this city will feel the loss keenly, nothing will be gained by exhibiting an attitude of sour grapes. A good loser is like-wise a good winner. This is Hepp-ner's opportunity to prove herself a good sport.

Think For Yourself

THE coming weeks are important ones for the American people. Many issues of broad political and economic importance to all of us will be discussed from various part-isan angles. The newspapers, the magazines, even the very air will be filled with political pronouncements
