

IONE NEWS

Troedson Family Reunite at The Dalles

By MARGARET BLAKE

Freddie Ritchie arrived last week from Portland where he has been attending school to visit his brother Arthur and his sister, Mrs. Winona McCabe. His mother, Mrs. Ethel Ritchie, has been called to Vernonia to attend her father, John Kirk, who suffered a stroke of paralysis recently but is recovering from its effects slowly.

Members of the Troedson family met in The Dalles auto park last Sunday for their annual reunion. Fifty-one persons were present to enjoy the occasion. A picnic dinner was served at noon. During the day an election of officers was held. Mrs. Clyde Nickel of Sumner, Wn., was elected president, C. W. Swanson, Ione, first vice-president; Mrs. Anna Barnhardt, San Jose, Calif., second vice-president; Mrs. Earl Wilkinson, Portland, secretary, and F. C. Tews, Seattle, historian. Various members of the family gave short talks and greetings from absent members were read. Those present were J. L. B. Marcotte, Mrs. Anna Barnhardt, Mrs. Herman Chappelle and Mrs. Jennie Johnson, San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nickel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson and son Dayton, Sumner; Mrs. Ed Sather and son, Seattle; Robert Ballinger, Yakima; Mrs. Hilma Nelson, Firth, Ida.; Mrs. Earl Wilkinson and daughter and Mrs. Paul Troedson, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tews and children, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Martin and children, Moro; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan and daughter, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Troedson, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clel Rea and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson and daughter Eva, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson and son Carlton, Miss Lena Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smouse and family, Ione.

Mrs. P. J. Linn returned from Portland and Mrs. Elmer Griffith from Eugene on Friday night's train. They were met at Arlington by Mrs. J. W. Howk of Condon who brought them home. Mrs. Howk and her two children returned to their home Sunday.

Many are the smiles on the faces of farmers around the village since the recent rains. Popular opinion has it that most of the wheat will benefit greatly though in a few instances the hot weather of two weeks ago had done damage which cannot be overcome by the rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Linn and daughter were overnight visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn, enroute to Elgin where Mr. Linn is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sturdevant arrived Tuesday from the coast where they enjoyed the week following their marriage at Forest Grove on June 6. Due to arrive so that Mr. Sturdevant could conduct services last Sunday they were delayed by car trouble.

Interment services were held in the I. O. O. F. cemetery Friday afternoon for Fred Griffin who died at his home in The Dalles last Tuesday from a heart attack. Mr. Griffin had lived on farms south of Ione most of his life, having moved to The Dalles but a few years ago. He is survived by two sons, three sisters, Mrs. Verda Ritchie of Portland, Mrs. Vena Kaiser of Maupin and Mrs. Glen Ball of Yakima, and two brothers, Francis of The Dalles and Philip of Ione. Other relatives also present at the graveside were Glenn Balland family, George Ritchie, Jr., and Ralph Kaiser and Miss Winifred Kaiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and daughter, Betty Jean, and Mrs. Victor Rietmann attended the meeting in Pendleton last week at which the national commander of the American Legion was present.

Miss Margaret McDevitt sailed from New York last Wednesday for a European tour.

Members of the O. E. S. and their families enjoyed a strawberry feed at the Masonic hall last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind and children are spending two months near Portland so that the boy who suffers severe attacks of asthma may be near the physician who is treating him.

Mr. and Mrs. Rood Ekleberry and family are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ekleberry.

Cecil Thorne was called to Newberg Sunday to attend the funeral of his father.

The Women's Topic club will have its June social meeting at the home of Mrs. Clel Rea Saturday afternoon, June 19.

Annual meetings and elections of officers were held by the Farmers Elevator Co. of Ione and the Jordan Elevator Co. last Saturday afternoon. The same officers were elected to serve the Jordan Elevator company again with Laxton McMurray as a 3-year-term director, O. E. Peterson and French Burroughs, 2-year-term directors, and A. A. McCabe and Henry Smouse, 1-year-term directors. The Farmers Elevator Co. of Ione re-elected C. E. Carlson and O. E. Peterson as president and secretary respectively. Henry Smouse, E. R. Lundell and V. L. Carlson are directors of the company.

L. M. Cooke of Beaverton, who will be superintendent of the school here next term, was in town last Wednesday on business connected with the school.

Martin Bauernfeind and Elvin Miller were Portland visitors last week end, going down Saturday and returning Monday.

