Baby Hoax Fails

PEARL RIVER, La. . . Above is Mrs. Louis Crawford with a 7 day-old infant child which she claimed was carried to her cabin door by a large mongrel dog. She called him "Little Moses," her miracle child . . . but later admitted it was her child, born unbeknown to her husband. Scandal now stalks this river country.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and family and Miss Mable Rauch were dinner guests at the Emery Cox home in the Columbia district Sunday.

Workers Inquire About Social Security Act

WASHINGTON . . . The above scene at Washington was but a forerunner of like scenes throughout the nation where divisional headquarters of the new Social Security Board are established. Scene shows workers crowding the offices of the Board here, inquiring about different phases of the old-age pension regulations which go into effect January 1 as the new Social Security Act operations are applied.
