

LIBRARY BENEFIT GETS BIG HEARING

Local Talent Entertainment Gives Impetus to Book Circulation.

HILARITY IN SKITS

Many Organizations Provide Talent for Variety Program; Music and "Drammer" Feature.

A capacity audience greeted the annual library benefit Stone Nite at the school gym-auditorium last Friday evening, and gave new impetus to the circulation of good books through the local library. Good music and clever skits marked the two hours of appreciated home-talent entertainment furnished by many organizations from over the county.

Starting with numbers by the Heppner school band, led by Harold Buhman, the program moved smoothly throughout, bringing rounds of applause, and in the less serious moments, uproars of hilarity.

Jack O'Hara captivated the audience, singing "The Oregon Trail" to accompany played on the piano by Miss Juanita Leathers and on the violin by his small sister, Mary Patricia. This offering was followed by the Business & Professional Women club skit, "Little Nell," a farce starring Miss Katherine Mitchell as the bewickered father, Miss Rose Leibbrand as the innocent daughter, Miss Dorothy Peterson as the villain, and Mrs. Freida Sharp as the sheriff.

The Rebekahs were represented by a piano duet with Miss Marjorie Parker and Norborne Peavy officiating at the ivories. Another farce skit, "The Romance of Piff Piff Land," was the offering of the Bookworms, presenting Mrs. Muriel Vaughn as the king, Mrs. Louise Becket as the princess and Mrs. Madge Thomson as Prince Charming. The Eastern Star sponsored another piano duet by Mrs. Virginia Turner and Mary Lou Ferguson.

A tap dance by Jerry Cutler was the Lexington school offering, a charming number. Pat Bleakman with an original reading and Richard Robison with an original song, represented the Townsend club, displaying some of Hardman's exceptional talent. More talent from the same place represented the school in a farce skit, "Love and Corned Beef."

Camp Heppner CCC boys gave "The Successful Applicant." In the roles were Fred Northam, Fred Conway, Paul Pierce, Allen McGrath, John Wiley, Andrew Coffill, Daniel Beale and John Barber. Misses Juanita Leathers, Mary White, Katherine Mitchell and Phyllis Pollock in vocal quartet sang two pleasing numbers for the Heppner school faculty. "Ge, How Gladia Loves a G-Man," another of those extra farcical villainous affairs, gained a big hand as it was presented for the American Legion with Harvey Bauman as the old man, Spencer Crawford as the innocent daughter, Clarence Bauman as the villain and Albert Cox as the "G" (for garbage) man.

For the Lions club, Mrs. Henry Tetz, Miss Juanita Leathers, Blaine Isom and Dr. R. C. Lawrence sang in quartet. The Campfire Girls offered "No, No, a Thousand Times No," a musical farce with still another of those long-mustached villains in the person of Caroline Vaughn. Cast as the heroine was Kingsley Chapin; the hero, Margaret Doolittle; the grandmother, Kathryn Nys; the grandfather, Wilma Hudson, while in the hick quartet which sang the theme song were Lucille Barlow, Eilene Kelly, Jean Gemmill and Dorothy Wilson. Lois Jones and Margaret Doolittle did a skit at the end, with Claribel Adams as property manager.

For the Christian church, Mrs. Walter Blackburn in hilarious make-up read "Sis Hopkins and Her Beau Billion." Concluding the event was Woolgrowers' auxiliary announced this event while models, wearing latest woolen creations, were Arlene Morton, Harriet Hager, Louise Anderson, Kathryn Parker, Maxine McCurdy, Marjorie Parker, Dora Bailey and Frances McCarty.

ROOSEVELT TAKES COUNTY HEAVILY

Voting Here Corresponds With Outcome in State and Nation.

ALL MEASURES LOSE

McNary, Pierce, Holman, VanWinkle, Fatland, French, Victors; Rodent Tax Favored.

Morrow county was somewhat ahead of state and nation in the landslide vote for President Roosevelt at the polls, Tuesday. While latest returns gave Roosevelt 23 million popular votes nationally to Landon's 12 million, and Oregon voted 195,000 for Roosevelt to 95,000 for Landon, this county gave the president 1181 to Landon's 518. Most enthusiastic Roosevelt precinct was Eight Mile where Landon received but one of the 62 votes cast and Roosevelt got 55. Roosevelt carried every state in the Union except Maine and Vermont.

The county favored McNary for senator, Pierce for representative, Holman for treasurer, Van Winkle for attorney general, all of whose election is indicated from the outside vote. Pierce's vote here exceeded that polled by the president. He polled the heaviest vote of any opposed candidate, 1282.

Morrow county gave Hanson Hughes, its candidate for state representative, a handsome majority with 1010 to Fatland's 573, French's 429 and Gray's 423. With two to be elected, almost complete returns from the outside showed Fatland and French leading. The total district vote at last report, Morrow, Sherman and Wheeler counties complete, was Fatland 2344, French 1946, Gray 1573, Hughes 1725. All of Gilliam county had been heard from except Arlington.

Rex Ellis was favored for state senator and his election is indicated. Morrow county opposed all state measures with the exception of the "Old Age Assistance" act, and outside returns indicate all the measures were lost. The county's own rodent control tax measure passed 797 to 600.

A total of 1870 votes were cast for president in this county from a registration of 2377, a 75 per cent poll, the largest recorded in recent years and probably the largest ever recorded. People went to the polls in spite of a cool, blustery day.

An abstract of the county vote by precincts will be found in another column.

