

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

Mrs. A. A. McCabe has been quite ill at her home from what is thought to be the effects of a bite of a black widow spider.

A good sized crowd attended the dance last Saturday night given for Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor who lost their home by fire recently.

Mrs. James Lindsay returned on Friday from Portland where she had been called by the illness of her stepfather, Frank Akers.

A meeting will be held at the school house next Saturday afternoon when the budget will be voted upon and a director elected to take the place of H. D. McCurdy, resigned.

Ted McDaid of Lexington was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Frank Holub and Walter Bristow returned Sunday from Portland where they spent a few days last week.

A committee of ladies from the Women's Topic club is arranging numbers for a stunt show which will be given early in December as a benefit for the local library.

Walter Eubanks spent several days of last week in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely and Mrs. Wallace Mathew enjoyed a visit with relatives in Portland and Estacada and also attended the stock show last week.

Mrs. Cole Smith and her sister, Mrs. J. W. Hoech, came up from The Dalles Sunday. Mrs. Hoech will return in a day or two but Mrs. Smith will remain for a few weeks and arrange her affairs before returning to The Dalles where she expects to make her home with her daughter, Miss Mildred Smith.

The school children and others who attended greatly enjoyed the demonstration of liquid air given at the high school gym last Friday afternoon. This was the first of a series of four programs which will be presented during the school year by National Assemblies.

V. L. Warren was called to Missouri last Thursday by the serious illness of his father.

Mrs. O. E. Peterson departed last Friday for a two months' visit at her old home in Kansas. She took her youngest son with her while the two older children remained with Mr. Peterson to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks and son Donald drove to Salem last Thursday and spent the week end. Lee Beckner is taking medical treatment at Soap Lake, Wash.

Mrs. Della Corson was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Smith.

Mrs. Wrex Hickok returned to her home in Portland last Thursday after spending three weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Moore.

A large barn holding eighty tons of chopped hay was burned to the ground at the Krebs Bros. ranch at Cecil Monday. Beside the hay in the barn a wagon loaded with hay and the hay chopper were also burned. It was not learned how the fire started. No insurance was carried.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and family attended the last day of the stock show in Portland. They returned home Sunday in a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson and family drove to Portland last Thursday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Carlson's niece, Miss Gladys Eastman, and George Duffield, both of Portland, who were married in the Rose City Methodist church last Saturday. Miss Eastman will be remembered by many friends here where she has often visited her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kaiser of Maupin, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ball of Yakima, Wn., Fred and Francis Griffin of The Dalles, Mrs. Verda Ritchie, George Ritchie, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Holmes (Ellen Ritchie), of Portland were among the out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral services for F. M. Griffin Sunday.

The October social meeting of the Women's Topic club will not be held on the regular date but will be given at the home of Mrs. Clyde Denny and Mrs. Agnes Wilcox on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 24.
