

Braden-Bell Co. Opening Store In Heppner

Tractor and Equip- ment Firm Take For- mer Garage Building

Braden-Bell Tractor and Equip-ment company have leased the garage building now occupied by the Ford garage and expect to open a farm tractor and implement store in the near future. V. R. Runion will be local manager for the large distributing concern which operates at Pendleton, Walla Walla and other points in eastern Oregon and eastern Washington.

The local store will handle a full line of Caterpillar tractors and John Deere farm machinery, besides conducting a mechanical shop and giving complete service on parts.

Milsom-Banister Motor company, now occupying the building, have announced their new home on the old Palace hotel corner where a new, latest type structure is to be erected for them. They expect construction to start soon.

In announcing the opening of their new store, Braden-Bell have scheduled a free dance at Ione Legion hall, Saturday, March 20, with an invitation for everyone to attend.

Don't miss "Crashing Society," junior class play, at the gym-auditorium March 19th.
