

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

About forty-five mothers of high school students attended the tea given in their honor by the girls league of Ione high school in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday afternoon. The mothers were entertained by a short program on which Helen Lundell sang a solo, Thelma Nelson played a piano solo and the third and fourth grade tumblers gave one of their acts under the direction of Miss Lorraine Reed. A game was also played. During the serving of refreshments Mrs. Mable Davidson amused both guests and hostesses by telling their fortunes from their tea cups.

Miss Linea Troedson has returned to her work as teacher in the Girls Polytechnic high school in Portland after enjoying the spring vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Troedson.

Erling Thompson spent Easter Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholi Thompson at McMinnville. While there he and his brothers were attendants at the wedding of a cousin. Mr. Thompson was accompanied on his trip by Alexander McDonald who enjoyed a short visit at his home at Banks.

Norman Swanson arrived Friday night from Portland to spend the week end at his home. He returned to work Sunday evening.

Robert McCabe of Forest Grove spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McCabe.

An Easter program of recitations and musical numbers was presented after the Sunday school hour at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. The church was filled with parents and friends of the youngsters who took part. During the Sunday school it was decided to ask Rev. F. E. Sturdevant to return here next summer to conduct church services. Rev. Sturdevant was here last summer and has since been going to school in New York City. While here he was active with Boy Scout work and conducted a daily vacation bible school in addition to preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell and daughters, Dorothy and Sybil, spent Sunday here from their new home at Pomeroy, Wash. They visited at the George Snyder home.

Donald McElligott, who is attending school at Beaverton, arrived on Friday to spend Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McElligott.

Mrs. Dora Stipes, grand associate conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon, O. E. S., paid Locust chapter an official visit last Saturday night. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Summers, of Beaverton. Visitors from Heppner and Arlington also attended the meeting. The district meeting for Heppner, Ione and Arlington will be held at Ione, Thursday, April 22, at which time the worthy grand matron will be present.

Miss Olga Johnson returned to her work as art teacher in the Portland schools after a week's visit with her brother, Bert Johnson. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Johnson, who came up with her remained for a longer visit.

Earl and Cecil Padberg of Portland spent Sunday with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Padberg. They were accompanied by Mrs. Opal Cason who visited with her mother, Mrs. Lana Padberg, and by Mrs. H. C. Wood and daughter, Valdy, who spent the day with Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. Albert Rea, at Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Timm and children of Pendleton were here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith were business visitors in Pendleton Friday.

Dr. C. C. Chick and Miss Blanche Bristow of Hood River were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann Sunday.

Miss Virginia Griffith is enjoying a week's vacation from Linfield college at McMinnville at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith, at Morgan.

Mrs. Frank Lindsay has spent the past ten days in the valley on a business and pleasure trip.

Heppner Comes Up In Trap Tournament

Heppner tied Portland at 74 and defeated Seaside, 72, and Toledo, 70, in the third round of the Oregonian telegraphic trapshooting tournament Sunday, to reach the standing of 722 in percentage among the 26 competing clubs. Ray Massey, shooting traps for the first time, turned in a perfect score of 25 to help make up the local three-man team. John Lane also went straight on his first string of 25 to place on the team, and not being content with that made 50 straight kills for the day. Phil Mahoney with 24 was the third member of the team.

Next Sunday the locals compete against Eugene, Klamath and Mt. Angel. Sunday scores at the local traps were:

100 birds—Judge Carmichael 82.
75 birds—Phil Mahoney 71, Luke Bibby 71, A. D. McMurdo 67.
50 birds—John Lane 50, Adam Knoblock 47, J. H. McCrady 42, R. M. Rice 39, Tom Clark 37.
25 birds—Ray Massey 25, Earl Warner 24, Ben Patterson 22, Milt Spurlock 21, Ambrose Chapin 21, Rod Thomson 15, Lowell Turner 15.

CARD OF THANKS.

Our heartfelt thanks are extended to all the kind friends and neighbors for the helpful assistance, sympathy and flowers given in the time of illness and bereavement of our beloved husband, father, son, and brother, Willis Harrison Turner.

Alcott Lundell reported a fine rain Friday afternoon in the Gooseberry section, when in town Saturday. The storm reached almost cloudburst proportions in the vicinity of the Eight Mile postoffice, he said.

Oregon 4-H Animals High at San Francisco

Corvallis—Six Oregon 4-H club boys have reason to be proud of their baby beef animals, eight of which were entered in the Interstate Junior Livestock and Baby Beef show at San Francisco, March 21 to 25. They made a clean sweep of winnings, including one reserve championship, one championship, two firsts and three seconds. In addition, the boys from Klamath county took first place for county club groups. Every Oregon club animal shown placed.

This was the first year that Oregon club members have entered the San Francisco show. Five of the boys attended in person, accompanied by their parents. County Agent Cliff Jenkins of Klamath county, and Assistant State Club Leader L. J. Allen, who also attended the show, reported that the quality of the animals shown was high and that the Oregon calves had to be good to win. Placings of the Oregon 4-H animals were as follows:

Tom Haley, Merrill, reserve champion of all club classes. Aberdeen-Angus Class 64—Tom Haley, first and championship of breed; Bob Blinkenstaff, Klamath Falls, second; Taylor High, Olene, third. Shorthorn, Class 66—James Hammond, Merrill, first; Bob Blinkenstaff, second; Nob Norris, Klamath Falls, sixth. Hereford, Class 61—Marvin Wellman, Baker, second. Hereford, Class 60—Richard Shuck, Merrill, tenth; Gordon Stanley, Brownsboro, fifteenth.

and Watershed Problems of Oregon Municipalities," just released by the Oregon state planning board. The report is expected to be of interest here for the value it may give in aiding with control of the Willow creek watershed.

The report, a study made by James E. Maxwell, research economist, has been sent by Ormond R. Bean, board chairman, to Governor Martin. It presents a thorough investigation of the watershed problem in the state, and contains complete data and a number of maps and other illustrations. It was written to serve as a guide for cities in determining policies on this problem.
