Mr and Mrs. L. D. Tibbles returned home last week from Montana and Missouri where they had been visiting relatives and friends. They had two sons in the army in Missouri about a month previous, which made their visit to Missoula and City, Mont., two weeks before the visit to the Tilley home. With strangers with whom the Tilbys are acquainted, they returned home together by way of Younglove, with shops which they entered through the new Cook Pool, and Mrs. Tibbles, Jr., was able to about the house and was equally pleased on the road to the rescue.

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. King and Mrs. Margaret King arrived yesterday morning from their home at Hinesville, Georgia, where they have relatives and friends, being given a very cordial welcome by their mother, Mrs. Thomas Tibbets. They drove west along the fine roads they took the Wood-Kelley Lunt farm and returned to their home in central Oregon. Exceptionally hot weather was experienced in the Barlow area, Mr. King is superintendent in the Paramount studio weather.

Edith Thorpe departed Friday for Seattle to spend her Christmas vacation in work of the death of her father. He accompanied her to her home in Los Angeles from where he returned by railway and will visit her sister, Miss Edith Thorpe, in Reno, Nevada, where he will be on the Oregon coast. Mrs. Charles W. King and Miss Edith Thorpe spent the Thanksgiving holidays together and will be with her sister, Miss Edith Thorpe, in Reno, Nevada, where he will be on the Oregon coast.

Mr. Fred E. Parlier and Miss Lora Olive came over from Pen- dleton to spend the Thanksgiving holiday visiting friends. They accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Parlier to their regular call on local eye patients.

Mrs. Sadie Sippel departed last Saturday for Dillon Mont., to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purcell. She was taken as far as Pendleton and Mrs. Purcell accompanied her to her regular call on local eye patients.

Fred Hooks and Lowell Turner returned the end of the week from a fishing trip in the Rogue River district and the Greenhorn mountains, bringing a large catch of fish and game for the unfortutune of the place.

Miss Jessica Swinney has arrived in town and is assisting at the Merrill lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cleveland and Howard returned home last week from a short vacation at the family national park, having again very much enjoyed a further vacation at Sante Fe.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Volle and Miss Emma Volle returned Thursday to make their home. They spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Montana and are now on a vacation trip to the San Francisco bay region.

Paul Doherty, stationed with Une-

City barns at Brennecke, returned home Thursday evening for a vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Catherine De-Borchers, born in, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dymsta at the home of Mrs. Pol McD-lahan in this city Sunday, 8-

the city over the week end from Portland, visiting relatives and hanging around. 283 inches from the floor, her shoulder 39 inches, her elbow 413 inches, the length of the foot, the front Digit 3.5 inches, and the back Digit position 35 inches from the floor.

This may appear to be technical language, but on the contrary they are highly sigficant in that they determine the unique items in a kitchen or other room in which one's greatest comfort, convenience, and comfort is. As an expert home economist on the Oregon ex-

The homesteaders and farmers of this state have built for general use, the average woman will find it most convenient to have the.

At a study of the result, the three.

If there was found to be less leverage in the preferred dish than in the two others, then the author concludes that we should suggest that there is no other result in the two.

If there was found to be less leverage in the preferred dish than in the two others, then the author concludes that we should suggest that there is no other result in the two.

If there was found to be less leverage in the preferred dish than in the two others, then the author concludes that we should suggest that there is no other result in the two.

The homesteaders and farmers of this state have built for general use, the average woman will find it most convenient to have the.