

Heppner Hi Typists Lead in Contests

Heppner typists won three of four awards in an inter-high school contest held here Saturday with Irrigon, Boardman and Ione teams competing. Lucy E. Rodgers, county superintendent, and various typing teachers of the county sponsored the contest, judged by Charles Peterson, Underwood typewriter representative from Portland.

Frances McCarty of Heppner placed first in the novice division, with Harriet Hager of Heppner second, and Edith Nickerson of Boardman third. In the amateur division, Wallace Lundell of Ione placed first with Ruth Green and Mae Edmundson of Heppner placing second and third respectively. Pennant awards were issued to schools rather than to individual contestants. Ten typists competed in the novice division and five in the amateur.

Locals Win Twice In Telegraphic Shoot

Heppner Rod and Gun club with a team score of 74 tied Tillamook and defeated Cottage Grove, 65, and La Grande, 72, in Sunday's round of the Oregonian telegraphic trapshooting tournament. In the final round of the tournament next Sunday the locals will compete against Valsetz, Cowlitz County, Echo and Corvallis.

The fifteen shooters at the local traps Sunday with their scores, were: 100 birds, Phil Mahoney 95, J. H. McCrady 90, Judge Carmichael 89, Ray Massey 89, Luke Bibby 85.

75 birds, John Lane 71, A. D. McMurdo 68, Gene Ferguson 66, Rod Thomson 63.

50 birds, Bob Cutler 44, Bill McCrady 43, Tom Clark 40, Vivian Kane 39.

25 birds, Chas. Latourell 25, Earl Warner 23.

Sells Cows Quickly; Many Takers Found

"If you don't get that want ad out of the paper, I'm going to be forced to get some more cows to meet the demand," said one Gazette Times want ad advertiser this week. "I sold them the next day after the ad appeared, but am still getting inquiries."

Another want advertiser got six replies to a used sewing machine ad in a hurry, and sold it without trouble, turning a useful but unneeded article into cash. These reports come in constantly from want ad users.

ATTENTION SHEEPMEN.

I have for lease 6649 acres in the Whitman Forest that will be blocked on Desolation, near the Kelsay meadows, south of the Oriental ranger station. This allotment has heretofore, with the exception of one season carried a permit for 1200 grown sheep.

Also an allotment on the south side of Rudio Mountain in the Timber Basin locality. The allotment contains 5964 acres of patented lands, and with normal season will carry a band of 1000 sheep.

If interested, call or address, ORIN L. PATTERSON, 8-9. Canyon City, Ore.

At Heppner CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

REV. R. C. YOUNG, Pastor
Stanley Jones, when asked to define the incoming of the Spirit to his own life, said, "I found myself going on by a series of crises, each leading to a deeper experience. From the moment of my full surrender to Christ, everything in me and about me was changed. I visioned a new world. I was gripped with a passion for the unsaved about me. I wanted to put my arms around the world. That vision and passion I have never lost."

Perennial Pentecosts are a necessity in any on-going Church. Here is the assurance of fruitfulness. Here is a dynamic that never fails. Here is empowering for every task. Here is the secret of overcoming Faith. Here is the cure for pessimism. Here is the assurance of Victory.

The problems that confront the individual Christian and the Church today are indeed baffling if we approach them with only human wisdom; but the promise of power to those who with one accord tarry in Faith has never been revoked. An American merchant said jestingly to Morrison, the first Christian missionary to China, "And so, Mr. Morrison, you really think that you will make an impression on the idolatry of the great Chinese Empire?" "No," thundered back the twenty-five-year old Scotchman, "but I expect God will." Morrison's faith has been marvelously honored during more than a hundred years. His God is a God for such a day as this. Communism, Fascism, Materialism, money-madness, indifference, selfishness, greed, all may be arrayed against the Church, but the resources of Heaven are at our disposal.

More men die from worry than from work!

God gave us one day in seven to rest and regain strength mentally as well as physically. America has had an alarming increase in mental disorders in recent years. Men's nerves are failing them. To save people from mental deterioration, their minds must be taken entirely off the cares of the world. The uest of worship in the Lord's House is the much needed tonic for sick souls in this hurrying world.

THE ASSEMBLY OF GOD.

Rev. E. D. Greeley, Pastor.
The revival services continue on nightly. Many are finding these services a source of blessing, and therefore are availing themselves of this opportunity. Everyone welcome. Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Banta will be in charge at least another week with other evangelists in the future. Come with the others, the whole Bible for the whole man in a wholesome way.

Lord's Day services: At ten a. m., Bible school. Devotion and preaching at eleven. Evangelistic service seven-thirty p. m.

POT LUCK DINNER SET.

On Monday evening at 6:30 members and friends of the Methodist church will gather at the dinner hour to meet Dr. Sydney Hall, district superintendent of the Cascade district of the Methodist church. Dr. Hall will address the gathering and also conduct the local conference. The dinner will be in the nature of a pot luck affair and everyone is welcome to share the occasion.
