

SEES AL CAPONE CAR.

While John Anglin was in Portland for a couple of days last week he was privileged to see the Al Capone car, displayed there in connection with a moving picture. He picked up some data just for edification of friends here: Original cost of the car was $9000, additional equipment cost $11,000 for a total of $20,000. The machine is a 16-cylinder 1930 Cadillac with 400 h. p. motor averaging 6 miles to the gallon of gas. It weighs 6780 pounds; is lined with 3/8-inch bullet-proof steel, and glass in all doors and windows is 1 1/4 inch thick, capable of resisting a bullet from a .30 automatic at 20 feet distance; has a $400 radio capable of picking up police calls all over the U. S. and parts of Canada; has the largest police sirens to clear traffic; has a smoke-screen tank filled with lamp black and gas capable of sending out a continuous smoke screen for 3 hours. There is a small compartment resembling an ash tray which contains tacks. This is automatically connected to the exhaust and shoots out tacks for pursuing cars. All windows have a 2-inch round hole for machine gun use, and the rear window automatically raises and lowers. The original tires were steel jacket lined, also bullet proof. A large arm rest in the middle of the front seat provides mounting for a machine gun. Special compartments are built in the dashboard for concealing ammunition and guns. The rear-view mirror is built to give a view from any direction. The car has the largest steering wheel made, supposed to make driving easier on the curves.

were very friendly with the Indians, running horse races with them and were not disturbed by them." On April 1, 1872, he married Henrietta Cecil, daughter of William and Mary Ellen (Robertson) Cecil, who were pioneers of the county in 1863 and settled where Cecil now stands. Children born to this marriage, as recounted by the history were Ionia, wife of J. P. Friend of Bridgeport, Cal.; William T., married and living in Culbertson, Montana; Cora M., wife of H. T. Bagley of Hillsboro; E. Walter who died in 1892 at the age of 13 years. He was a former member of Knights of Pythias and Elks lodges of this city.

Clarence Bauman, county sheriff, will give a talk on taxation at the grange meeting Saturday night.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
