

Local Happenings

While in Yakima Sunday to visit their daughter, Miss Rachel, Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin had the privilege of hearing Dr. James McGinlay, said to be the world's greatest Scotch lecturer, deliver his famous address on "Capitalism, Labor and God." The lecture was given in Yakima's largest church, and Mr. Anglin said people were turned away for want of room to accommodate everyone who desired to hear him. Dr. McGinlay is from London, Ontario. A highlight quoted from the lecture by Mr. Anglin was, "It is absolutely impossible for capital to exist without labor, as it is absolutely impossible for labor to exist without capital, and if the two would go hand in hand with God, all labor disputes and strikes which now exist would cease forever."

Mrs. Reuben Volle and children went to Walla Walla Saturday to see Mr. Roy, who was reported as improving in his illness at the Veterans' hospital there. Mrs. Volle and the children had been snowed in at their mountain ranch for two months, and Friday was the first time they had been to town.
