

Benefit Nets $80 For Swim Tank Fund

Heppner's swimming pool fund was boosted more than $80 by the benefit entertainment staged by the school and Lions club Friday evening at the gym-auditorium, and those in attendance had a lot of fun receiving more than 150 door prizes given by local merchants and being entertained by the two one-act plays presented by the school public speaking class and a black-face farce by the Lions club quartet. This was the first of several benefits planned to aid the pool fund.

Joseph Belanger supervised dispensing the door prizes, assisted by Frank C. Alfred, district attorney, M. L. Case, and a number of high school girls. Apology is given by those in charge for failure to mention First National Bank of Portland, Heppner branch, whose offering was received by Mr. Alfred, drawing the numbers, who inadvertently failed to hand the ticket to Mr. Belanger, the announcer.

Both plays, as well as the quartet offerings were farcical in nature and provided much merriment. Those taking part were:

"Uncle Bob's Bride": La Verne Van Marter, Betty Bergevin, Margaret Browning, Neva Bleakman, Irena McFerrin, Rosanna Farley, Necha Coblantz, Juanita Phelps.

"Don't Tell My Wife": Thomas Gonty, Neva Bleakman, Billy Irwin, La Verne Van Marter, Joe Aiken.

Quartet: Dr. R. C. Lawrence, Joseph Belanger, Blaine E. Isom, Frank W. Turner.

Norbert Peavy coached the plays and Miss Juanita Leathers was accompanist for the quartet.

TEEGARDEN-FERGUSON.

O. T. Ferguson of Heppner and Gold Beach took as his bride Mrs. Emma Teegarden in nuptial ceremonies solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in this city Saturday evening by Rev. R. C. Young, Methodist minister. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Claude Cox witnessed the quiet ceremony. Mr. Ferguson, who farmed in this county for many years and who formerly held the position as senior member in the Ferguson Motor company, now operated by his sons, Eugene O. and Raymond B. Ferguson, has made his home on a farm near Gold Beach for several years. Mrs. Teegarden recently came west from Indiana where she has property holdings. Their many friends here have been extending felicitations. They are residing at present in the Ferguson motor court.

FORMER PASTOR VISITS.

Clarence W. Reynolds, former Church of Christ pastor at Ione and now identified with the state planning board, called on old-time friends here yesterday afternoon. He came up from Arlington where he addressed the district librarians' meeting in the afternoon. After leaving Ione he was located three years as pastor at Berkeley, Cal., going from there to Corvallis where he was located for eleven years. He then spent two years at Yale taking post graduate work in psychiatry and psychology.

George Cochran was a visitor in the city this morning from Ione.

Note the contrast of the two following statements:

Ingersoll said, "I do not say that there is no God; I simply say, I do not know. I do not say that there is no life beyond; I simply say, I do not know."

William Jennings Bryan, "How could anyone find pleasure in taking from a human heart a living faith and putting in its place the cold and cheerless doctrine, 'I do not know!'" Bryan also said, "The bright spots of my life are the days in which I learned that I had been a help in bringing men back to God. There is more happiness in bringing souls back to God than in presidential nominations."

THE ASSEMBLY OF GOD.

HEAR WRITERS' HEAD.

A number of interested persons met at the library at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon to hear Dr. Clara Cogswell Ingham, state president of the League of Western Writers, who spoke here on her way to New York to attend a national writers' conclave. Mrs. Ingham spoke again in the evening at the Christian church. While in the city she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milsom. Mrs. Milsom, president of the Umatilla county chapter of the league, was in Pendleton Monday evening to preside at a meeting of that chapter, also addressed by Mrs. Ingham.

ENJOY PARTY.

The Junior League of the Methodist church after their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon had a party on the church lawn. Outdoor games were played. At 5 o'clock, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Everyone reported a good time.
