

Willows Grange Elects New Officers

Willows grange held its regular business meeting at the hall in Cecil Saturday night. A short program featuring the graces Ceres and Pomona was given. Worthy Lecturer Vida Heliker read an article on the origin of the goddesses or graces, showing that the history of graces Ceres, Flora and Pomona date back earlier than 491 B. C.

Miss Dorothy Brady as Ceres and Miss Opal Cool as Pomona gave a playlet telling of the early planting of grains and fruits in this country.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: O. L. Lundell, master; J. O. Kincaid, overseer; Vida Heliker, lecturer; George Krebs, steward; Kenneth Lundell, assistant steward; Elsa Peterson, chaplain; Clara Kincaid, treasurer; Mary Lundell, secretary; W. G. Palmateer, gatekeeper; Dorothy Brady, Ceres; Helen Lindsay, Pomona; Charlotte Ferguson, Flora; Mary Lindsay, lady assistant steward; executive committee, Elmer Peterson, E. C. Heliker, Roxy Krebs.

Installation will be held January 9. Initiation in the first and second degrees was set for Saturday evening, Dec. 19. Plans were also discussed for the H. E. C. bazaar and turkey supper to be served from 6 to 8 p. m., and a program and social evening to be held at the hall Saturday evening, Dec. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander of La Grande attended the meeting. Mr. Wicklander, state deputy, gave an interesting, instructive talk. He also referred to the recent national grange meeting at Columbus, O., where 8000 candidates were elected to membership in the national grange.

Those who came last Sunday morning to help pay on the church debt gave voluntarily $195.92. This is still far short of our goal. May those who were not present to share in this common obligation drop their sacrificial gift in the offering plate on Sunday.

Though Dec. 6 is observed in many places as Universal Bible Day, we are observing the following Sunday. The Methodist church is doing likewise.

Woodrow Wilson is author of the following: "America was born to exemplify that devotion to the elements of righteousness which are derived from the revelations of Holy Scripture. I ask of every man and woman—that from this night on they will realize that part of the destiny of America lies in their daily perusal of this great book—that if they would see America free and pure, they will make their own spirits free and pure by this baptism of the Holy Scripture."

Mills, Jr., vice president of U. S. National bank, Portland, will round out the forenoon.

At 1:15 sessions will again be opened by a musical selection, and in addition to Dr. Bell's address talks will be heard on "The Noxious Weed Problem of the Oregon Wheat Belt," by A. G. Avery, Union county agent; "Feeding Wheat to Livestock" by D. E. Richards, superintendent Union experiment station, and "Columbia River Development" by W. S. Nelson, manager The Dalles chamber of commerce. Committee meetings are slated for 4:15.

The second headlight event will be the 6:30 o'clock banquet at the Elks' hall with Governor Charles H. Martin as guest speaker. J. G. Barratt, president Oregon Woolgrowers association, will be toastmaster, and program numbers will be amplified by Standard Oil company courtesy broadcasting system. Accommodation for 400 people is being made by Lexington grange, who are preparing and serving the meal. Townspeople as well as visitors are invited to attend, tickets being available at the registration desk at the school gym and at the county agent's office.

Saturday morning committees will meet at 8 o'clock. General conference will open at 9 with selection by Heppner school band, and talks will be heard on "Cooperative Marketing of Agricultural Products" by Wm. A. Schoenfeld, dean and director of agriculture, O. S. C., and "Needed Changes in Agricultural Legislation" by Solon T. White, director state department of agriculture. Reports of committees are set for 11 o'clock and again at 2:15 in the afternoon. At 1:30 D. E. Stephens, superintendent Moro experiment station, will discuss "Substitute Crops." Caucus by counties is set at 4:15 to be followed by election of officers and report of special committees beginning at 4:30.

Sam McMillan and Chuck Schriever were young farmers of the Lexington district here Monday on business.

Ed Dick, Jr., student at Pacific university, Forest Grove, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Turner and Miss Mary White motored to Portland over the week end.