Phil Brady and children were here for a short time last Wednesday. The Brady's made their home on the farm recently vacated by Harry Cool a number of years ago and Mr. Brady brought his children to see the place.

Mrs. Dan O'Hara of Kinzua has been visiting at the home of her father, Robert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and son Buddy drove to Portland Tuesday.

Elmer Griffith and Ed Powell enjoyed a week-end fishing trip to East Lake and Crooked river. Although the fishing was good the catching was something else, and they arrived home more or less empty handed.

A. H. Nelson and family returned Friday from attending the Rose festival in Portland.

Eileen Sperry has gone to Portland to visit her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Niblem.

Betty Jean Mankin and Mary K. Blake are attending the Episcopalian summer school at Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman and son Joe visited relatives in Pendleton Monday.

Mrs. Clarence McMurray and children, Wayne, Edna and Gertrude, of Mullen, Idaho, stopped here last Wednesday on their way to visit Mr. McMurray who is in a sanitarium in Arizona.

Mrs. Bert Mason departed Friday for Portland where she will attend the grand chapter, O. E. S. She was accompanied by Mrs. D. M. Ward and Mrs. C. W. McNamer of Heppner.

Mrs. Ora Snipes and children of Portland arrived at the home of Mrs. Pauline Boyer Saturday. When they returned home Sunday they were accompanied by Mrs. Boyer.

Mrs. Paul Troedson of Portland is visiting with Mrs. Henry Smouse and other relatives.

Miss Eva Swanson has gone to Seattle for a visit. She will also visit in Salem before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell visited in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heliker and W. F. Palmateer attended the meeting of the state grange in The Dalles last week.

Miss Nola Keithley, bride-elect, was honored with a miscellaneous shower given in the I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday afternoon. Refreshments were served. Miss Eva Swanson and Miss Mildred Lundell were hostesses.

Mrs. Roxy Krebs, worthy matron of Locust chapter is attending the meeting of the Oregon grand chapter, O. E. S., in Portland this week.

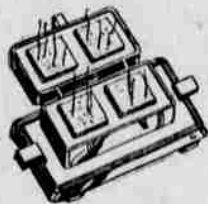

BUILDINGS GET PAINT.

Heppner branch, First National Bank of Portland and Ferguson Motor company buildings each have just received new coatings of paint. Harry Archer and George Burroughs did the bank job, painting all the cornice and weather stripping on the building. The Ferguson job was done by Shell Oil company painters.

Prepare Summer Meals in COOL COMFORT WITH THESE ELECTRIC APPLIANCES!

For GOOD Coffee

... for quick, delicious coffee to serve either hot or iced, use an electric coffee maker. The new models are both beautiful and reasonably priced.

Toasted Sandwiches are fine with Salads!

For a hot touch to a cold meal, serve toasted sandwiches. Everybody likes them, and they're so easy to make in an electric cooker.

Electric Roaster cooks complete meals without heating up your kitchen!

A modern electric roaster roasts, bakes, stews and steams. In fact, there's no type of cooking you can't do successfully in an electric roaster. A heat control keeps your food at exactly the temperature you desire. Insulation keeps heat in—your kitchen stays cool. Conveniently shaped dishes enable you to cook a complete meal all at once. A broiler attachment is also available, enabling you to broil steaks and chops. See a display of electric roasters today. You'll find this appliance useful not only in summer, but every day in the year.

HOT? Then turn on an electric fan!

Electric fans are now made in both floor and table models. Blades are designed to operate quietly and give a greater circulation of air. Don't swelter on hot days. Keep cool with an electric fan. Prices to suit your purse. Operating cost is small, too.

Keep your kitchen fresh and cool with a ventilating fan!

A ventilating fan in your kitchen removes smoke, fumes, steam and cooking odors—quickly, quietly and without draft. Your kitchen stays fresh and comfortable. Food odors don't penetrate the rest of your house. There are two types of ventilating fans. One fits into any sash window. It is easy to install. The only tool required is a screw driver. The other type fan is installed in your kitchen wall, usually while you are building or remodeling. Learn more about ventilating fans now. Prices are reasonable. And the operating cost is very, very small at Pacific's new low rates.

An electric mixer saves time and work!

Do beating, blending and mixing make you hot and tired? Let an electric mixer do this work for you—and help you in other ways, too.

Crisp, clean clothes are essential in summer!

Speed laundering with a modern electric iron. The heat control gives you the exact temperature need for every kind of cloth... lets you iron fast, sure and with a minimum of effort.

SEE ANY DEALER IN ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT or PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

Always at Your Service