

Local Happenings

William Windsor, "sage of Windsor Castle," was a visitor in the city Saturday from the Ione section. In his fifty years in the county he believes the present fall season to be the driest and coldest he has experienced. He recently sold his farm north of Ione and is now located on a small place just below town. In spite of his having battled life for 81 years, he was proud of the fact that he was still able to "scratch out his own livelihood." Mr. Windsor obtained the title of sage of Windsor Castle several years ago when he made regular philosophical contributions under that cognomen to the Ione newspaper.

Harold Mason returned to town Tuesday from an elk hunt near Hidayay springs, bringing in a large bull which he killed. He reported that Dodd Miller of Springfield killed another elk near by. It is plenty of work, and one must stick to the job if he expects to be successful, Harold said. He took a party of Portland hunters out, but was not successful in getting sight of the game until after they had to leave.

Arthur Johnson, in the city Monday from the Ione section, reported that he had not yet seeded his wheat. He said growing conditions so far this fall were not very prospective, and he believed it might be better to wait till spring. If things open up right in January, he thought he might get it in the ground then. His January seeding did quite well this year compared with crops sown at other times.

Charles W. Barlow, county clerk, will leave Sunday for Portland to attend the state meeting of county clerks which convenes in the city Monday. State meetings of judges and commissioners, and county engineers will be held at the same time, which are expected to attract other officers from this county.

The American Legion auxiliary will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Estes Morton. If members have any used clothing which can be mended and put on our supply shelf, please bring it. It will be mended at this time to be used when needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Babb were called to Albany Monday night by the serious illness of Mr. Babb's father. Mr. Babb was at Ontario when he received the word and Mrs. Babb and son, Norton King, met him at Pendleton, then drove thru to Albany.

Alvin Casebeer passed through town yesterday afternoon on the way to his farm home from elk hunting. He exhibited a large antlered head on the front bumper of the car, and a trailer was pulled behind filled with meat of the carcases.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a ten pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hanna of Dufur at The Dalles, Nov. 15. Mrs. Hanna was formerly Miss Audrey Beamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beamer of Hinton creek.

The Columbia Union C. E. convention is being held in Hermiston this week end. Session will begin Friday night and continue all day Saturday with a banquet scheduled for Saturday evening, and closing sessions Sunday.

Miss Jeanne Huston who has been in charge of Lucille's Beauty shop, departed the first of the week for Portland to reside permanently. Miss Vivian Goad of Pendleton has succeeded her as operator of the Lucille shop.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Alfred returned home Sunday from Portland where Mr. Nelson and Mr. Alfred attended the state meeting of district attorneys on Friday and Saturday.

Eddie Kenny arrived the first of the week from Portland for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kenny. He is taking an enforced leave from his work due to the maritime strike.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pruyn returned home the end of the week from a month's motor tour in California.

Dance at Lexington grange hall, Saturday. Music by Kanouse's of Condon.

Editorial

Our football team this year was one of which we should be proud. Although it was on to a comparatively slow start, it became better as the season went along and climaxed with a victory over Hermiston on Armistice Day. As well as for their victories, the players on the Heppner team should be commended for their fine sportsmanship, which is just as important as winning.

To the townspeople, much credit is also due for their fine support throughout the season, especially at the Hermiston game. The players were particularly aware of this, and they certainly appreciate this support. One thing, however, could have been averted, and that was the goal post episode at the end of the game. Even though they were overjoyed at the outcome, it seems as though the Heppner rooters could have restrained their barbaric instincts enough to keep from destroying property. The goal posts were put up there for a definite purpose and were permanent structures not to be demolished at the end of every game.

The most tragic thing about the affair, however, is the danger of resentment on the part of the Hermiston players and rooters. This resentment may spring up and destroy the fine sportsmanship of which we are proud, between the two teams. There will be a tendency for them to do the same thing to us some day as a means of getting even, and unless some improvement is made on the sportsmanship of the Heppner rooters, it is liable to be in the near future. Sportsmanship! It means a lot to the players; let's make it mean a lot to us.

Armistice Program

The Heppner grade and high schools observed Armistice Day last Tuesday afternoon with a program in the gymnasium. The program opened with group singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." Following this were several musical numbers by the different classes of the grade school. The most outstanding of these were the songs by the eighth grade boys. After one song, the applause was so great that they were obliged to sing another. Dora Bailey gave the poem entitled "In Flanders Fields."

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers. Her topic was "Armistice."

Basketball Session Under Way

Basketball practice started Monday night, under the supervision of Coach Tet. The team's practice will consist of learning fundamentals and developing team play.

The offensive play will be particularly emphasized, although the defensive will not be neglected. The first game will be played with Echo, which boasts a well coached aggregation who are starting active game play earlier than the home squad. About twenty aspirants are seeking positions on the team. Many new faces are to be seen this year. Veteran members of the squad are Gilman, Van Marter, Munkers, Turner and Cox.

