

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

The Women's Topic club was entertained last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Elmer Griffith and Mrs. Clyde Denny at the home of the latter. Bridge was played. Prizes were won by Mrs. M. E. Cotter and Mrs. Bert Mason and a guest prize was won by Mrs. E. R. Lundell. Other guests were Mrs. George Tucker, Mrs. Walter Corley, Mrs. Carl Feldman, Mrs. C. W. Swanson, Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. Cleo Drake, Mrs. Clel Rea and Mrs. Frank Lundell. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Grace Stipes of Hillsboro, associate grand matron of the O. E. S., grand chapter of Oregon, will visit Locust chapter next Saturday night, March 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffith and children of Portland are spending a week with Mr. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn.

Bert Johnson drove to Portland Saturday, returning that afternoon accompanied by his mother and sister, Mrs. Mary and Miss Olga Johnson who will be here a week.

Jack Ferris, who has been undergoing medical examination at the veterans' hospital in Portland returned home Friday.

Chas. Marquardt of Lexington was a business visitor here Tuesday.

The Legion Auxiliary will meet in its room in Legion hall Saturday afternoon, March 27, for its regular business and sewing meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk and children of Condon spent Sunday here.

Members of the Eastern Star and Masonic lodges met at Masonic hall Sunday. All hands were busy preparing a seed bed for a lawn which will be planted on the east side of the walk. At noon a pot luck dinner was served.

Julian Rauch of Lexington was in town Tuesday.

Bert Johnson is moving from his ranch into town. He will live in the Ferris house on Second street.

Mrs. Clel Rea, Mrs. Frank Lundell and Mrs. Fred Nicholson were Monday visitors in Pendleton.

The dance given in Legion hall last Saturday night by Braden-Bell Tractor company in celebration of the establishment of their new branch store in Heppner was largely attended. Everything was free and the lunch prepared for 400 had to be augmented to see that everyone was served. Everyone had a fine time and enjoyed the special features offered as well as the dance. A tap dancing number, a song and a presentation of the sort of program which Braden-Bell offers each day over the radio were given.

Mrs. Emily Clark of Portland arrived last Wednesday to assist Mrs. Fred Mankin.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffith and children drove to Condon Tuesday to visit the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk.

Miss Lorraine Reed spent the week end at her home in Mitchell.

Junior Mason arrived home from Portland Saturday morning. He will enjoy a week's vacation before returning to school there.

Miss Linea Troedson, a teacher in Portland, is spending spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson. She was accompanied by Bobby Cason who will visit at the Lana Padberg farm and by Billy Wood who will visit here and with his grandmother, Mrs. Albert Rea, at Heppner.

Mrs. Roy Brown was at her home in Hermiston over Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Ralph Hinkle conducted services at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. He will be at Cecil next Sunday afternoon, March 28, to preach.

The Union Sunday school will have an Easter program next Sunday morning following the Sunday school hour.

Mrs. H. E. Yarnell, who has been seriously ill at her home, is recovering slowly.

Miss Eva Swanson is home from O. S. C. for Easter vacation.

Word has been received of the death of Frank Akers at his home in Portland Monday, March 22. Mrs. James Lindsay of this city is a step daughter of Mr. Akers who was a resident of this city for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay departed for Portland at once.

Fred Zielke, local depot agent, departed Tuesday night on a business trip to Salt Lake City.

The tea and apron sale held last Wednesday afternoon in Legion hall by the Legion Auxiliary was enjoyed by many. A nice sum was made which will be used by the Auxiliary in its welfare work.

D. W. Glasgow and W. C. Starke of Spokane, Wash., were here Saturday and Sunday auditing the books of the Morrow County Grain Growers, Inc.

Mrs. H. O. Ely gave a dinner for her father, W. F. Palmateer, at her farm home last Sunday. The affair was given in honor of his birthday anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer and children, George Ely and W. G. Palmateer.

J. E. Swanson is building a store room for machinery between the building he now occupies and the old furniture store. The building will be of corrugated iron with a concrete floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McMurray of Hermiston visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris Sunday.

The weather bureau record kept by V. L. Carlson shows the following precipitation beginning with Sept.: Sept. .60 inches, Oct. .30; Nov. .06, Dec. 1.24, Jan. 2.50, Feb. .50, March (to 18th) 1.00. This is a total of 6.20 inches and includes the moisture content of the snow which measured 41 1-8 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rietmann are moving to the Leonard Anderson farm in Gooseberry. Mrs. Rietmann will remain in Ione with the boys until the end of the school year as there is no school in that district at present. They will live in the Congregational parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wright entertained at dinner, March 14, at Lexington for Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Wright, George Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marquardt and Bonnie Cochran.

The marriage of Miss Rose Kirk to Ira McConkie occurred Thursday, March 11, at Walla Walla. They will be at home to friends on Rhea creek.

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS

Jack DeVore is ill at his home here. A physician was called to attend him Friday.

Sabin Hastings went to work at the Mahoney lambing camp Wednesday.

Miss Sophia Robertson of Pendleton spent Thursday and Friday here. She is working under Dean Alfred Powers of Portland on historical research record survey.

