

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

Paul O'Meara was elected to serve the remainder of the unexpired term of Earl Blake, resigned, on the school board. A meeting for this election was held at the school house last Saturday afternoon.

The Union Sunday school had its Christmas program at the Christian church last Sunday evening. A program of songs and recitations was enjoyed by a large crowd. Treats for everyone were given out afterwards.

Last Saturday evening after the regular grange meeting the men of Willows grange entertained the ladies with a program and supper. Tamales were served and all present say the affair was a decided success and that the men amply paid the penalty of losing a contest for membership and attendance.

Morrow County Pomona grange will be held at Boardman on January 2nd.

A Christmas program and treats for members of Willows grange and their families will be given at Cecil December 26th at their hall. This is the regular grange meeting night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ture Peterson are spending Christmas at the home of Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spittle, in Astoria.

W. F. and John Honey were business visitors here Tuesday from their home in Gresham.

Miss Linea Troedson, a teacher in Girls' Polytechnic school in Portland, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson, for the holidays.

Parties and programs in the various rooms were enjoyed in the school Wednesday. On Tuesday evening the school children sang Christmas carols around town with a feed at the school house afterwards. Vacation began with the close of school Wednesday afternoon and school will begin again on January 4, 1937.

I. R. Robison returned Monday from The Dalles where he has been in the hospital recovering from a tonsilectomy.

Mrs. Sadie Wade and son Ralph and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Palmateer came up from their home at Estacada to see W. F. Palmateer who is in the hospital at Heppner. Mrs. Wade and Lou Palmateer are his sister and brother.

Miss Ella Mason of Portland is visiting her brother, Bert Mason, and other relatives.

With the close of school the teachers have gone to their various homes. Miss Frances Stewart to Silverton, Miss Helen Ralph to Salem, Miss Lorraine Reed to Mitchell, Miss Anita Baumgardner to Portland, Mrs. Roy Brown to Hermiston and Alexander McDonald to Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith motored to the valley last week end to bring home their daughter, Virginia, who is a student at Linfield college at McMinnville.

Kenneth Smouse is home from O. S. C.

Mrs. Clarence McMurray of Mullen, Idaho, arrived at Hermiston last Friday where she was met by Mr. and Mrs. Laxton McMurray. On Saturday night she and Laxton McMurray departed by train for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will visit Clarence McMurray who is in a sanitarium there.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Dobyms have gone to Olympia, Wash., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Dobyms' parents.

Miss Eva Swanson is home for the holidays from O. S. C.

Francis Troedson will be home from his school at Airlie on Thursday.

Mrs. Bert Mason motored to Portland last Friday, returning home Monday with her son, Bert, Jr., who has been attending high school there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Christopherson and family will spend Christmas with Mr. Christopherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Christopherson in Portland.

Eugene Normoyle and Paul Smouse, students at Pacific university, are home for the holidays.

At the installation of officers of the Masonic and O. E. S. lodges last Wednesday night Mrs. Viola Lieuallen was presented with a past matron's jewel and gifts and flowers were presented to Mrs. Roxy Krebs, worthy matron, Alex Huber, worshipful master, and Mrs. Viola Lieuallen, installing officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blake of Kinzua were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jucker and children of Alaska visited at the Louis C. Bergevin home Monday. Mrs. Jucker is a sister of Mr. Bergevin.

Denward Bergevin is home from Gonzaga university at Spokane for the holidays.

IRRIGON

By MRS. W. C. ISOM

A. M. Scarlett and family are moving to the Ash place west of Umatilla.

David and Herbert, small sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Rand have been quite ill with flu the past week.

Edward Houghton of Ames, Iowa, is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents.

Bishop Wisdom was able to return to his work at Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Somo left Saturday for Los Angeles in response to a telegram stating Mr. Somo's mother was seriously ill.

