Christmas sermon, "Where is He Now?"

Union evening service, with the Episcopal, Methodist and Christian church choirs singing Christmas music. The public is invited.

A Bible school Christmas program will be given in the morning.

Those who have gifts for the needy are asked to bring them Sunday and distribution will be made next week. May we all use this opportunity to express our gratitude to God for His unspeakable Gift.

"The Bible is the record of God's revelation of himself to men; it is not the record of man's painful quest for God. We do not judge the Bible. The Bible judges us. We do not test its message. The message tests us. It is by its power of moral and spiritual judgment that the Bible has made its place all through these centuries. It is only by a perpetual reassertion of that power of moral and spiritual judgment that it can maintain its place in the centuries to come."

We are endeavoring here not only to present the teachings of the Bible in their original purity, but to show their practical application to the every day problems of life. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free."

METHODIST CHURCH

REV. R. C. YOUNG, Pastor
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Morning Worship 11:00 a. m.
Epworth League 6:30 p. m.
Evening Service 7:30 p. m.
Tuesday, Boy's Club 7:30 p. m.
Thursday, Fellowship Meeting, 7:30 p. m.

The services on Sunday morning will celebrate the Christmas theme. The morning services will begin as usual with the Sunday school and the Christmas lesson and special music will be a part of this hour.

At the 11 o'clock hour there will be a Christmas sermon and special music by the choir. The subject of the sermon is, "The Gift of God."

At 5:30 the Methodist young people will join the young people of the other churches at the Christian church for a carol sing and at 6:30 they will unite in a union young people's study hour.

At 7:30 the joint choirs of the Heppner churches will give a musical program in the Christian church.

The Sunday school program of the Methodist Sunday school will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30.