Mr. and Mrs. Newlan F. King went to Sunnyside, Wash., Friday evening. Mrs. King remained for a visit of a couple of weeks with her sister who resides there.

Miss Pat Bleakman celebrated her 18th birthday March 17, by a dinner at the home of her sister, Mrs. Raymond McDonald. Guests were Mrs. Lotus Robison, Richard Robison, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald.

Leon Chapin, Vester Hams and Marvin Saddle attended the show in Heppner Saturday evening.

Virgil Crawford came over from Kinzua Sunday after his car. He was accompanied by Hershel Goen. Eston Stevens and Ray McDonald went to work for Mrs. McIntire on Monday.

Richard Robison and Pat Bleakman attended the show in Heppner Sunday.

Roy Ashbaugh received word that his daughter Arleta is seriously ill in a hospital in Portland. Lester Ashbaugh and Owen Bleakman went down to see her.

Creth Craber joined a party of young people from Eight Mile and attended the dance in Heppner St. Patrick's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bleakman and sons of Bonneville, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman in Heppner, were here Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDaniel. Mrs. Bleakman went on to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Merrill.

Floyd Adams visited in Heppner Thursday.

Mrs. Katherine Tompkins attended the junior class play in Heppner Friday evening.

Those attending the funeral of the late O. E. Johnson from here were Mrs. Carl Leathers, Mrs. Roy Robison, Mrs. Max Buschke, Mrs. Frank McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDaniel, Mrs. Carey Hastings. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Sr., Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Hams, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers, Herman Nielson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Walter Farrens, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten and Miss Dolly Farrens.

Miss Delsie Bleakman who is visiting with her uncle and aunt in Salem is reported to be ill.

Miss Charlotte Cannon spent the week at the home of Mrs. Ethel McDaniel.

Miss Creth Craber and Mrs. Frank McDaniel visited high school Friday. Mrs. Bert Bleakman and daughter, hospital in The Dalles, returned to Miss Neva, visited Mrs. Charles McDaniel Sunday.

James Miller who has been in a his home here Monday. He is much improved in health.

Irvin Greener and Vester went to Heppner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff McKittrick motored up from the Wright Bros. ranch Sunday evening to visit their small son.

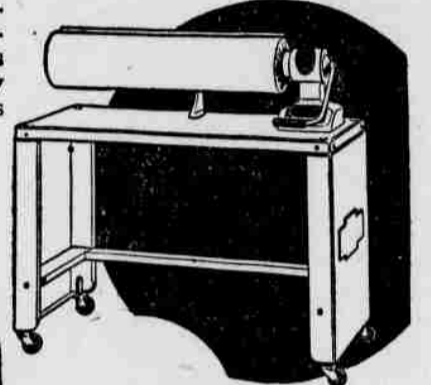

Mrs. Lorena Isom is spending a few days in Heppner with friends and cleaning up her house.

Mrs. Louis Marquardt spent Saturday in town and attended the fashion show.

SEE THESE THOR MODELS

Prices on 1937-model Thor Washers and Ironers are still low. Buy now before prices advance!

New Thor Ironers $44.95 up

New Thor "Gentle Hand" Washers $79.95 up

Other Thor models as low as $59.50

The new "Gentle Hand" unit washes clothes with the gentleness of human hands, yet cleanses them faster than ever before. The new Thor Ironers make ironing effortless—cut your ironing time in half. Buy now on convenient terms!

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

Always at Your Service

Forget 'em

"THE WATER-COIL FIDGETS"

USE CHEAP, WILLING
ELECTRICITY TO HEAT
YOUR WATER AND DO YOUR LAUNDERING!

● You will never be certain of instant hot water for laundering or any other household use until you throw out your fickle water coils and install a hot water system that's really dependable and economical. With an automatic electric water heater, you are sure of plentiful hot water, day or night, winter or summer. You get it without effort, without firing up a stove or furnace, without lighting a heater, without waiting.

While you're modernizing your hot water system, modernize your home laundry, too. Let a new electric washer do your laundering faster, gentler, better. Let an electric ironer banish drudgery.

Start your all-electric home laundry now!

Prices on electric washers, ironers and water heaters are still low and appliances may be purchased on convenient terms. The operating cost of electric laundry equipment is small. Pacific Power & Light Company's rates—always low—are now lower than ever before. Use this cheap electricity to get rid of drudgery. Start your all-electric home laundry today.

BUY YOUR APPLIANCES NOW
...BEFORE PRICES ADVANCE!

ELECTRIC WASHER

The new washers are extremely gentle, yet so efficient that dirt is removed in 5 to 7 minutes. Prices are still low. Be thrifty. Buy now!

ELECTRIC IRONER

An ironer takes the backache out of ironing. It exerts all needed pressure, does all the lifting and pushing. You merely sit and feed your pieces through in half the time you formerly took to iron.

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

With an automatic electric water heater, you have plentiful hot water for laundering and every household use whenever you turn a faucet, day or night, winter or summer. Heater and operating costs are low.

For electric washers, ironers and water heaters
SEE ANY DEALER IN ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT or PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
Always at Your Service