

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS

Jack DeVore is ill at the home of his father, B. F. DeVore. He is suffering from an attack of the flu.

James Brannon motored to Heppner Monday to take his brother Marvin who was returning to the CCC camp at Brush creek.

Carl Leathers returned to Arlington Friday to resume his work there.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald. Dancing and card playing were enjoyed by those present. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held joint installation at the hall Saturday evening. Glen Farrens, who came in from Cason canyon to attend, stalled his car in a snow drift and had to walk in.

Hardman and vicinity are experiencing some real winter weather. The snow is badly drifted with about six inches of new snow. It is believed that if it were on the level it would measure about three feet of snow. The mercury ranges from zero to 10 above.

Carey Hastings departed for Pasco, Wash., Monday to tag sheep. He recently purchased a Pontiac car from the Dennis Motor company at Pendleton.

Mrs. Dee Schnitzer returned from Heppner Monday. She states that Mr. Schnitzer is getting along satisfactorily.

Ed Warren returned from Heppner Monday where he has been visiting for a week.

Miss Vera McDaniel and her grandmother Allen celebrated their birthday anniversaries Sunday, Jan. 17, at their home here.

Uncle Sam McDaniel is on the sick list this week.

Max Buschke went to work at the Clyde Wright place Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Brown has been staying with the Schnitzer boy while Mrs.

Schnitzer was with her husband in Heppner.

Frank McDaniel is taking a vacation from his duties at the Ray Wright sheep ranch.

Kinnard McDaniel went to the mountains Thursday.

Neal Knighten was transacting business in Heppner Monday.

Traveling has been quite difficult regardless of the snow plow that comes out from Heppner every day. Saturday evening four cars were stuck in snow drifts on the Hardman grade.

Mrs. Katherine Tompkins went to Heppner Saturday to consult a dentist.

Mrs. Ada Cannon motored to Heppner Wednesday.

PINE CITY

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

Roy Neill spent the week end in Salem with his daughter, Mrs. Eldon Kinton.

Pendleton callers Friday were Marion Finch and Bert Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and children were Hermiston callers Friday night.

H. E. Young spent Tuesday in Hermiston.

The Young family have been ill with the flu lately.

Lon Wattenburger returned to Pendleton Monday. He is serving on the jury there.

Mrs. Roy Neill was a caller one day last week at the E. B. Wattenburger home.

A dance was given at the Julian Rauch home Saturday night. Due to the snow storm few from Butter creek attended.

Word was received from Earl Wattenburger that he likes his work fine in the mill at Toppenish.

Butter creek people dislike to work in the snow now but they'll be glad next June or July that they had it.

BOARDMAN

By LA VERN BAKER

The high school basketball team played Echo last Tuesday with Boardman as the winners. The game was played at Echo.

The regular grange meeting was held Saturday evening with a large attendance. Claude Silvernail was taken into the grange.

A dance was given at Tom's camp last Sunday evening. People from Hermiston furnished the music and a good crowd attended.

The high school basketball team won another victory on their own court when they played Stanfield Friday evening. The grade school also won their game.

Missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jesse Allen this week. Everyone brought a basket filled with one kind of food to exchange. An interesting meeting was enjoyed.

The H. E. club held their regular meeting at Mrs. Coat's home last week. The women came and got dinner for the men who were working on the grange kitchen.

Mrs. Shannon who has been ill in the hospital is home again with her daughter, Mrs. Bill Lilly.

Dave Johnston returned home last week from Portland where he won the diamond belt of the heavy-weight group. Everyone is very proud of Dave.

The town team met the Echo town team Monday night on Echo's floor. A very interesting game was played with Boardman winning with a score of 35-34.

Mrs. Bell Spagle returned to her home Thursday evening after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Leslie Packard, who is seriously ill.

A train wreck occurred near Weston Saturday night. The sections were all called to help with it. The Castle, Coyote and Messner sections of Boardman were called.

CHILD STILLBORN.

Jo Marlene, stillborn daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gentry of Rhea creek, was buried in Masonic cemetery yesterday afternoon with commitment services at the grave read by Alvin Kleinfeldt, Christian minister. The child was born in this city Tuesday night. Mrs. Gentry was formerly Miss Inez Hayes, a queen of the Heppner Rodeo.

CALL FOR WARRANTS.

Outstanding warrants of School District No. 42, Morrow County, Oregon, up to and including Warrant No. 342, will be paid on presentation to the district clerk. Interest on said warrants not already called ceases January 22, 1937.

SOPHRONA THOMPSON, District Clerk.

Leonard Carlson and Henry Baker, farmers of the Gooseberry community, were business visitors in the city Monday. Their country is covered with a good blanket of snow, welcomed as insurance for the new wheat crop.