Daniel Rice, Pioneer Passes at 88 Years

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon for Daniel Rice, 88, pioneer Morrow county resident who died at Heppner hospital last Thursday night following a lingering illness. Mr. Rice farmed for many years in the Hardman district, though retired for several years in which time he resided most of the time in Heppner. His services were largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. R. C. Young delivered the funeral address, and interment was in Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Rice was born at St. Louis, Missouri, October 11, 1848. He first came to this section as a young man 60 years ago, undergoing many of the pioneer hardships of the early development of this country. He married Anna M. Allen at Telford in 1880, and to this union four children were born, one of whom, Clarence, as well as Mrs. Rice, preceded him in death. He followed farming and stockraising on the ranch near Hardman for many years and there the children were reared. Surviving are the children, Mrs. Maud Craber of Hardman, Mrs. Cecil Burgoyne of Glendale, Cal., and Mrs. Shirley Williams of Portland, besides 12 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

GROUP BROADENS SCOPE FOR RIVER

Notson Reports Inland Empire Waterways Action to Lions; Wheat Conference to be Held.

That Inland Empire Waterways association will devote its efforts for the coming year to sponsoring any feasible program of development of the Columbia river offered by the army engineers, rather than work specifically for any single local project, was the meat of the message brought to the Lions Monday noon luncheon by S. E. Notson, who last week attended the annual association meeting at Walla Walla. In electing directors, Judge C. L. Sweet was maintained while Mr. Kuntzman of Arlington and Mr. Nelson of The Dalles were added from the lower river district to give more widespread representation. Mr. Notson said.

He outlined various proposals of river development and still maintained that construction of Umattli Rapids dam was the next logical step. Mr. Nelson, secretary of The Dalles chamber of commerce, offered the cooperation of his group to the end that The Dalles would not be the last inland empire seaport, and that full advantage might be taken of the Bonneville locks. Navigation of the Columbia and Snake by barges and coastwise vessels was urged. Also announced was development of a new type river vessel which is expected to revolutionize river transportation and bring lower shipping rates to the interior.

Lions offered cooperation in helping entertain the Eastern Oregon Wheat league annual convention, December 4-5, with Joseph Belanger, county agent, urging the importance of the city preparing for this large assemblage, which exceeds in membership that of Oregon Wool-growers, entertained here two years ago. The club also voted to invite a representative of the pea canning industry to address a local meeting in the near future on the possibility of establishing a pea-raising and canning industry here. Ray P. Kinney, president, brought up discussion of the pea industry after talking with Judge W. T. Campbell who holds high hopes that Morrow county would be benefited by such industry.

Arlington Bows to Locals In Friday's Football Game

By P. McCARTY and D. TURNER

Staging a polished aerial attack, Heppner's Fighting Irish defeated Arlington's "Invincible" Honkers, 14-0, on the latter's field last Friday afternoon.

At the beginning of the game, Heppner's kick-off was taken by Leroy Baker who returned it to the 35-yard line. After three unsuccessful passes, Arlington punted. Mixing flashy running plays with a dangerous passing attack, the Irish marched 65 yards for the first score of the game. Gilman bucked thru center from the 2 yard line for the touchdown. His pass to Hoskins made good the conversion. Neither team threatened again during the remainder of the first half.

Arlington was a consistent threat every time they had their hands on the ball. In the third quarter with consistent gains by running and passing, Heppner gained a first down on Arlington's 8 yard line. After three unsuccessful line plays, Heppner relinquished the ball to Arlington after a fumble on the fourth down. Arlington, still playing safe, kicked out of danger on their first play. The quarter ended with the ball in Arlington's possession near mid-field.

The river boys, realizing they were a beaten team, opened the last quarter with a barrage of passes. However, after reaching the Morrow county team's 18 yard line, their threat ended when Gilman, making a beautiful catch, intercepted Baker's pass. The Irish again used their passing attack to an advantage. After gaining a first down on their own 45 yard line, signal-barker sent Van Marter off tackle in a fake reverse. Van Marter, who had previously been held for short gains by a stubborn Arlington defense, dodged two would-be tacklers, and sprinted 55 yards for the final marker of the game. Gilman, on an end-around, fought his way across the line for the conversion.

Gilman's shovel pass to Hoskins worked 6 times without an interception. Van Marter's pass to Gilman, and vice versa, was also a consistent groundrunner.

On the line, Knowles and Gilliam showed marked improvement at the tackle and guard positions. Johnny Hayes and Harold Armstrong, transfers from Tillamook and Greeley, Colorado, respectively, were outstanding in the local's stalwart forward wall. Cason, speedy made-over guard, turned in one of his best of the season at right half. Munkers played his usual good game at quarterback.

Heppner meets Hamilton Armistice day, on the Bulldog's field. Figuratively speaking, Heppner is one touchdown better. The local team, resting this week end, will be in tip-top shape for the last game of the season. This week, Coach Henry Tetz, in anticipation of a hard-fought game Wednesday, is busily rounding his squad into shape.

AUXILIARY TO MEET. Woolgrowers auxiliary will hold their regular luncheon and business meeting at the Lucas place tomorrow (Friday) at 1:15 p. m.

Bleakman received the 12 votes, but they were counted as written in on the non-partisan ballot and were pronounced illegal by the district attorney.

All unopposed candidates for city offices were elected, as follows: Mayor, Chas. B. Cox; councilmen, E. L. Morton, R. C. Phelps, D. A. Wilson, L. D. Tibbles; recorder, E. R. Huston, and treasurer, W. O. Dix. Morton was elected for two years as councilman, while the other three were elected for four-year terms.
