

LEXINGTON

By BEULAH NICHOLS

The board of directors of school district No. 12 have called a special meeting of the taxpayers of the district for Wednesday afternoon, January 20, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of having a Smith-Hughes course in the local high school.

No school was held Wednesday because it was impossible for the children living in the country to get to school because the snow had drifted in the roads, making them impassable. The temperature here has been ranging between 10 and 25 degrees below zero since Tuesday, according to unofficial thermometers.

The Lexington school opened Monday morning after being closed since December 23 for the Christmas holidays. All of the teachers except Mr. Gillis spent their vacations out of town with relatives and friends. During the holidays the teachers' and students' desks were given a new coat of paint.

Lexington grange will meet Saturday night with the newly-elected officers in the chairs. All members are urged to attend if possible. A potluck lunch will be served after the meeting.

The Lexington Home Economics club will meet at the hall on Thursday afternoon, January 14.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Padberg is very ill with pneumonia.

Myles Martin is spending the week in Moro.

Following the business meeting of the I. O. O. F. lodge Wednesday evening a social hour was enjoyed. The entertainment consisted of a mock trial in which Dan Way, the defendant, was accused of dancing after 2 a. m. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Jerry Cutler has returned from Athena where she spent the Christmas holidays visiting with relatives.

Elsie Tucker, who spent the holidays at her home here, has returned to her teaching duties at Haines. She was accompanied as far as La Grande by her sister Edith who is a student at Eastern Oregon Normal school.

Mrs. Elsie M. Beach spent the week end in Portland. On Saturday evening her son Laurel sang the leading tenor role in the opera "Il Trovatore" at the civic auditorium.

Kenneth and Paul Smouse have returned to Corvallis and Forest Grove respectively to resume their studies after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Smouse.

Woodrow Tucker returned from Salem Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stonecker, who have been visiting Mrs. Stonecker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.

Judges testify that of the youth convicted of crime, 97% have had no religious training. There are 17,000,000 boys and girls in America between the ages of four and eighteen years who do not attend any Sunday school. The average age of all convicts is nineteen years.

As stated in the Oregonian editorial column of January 1st, "The need is for a world-wide spiritual awakening—the application of the golden rule—a change in the hearts of men." In the same reference is a quotation from President Roosevelt, made in February of last year: "No greater thing could come to our land today than a revival of the spirit of religion, which would sweep through the homes of the nation and stir men and women of all faiths to a re-assertion of their belief in God and their dedication to His will for themselves and their world."

"I doubt if there is any problem—social, political or economic—that would not melt away before the fire of such a spiritual awakening."

Help save the youth. Save America. Make 1937 a church year; a Bible school year; a year of spiritual re-awakening.
