Forrester to Handle OSC Sports Publicity

Corvallis.—Regular sports news from Oregon State college will again be available to weekly papers not served by press associations, with the appointment of an athletic publicity director by the Associated Students at the college. J. W. (Bud) Forrester, Jr., formerly of Marshfield and more recently managing editor of the Pendleton East Oregonian, has been appointed to the position by the Athletic Activities board.

Forrester is a former student at Oregon State, who later worked in the sports department of the Portland Oregonian before going to Pendleton. In addition to looking after the athletic news he will also handle much of the editing of the Oregon State monthly, official alumni publication, and will serve as adviser to the business staffs of other college publications.
