Those present were Misses Caroline Moyr, Louis Moyr, Dora Bailey, Lucille Moyer, Beulah Nichols and Opal Briggs; John Barber, A. Schuck, Robert Murray, Henry Machu, William MacMurray and Earl Whelley. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by little Miss Melba Caldera and Donna Mae Koons.

Quigley-Brosnan Wedding Charming

At a charming ceremony last Saturday in Portland, before an altar artistically decorated with white standards of delphiniums, lilies, gladioli and white candles in candelabra, Miss Theresa Mary Quigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Quigley, became the bride of Mr. Joseph M. Brosnan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brosnan of Heppner. The wedding rites were at St. Patrick's church with Father Louis Sanders officiating.

While the groom and the best man, Mr. William J. Doherty of Lexington, stood at the altar the strains of the March Pontificale filled the church and the bridal procession headed by Messrs. Jerry Brosnan and Roger Sheppard moved down the aisle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of white satin with yoke of seed pearls, long sleeves and train. She wore a circular face veil of tulle, becomingly arranged in cap-style trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a white prayer book showered with Humboldt Bouvardia and corsage of orchid and valley lilies.

The maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Sara Jane Quigley, wore a dress of pastel blue chiffon, hat of pink tulle and carried a bouquet of water lilies shading rose pink to pale pink.

The bride's mother wore navy blue chiffon, matching accessories and a corsage of rose buds and bouvardia. Mrs. Brosnan, wearing a like corsage was dressed in blue crepe with white accessories.

Mr. Neri Thebeau sang during the services.

Following the service a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and the immediate families was served in the Green Room at Henry Thiele's.

An afternoon reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on N. W. 20th avenue. Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Jerry Brosnan and Mrs. Vincent Kumzan. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Mildred and Lucy Quigley, sisters of the bride; Viola Rydeen, Lillian Kies and Lucille Henkle.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Bernard Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hastings, Mr. A. Mason and Mr. J. B. Carroll.

For going away the bride wore a light weight wool suit of coral with matching accessories, and a corsage of orchids.

Following a motor trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple will make their home in The Dalles, where Mr. Brosnan is in business.

ATTEND FAMILY PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker went to Waitsburg, Wash., Sunday with O. G. Crawford who drove over from Madras Saturday afternoon, to attend the annual Crawford-Dunlap reunion picnic. There were seventy-five registered attendants at the enjoyable affair, held in the attractive city park at Waitsburg.
