Importance of Support

The basketball season started with a bang when Heppner played Echo Friday evening, December 4. The final score was 28-19, in favor of Heppner.

The squad was well supported by the students in the yell sections, but we noticed several empty seats which might have been filled with town folks. The boys appreciate the interest and support of their parents and friends more than anything else. They feel that their parents and fellow townsmen can do as much, or even more, in helping the team along to victory, as the student body itself. They can do this by turning out at the games and showing that they have an interest in the students' interests.

Band Plays for League

The school band opened the Eastern Oregon wheat league convention held in Heppner Friday and Saturday, with two numbers: the waltz, "Little Marie," and a march, "Aunt Hannah," by Bennett. Saturday morning the band played three pieces: "Energy" and "Sola" by Bennett, and the "Washington Post March" by Sousa.

The rooting section at the basketball game Friday evening was greatly enlivened by the presence of the band. This was not the regular pep band. Anyone belonging to the regular band was allowed to play at the game.

Girls' League Holds Meeting

The Girls' league held a meeting last Friday to discuss several means for raising money. They planned to give a carnival and dance, several skits throughout the year, and also sell candy at the basketball games. The girls feel that these undertakings will be successful if everyone will cooperate with them.

Noise?

What is noise? Anything that you can hear? That is just what we heard at the pep assembly last Friday. Although the assembly was short, it was very snappy and full of pep. That's the way we want the team to be when they are playing the various games. With a pep assembly like that one to start the boys off right, we should be able to win every game.

Heppner Opens Season with Victory

Displaying a fast brand of basketball, the Fighting Irish started off the season with a victory over the sharp-shooting Echo team by the score of 26 to 18.

Drawing first blood, Hoskins started the scoring with the first basket of the year. Gilman then followed with another marker, but Echo sank two, and the quarter ended with the score knotted at 4 all.

At the opening of the second quarter, Echo hooped two more baskets. At this point, the local's defense tightened, and an offensive resulted which netted 7 points. Halftime score: Heppner 11, Echo 10.

The Friskers, coming out for the second half, opened another barrage which totaled 8 points before the river team called time out. Score at the end of the third quarter: Heppner 21, Echo 14.

The remaining period was marked by long shots from both sides. Final score: Heppner 26, Echo 19.

The Heppner squad played a good clean game of basketball, only one foul being chalked up against them, while the opposing team had seven.

Line-up:
 Heppner—

Hoskins (7) G Shapshire (4)
 Gilman (2) G Cunha
 Van Marter (4) C Spike (3)
 Munkers (1) F Roberts (6)
 Turner (12) F Herring (6)

Substitutions: Heppner, Cox f, and Crawford f; Echo, Nye f and Holman g.

Officials: Herbert Lewis, Lexington; Jim Furlong, Heppner.

Humor

Did you know that—
 Students are being held in suspense in connection with the name for our athletic teams?

Bill Browning has given up the idea of learning to drive a car?

Both Coach Tetz and Mr. Blankenship told Gilman to go straight home after Social Hour?

On Saturday Dad Driscoll fired two of his "hired help" because of conduct?

Scott McMurdo could tap dance (if not come around in his study hall)?

Louise: "Can you drive with one hand?"

Norton: "Sure."

Louise: "Well, then, have an apple."

.....

Hiskory, dickory, dock,

Two mice ran up the clock.

The clock struck one—

The other escaped.

Mr. Tetz (in American History class): "The first date in history was about 4000 B. C."

Bill B.: "Who had it?"

Johnny H. (disgustedly): "I think I've got a flat tire."

Norma B.: "Oh, give me a chance. We're not a mile from town yet."

.....

Have you ever wondered why:

Mr. Blankenship gave Vernon an extra assignment when Vernon said that Al Smith thought the only way to learn was to listen to the discussion of others?

La Verne Van Marter and Len Gilman weren't at the dance Saturday night?

Don Turner didn't come to the dance Saturday night?

The students call this section of the Hehisch the humor section?

The townspeople don't come to the home basketball games?

Christmas

Christmas is near, and everyone, especially the younger children, are looking forward to it, thinking that Old Santa will bring everything he wants. Some children are made happy, while others are disappointed and left out, thinking Old Santa forgot them. We should not think only of just receiving presents and being selfish of our happiness but we should share our happiness and make the sick and unfortunate people happy. So many people do not consider the real meaning of Christmas. They do not consider it was started with the birth of our Lord Jesus in the manger, and it should not be a day to pass in mere enjoyment. Let's bear in mind why and for what reason we celebrate this event for others than just another holiday.

Get Into the Parade

When you hear bands playing and people cheering, doesn't it have a decided effect upon you? Doesn't it fill you with pride and patriotism do your best? Doesn't it pep you up and fill you to the brim with enthusiasm?

That is what happened at the basism? Doesn't it make you want to ketball game last Friday night when our high school team defeated Echo. The band's playing and the crowd's cheering had this effect on our team. It showed the team that the townspeople were behind them, and as a result, it made them want to win, not only for the sake of winning, but also so as to not let you down, after you had given them all that support. They appreciate all the support they receive, and the more support they receive, the harder they play.

The prospects of having a good team this year at Heppner are very bright, as the team is composed of veterans who have been playing together for several years. With good support from the townspeople, our team should go places. At the coming home games, let's everybody be there. It is guaranteed that you will see some real exciting games, and your time will be far from wasted. We'll let you know when there is a home game; you let us know that you are there by giving a big yell for our team!
