By LA VERN BAKER

Glen C. Wade will speak at the Townsend meeting to be held in the community church May 31. Ione, Heppner, Condon and Arlington are to be here for a two-county meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thomas and children motored to Spokane Monday. They will return later. Mr. Thomas was called there on business.

Commencement was held Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. A capacity crowd enjoyed the exercises. Mr. Miller of Salem gave the address. There were nine seniors to take part in the exercises. After the exercises dancing was enjoyed in the gymnasium, followed by a lovely banquet for the seniors and their guests, given by the alumni association.

School was out Friday with all of the teachers returning to their homes. Edwin Ingles intends to attend summer school in California this summer. Those who are to return next year are Mr. Anderson, Miss Brennan, Miss Tildon and Miss Gibbons. Miss Glenn, our third and fourth grade teacher, is to be married this summer.

Jack Gorham and Donald Strobel went to Pendleton Saturday where Mr. Gorham had five ulcers removed from his eye. He was reported doing fairly well.

A. B. Black returned home last week in time to give the exams for the classes he taught. Mr. Black left the first of May to take over the job of bee inspector and will return to his work Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Art Allen and children and Mildred Allen returned last week from a two-weeks' trip to Nebraska. Mrs. Allen, a sister-in-law of Jess Allen, of Nebraska, returned with them.

A farewell party was given Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles. A large crowd attended and the evening was spent in playing games and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served later in the evening.

Missionary meeting was held, at the home of Mrs. McCutcheon Wednesday afternoon. About twenty women attended.

Doris Wilson is visiting a short time in Arlington with her sister, Mrs. John McClaskey, who will be remembered as Elsie Wilson.

Lucile Tyler left Friday for Arlington where she will be employed for a time.

The Plunkett show was given in Boardman Sunday. It was a traveling tent show and a good time was reported by all who attended.

The telephone crew which has been employed here for some time left Monday after finishing their work here.

Mr. Compton has purchased a new black Chevrolet after returning from a short trip around Spokane.

Miss Marguerite Harford spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday visiting at the homes of friends. Miss to see her sister graduate. Ada Mae returned to Portland with her.

George Harford was a business visitor on the project Friday.

Miss Lina Rose spent the week end visiting at the homes of friends. Miss Rose resides at Umatilla.

John Jenkins and Glen Hadley left Sunday for a short trip on which they intend to shear sheep.

Mr. Bleakney, who is the father of Neal Bleakney, left Monday for the mountains where he will spend the summer. His grandsons, Donald and Pat went with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carpenter and daughter Zella spent the week end visiting on the Boardman project. They are now residents of Portland. Mrs. Belle Darrah of San Diego, Calif., is visiting at the N. A. Macomber home. Mrs. Darrah is Mr. Macomber's sister.

The Townsend club ladies have the quilt which they have been making for some time ready to sell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burdell of Emmett, Idaho, visited at the S. C. Russell home last week.

Miss Betty McKenzie of Umatilla is a guest at the Compton home this week. Miss McKenzie was a graduate at Umatilla this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Beers and family of Odell stopped at the S. C. Russell home to spend the week end.

The Beers family was enroute to Idaho where they will visit a sister of Mr. Beers and Mrs. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redding of Hood River are visiting Mrs. Redding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bleakman.

Mrs. Walter Farrens is making an indefinite visit with her husband at his sheep camp near Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke motored to The Dalles Saturday to take Jim Miller to the hospital there. Fan Miller accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel were business visitors in Heppner Saturday.

Commencement exercises for the high school graduating class were held Thursday evening. The class consisted of two, Pat Bleakman and Roland Farrens. The stage was beautifully decorated in the class colors, blue and white. Frank Alfred of Heppner delivered the commencement address. Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, county school superintendent, gave a short talk and presented the diplomas. Mrs. Neal Knight sang two songs accompanied by Mrs. Walter Wright. Pat Bleakman gave the class will and Roland Farrens the poem. Opal Hastings read the class prophecy and Donald Robison gave the history. We feel quite proud this year as both graduates have won scholarships. Roland has one to Reed college in mathematics and Pat's is to Pacific university in public speaking.

Miss Maxine McDaniel is spending the week in the mountains with her aunt, Mrs. Kinnard McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave of Fox were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Stevens. Miss Lois Stevens accompanied them home.