Mrs. Don Kenny has her sister from Nebraska as a house guest over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kendler have moved a part of their furniture to their new home, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bowluare. Mr. Kendler is still employed at Walla Walla.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Markham when the Home Economics club ladies surprised her with a handkerchief shower. Mr. and Mrs. Markham expect to move to their new home at Richland, Wn., during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Houghton were Walla Walla visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leicht were doing their Christmas shopping in Walla Walla Saturday.

E. Bediwell and son Ernest have been on the sick list the past week. Miss Bessie Wilson from La Grande Normal is spending the holidays with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kendler, Sr., of Umatilla visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom Monday evening.

Mrs. Jarvis of Umatilla was a business visitor in this vicinity Saturday evening.

Miss Nellie Leicht was a Pendleton visitor Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Isom and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Kendler, visited Mrs. Geo. Rand Sunday afternoon.

Don Rutledge was calling on the farmers in this vicinity Monday.

DEGREE OF HONOR ELECTS.

Degree of Honor elected officers for the ensuing year Friday evening. Named were Myrtle Aiken, past president; Ruby Becket, president; Gladys Connor, vice-president; Mary McMurry, second vice-president; Clara Beamer, secretary; Gladys Jones, treasurer; Alice Gentry, usher; Mable Chaffee, assistant usher; Margaret Sherer, inside watch; Ida Macomber, outside watch, and Eva Baldwin, pianist.

Give G. T. Want Ads a trial.

At Heppner ♦ ♦ CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

ALVIN KLEINFELDT, Pastor
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Morning Services 11:00 a. m.
C. E. Society 6:30 p. m.
Evening Services 7:30 p. m.
Choir Practice, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.
Midweek Service, Thursday, 7:30 p. m.
Morning sermon, "Excuses."

Evening sermon, "A Sermon on a Raised Window Shade."

To those, our many friends, many of whom were not sent a personal greeting card, we wish a Very Merry Christmas in the name and spirit of Christ.

We have tried, and we confess, in many respects failed, to minister to all the gospel of the Prince of Peace and Lord of Life. We pray that through the coming year we may be able to help those who have been neglected.

Have you attended church once throughout 1936? Think it over. There is only one more Sunday.

METHODIST CHURCH

REV. R. C. YOUNG, Pastor
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Morning Worship 11:00 a. m.
Epworth League 6:30 p. m.
Evening Service 7:30 p. m.
Tuesday, Boy's Club 7:30 p. m.
Thursday, Fellowship Meeting, 7:30 p. m.

THE ASSEMBLY OF GOD.

Rev. E. D. Greeley, Pastor.
Sunday services:
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Preaching service 11:00 a. m.
Evening service 7:30 p. m.
Midweek meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

LEXINGTON

By BEULAH NICHOLS

A large crowd attended the senior class play, "Behind the News," which was given in the high school auditorium Friday night. Included in the cast were Jamie Peck, Bernice Martin, Edna Rauch, Kenneth Peck, Lyle Allyn, Kenneth Palmer, Marvin Cox and Wilma Tucker.

Lexington grade school presented an operetta, "The Kidnapping of Santa Claus," in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening. The presentation showed a vast amount of work in the training, costuming and stage settings. The cast was trained by Miss Jean Crawford, third and fourth grade teacher. Following the program, Santa Claus appeared with treats for the kiddies.

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows held a Christmas party at their hall Sunday night. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served.

A Christmas program was presented by the children at the Christian church Sunday morning. This was followed by a Christmas tree and treats for all the youngsters.

Mrs. Annis Helms and granddaughter, Edna Hurlburt, left last week for Yosemite, California, where they will spend the winter with relatives.

College students who are home for the holidays are Ellen Nelson, Fred Nelson and Kenneth Smouse, from Oregon State college; Llewellyn Evans from University of Oregon, and Paul Smouse from Pacific university.

Mildred Hunt has returned home from the Heppner hospital where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

S. G. McMillan, Sam McMillan and Charles Schriever have returned from a trip to Portland.

Lexington grade and high schools were closed for the Christmas vacation period Wednesday afternoon. Classes will be resumed Monday, January 4.