Six Weeks' Tests

Have you noticed how studious everybody has become lately? Have you wondered what it is all about? The reason for all of this is that next week six weeks' exams will be given. Some students think that if they work real hard the last week of the six weeks to make up for the work they didn't do the first of the six weeks, they will receive just as good grades. Many of these students will be badly disappointed when they get their cards and will wish they had begun to study at the first. Instead of cramming at the last minute.

Humor

Miss Peterson: "I suppose your baby is very fond of you?"
Mr. Blankenhip: "Fond of me? Why the little rascal sleeps all day long when I'm at work so's he can stay up nights and enjoy my company."

Maurice: "Did I hurt your foot when I stepped on it?"
Zelma: "I won't know until the feeling comes back."

Jackson: "You're the only girl in the whole world for me."
Bethal: "Nonsense, only one man ever said that and told the truth."

Jackson: "Who was he?"
Bethal: "Adam."

Big jokes, little jokes, awful jokes everywhere.

In the schoolroom, in the air; But when the Humor editor comes around, There's not a joke to be found.

Have you ever—
Wondered why La Verne Van Marter never showed up for play practice Sunday afternoon?

Wondered where Maxine McCurdy got her football letter?

Wondered why Fred Hoskins was so embarrassed at the banquet Friday night? (I wonder if he ever did go to that game?)

Seen Bethal Blake riding in a Plymouth coupe Sunday?

Seen Ruth Green arguing? (Trying to raise your grade, Ruth?)

Smith-Hughes News

The Smith-Hughes agriculture class elected the following officers for this chapter: President, Riley Munkers; vice-president, Fred Hoskins; secretary, Bill Barratt; treasurer, Marvin Casebeer; reporter, Andy Shoun; sergeant-at-arms, Wilbur Stone.

These officers will meet at the Imperial hotel in Portland December 5, to receive special training in Future Farmers of America work.

At this meeting a contest will be held to judge which chapter is the best in parliamentary procedure, and which of the chapters have their secretary's and treasurer's books in the best order.

Heppner Annexes U. C. A. L. Championship

Plastered with blood and glory, Heppner high's Morrow county champions trotted victoriously off Hermiston's battle-torn gridiron Armistice day. Using their polished aerial attack to a wonderful advantage, together with a smooth running attack, the Irish scored early and held the lead throughout the game.

Hermiston won the toss and chose to receive. Heppner, taking the ball from the Bulldogs on a fumble, marched quickly down the field to their opponent's 6 yard line. Here the river team's line stiffened, and after four unsuccessful attempts to score, Heppner lost the ball on downs to Hermiston, who quickly punted out of danger. The quarter ended with the ball in mid-field.

After an exchange of punts, the Irishmen's passes started clicking. Gilman's pass to Van Marter was good for 10, and then reversing the order, Gilman snagged Van Marter's pass out of the hands of two would-be interceptors and galloped 15 yards to a touchdown. Van Marter, on a line plunge, made the extra point. Score 7-0.

The half ended shortly after Heppner had again kicked off.

Recovering a fumble shortly after the opening of the second period, the river team, in six plays, pushed over their lone score. At this point the lone Heppner line rose up in defense of their one point lead and stopped the attempted conversion at the line of scrimmage. Score: 7-6.

Hermiston's final threat was squelched when Munkers speared a long Bulldog pass out of the air and ran 30 yards before being downed on Hermiston's 43 yard line. Still trying vainly to score, the Umaticians made three consecutive first downs before the final gun.

Seven local seniors finished their football careers for Heppner with this game: Fred Hoskins, letterman transfer from Ione—a brilliant left end, always fighting with never a let-up. His best game of the year was at Arlington.

Norton King, one year letterman at left end—speediest man on the team, who capably filled his position as a kingman.

Gerald Cason, right half—with no previous football experience, started as a guard but ended the season in the backfield. His fine tackling was a highlight of the Armistice day game.

Riley Munkers, safety and quarterback—smallest but most dependable man on the team. His ability to return punts was a deciding factor in Heppner's successful season.

Len Gilman, left half—captain and signal-caller. Was an outstanding player all season. His brilliant runs, accurate passes, and long punts made him the backbone of Heppner's attack.

Andy Shoun, tackle—a senior utility man who always turned in a good game.

Bill McCaleb, tackle—another graduating senior. A good lineman who paved the way for Heppner's numerous power plays.

Football Banquet

Last Friday the football boys, Coach and Mrs. Tetz, and Mr. and Mrs. Blankenhip were entertained at a banquet given by the home economics club. From the reports of those attending, the banquet was a huge success. Coach Tetz acted as toastmaster, and, from the general opinion, handled the dinner in quite an interesting manner. The talks were carried on in form of a football game. Each boy had to make a speech, and if it was good enough, the ball was advanced five yards. When half of the boys had spoken, time was called for the "half." During the "half," Mr. Blankenhip gave his opinion of the past football season and of the future basketball season. In the second half the remaining boys, by their spectacular plays, or should we say speeches, advanced the ball over the goal line to a touchdown. The banquet was concluded with the singing of the Heppner Loyalty song.

After the banquet, a dance was held with everyone having a most enjoyable time. The majority of the student body, especially the football boys, hope this banquet may be an annual school custom.