Vernon Scott and Laurel Ruhl made a business trip to Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth were visitors in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slonecker of Corvallis are spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Slonecker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson.

Rev. J. R. Benton of Fort Benton, Mont., will conduct services at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan of Cherryville are visiting relatives in this community.

The Heppner high school basketball team defeated the Lexington five in a fast game on the Heppner floor Monday evening. The score was 24 to 20.

Lee Shaw of Hermiston spent a few days of this week at the home of his uncle, Hugh Shaw.

Several Christmas parties were given this week by the teachers of the Christian Bible school. Mr. and Mrs. George Gillis entertained their classes, and on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Lorena Miller and Mrs. Roy Campbell gave a party for the primary and beginners classes.

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs enjoyed a party at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday. Presents were exchanged by the members and treats were given to the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave of Fox visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens.

Mrs. Gladys Corrigan, Raymond and Roger Howell of Echo visited Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives here. Mrs. George Samuel returned home with them.

Martin Lovgren was calling here Monday.

The small daughter of Mrs. Carey Hastings is ill at their home here.

The townspeople were invited to the high school Tuesday to hear a debate the pupils were having.

A program was presented by the grade school Friday night. Treats were given to all the small children and some of the older one.

Mr. King and Mrs. Tompkins are spending the Christmas holiday in Portland. They expect to resume their work here next Monday, the 28th.

Miss Dolly Farrens went to Heppner Friday to consult a dentist.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel made a business trip to Heppner Saturday.

Max Buschke and Ad Inskeep were transacting business in Heppner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gallagher and family are spending the holidays in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Casha Shaw is employed at the home of Mrs. Neal Knighten.

A party was given at the high school Thursday evening. Treats were given those present.

Frank Fraters was calling here Monday.

Irl Clary returned home Saturday from the Frank Fraters farm where he has been working.

Jim Burnside made a trip to the mountains Saturday after a load of posts.

PINE CITY

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

The basket social was a success and a good time was had by all. A dance was held afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Struthers.

Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. C. H. Ayers were on the treats committee. The Christmas program will be held Tuesday evening and the bags of candy will be distributed.

School closed December 22 and will open again January 4.

Marion Robertson had a stroke Monday morning. He is reported to be resting well and in no pain.

Mrs. Joyce Smith plans to spend the Christmas vacation at the home of her folks in Irrigon. Miss Dona Moore will go to her home at Rainier.

Hermiston callers Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger.

Jim Ayers was a Heppner caller Saturday.

Mrs. George Currin spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. John Harrison.

Acle Estle spent Wednesday on the creek. He is now the Ford V-8 dealer in Hermiston.

ESTABLISH RESIDENCE.

The O. E. Johnson family of Hardman have established a residence in their town property on Chase street, formerly occupied by the F. F. Wehmeyer family, and next door to the Bartholomew property recently acquired by the Wehmeyers.

EAT
SEA FOODS

Oysters, Shell Fish

the pick of marine delicacies served

FRESH

You'll find our stock of

WINES
completeElkhorn
Restaurant

ED CHINN, Prop.

Want Ads

For sale or trade, young gentle milk cow, late battery radio, Ford car, trailers, everything for Model T Fords; auto motor and parts. Max Schulz, Heppner, Ore. 44

Dressed Turkeys, Dressed Hogs, 130 to 160 lbs., and Dressed Spring Chickens. Will deliver. For prices, call Hugh Smith, 7F11. 41-42.

For Sale—7 good milk cows. C. H. Bolen on former Quackenbush farm, Rhea creek, 9 miles out. Phone 9F33. 41-42p

FOR SALE.

Fordson Tractor with Fordson plow. New motor, new gears and high tension magneto last year; price reasonable. See J. O. Turner, city.

Hay chopping $1.25 per ton. I furnish one man and outfit. Chas. Wilcox, Heppner. 40-43p.

Registered Hereford bulls for sale. D. L. McCaw, Linden, Wash. 38-10p

Maternity and convalescent cases cared for in my home. Mrs. J. B. Cason. 41