

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker received telegraphic word yesterday that their son-in-law, Dorris Mitchell of Joseph, had been taken to Emanuel hospital in Portland to undergo treatment for injuries sustained in an automobile accident Tuesday. A compound fracture of the leg, broken ribs and other injuries were reported. Mrs. Mitchell, formerly Miss Frances Parker, was also in the accident, but escaped injury, according to the report. The accident, particulars of which were lacking, occurred near Joseph.

Paul Gemmell and V. G. Bracher, representatives from the secretary of state's office, were in the city Saturday waiting upon applicants for drivers' licenses. Mr. Bracher was accompanied by his son, a member of the U. of O. football squad, who fell on his return to Eugene in time for fall football practice. The Brachers are residents of Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tullar motored to Portland over the week end, being accompanied by Miss Lola Osborn and Miss Jeanne Huston. Miss Osborn remained in the city to attend the La Salle extension university, while Miss Huston returned home Monday. She visited while in the city with her mother, Mrs. Clive Huston, who is recovering from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tibbles arrived Tuesday night from their home at Miles City, Mont., for a visit at the home of their son, Dr. L. D. Tibbles. Mr. Tibbles, Sr., is well recovered from an attack of pneumonia this summer at which time Dr. Tibbles was called to the Montana home.

Miss Kathryn Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Parker, underwent a tonsilectomy at the office of a local doctor yesterday morning. She will leave shortly to enter La Grande normal school, having won a scholarship to that institution on graduation from high school in the spring.

Jos. J. Nys returned home Tuesday night from a business trip to Portland. While in the city he called on M. D. Clark and found Heppner's veteran merchant well on the road to recovery from his recent operations and expecting to return home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean T. Goodman and Donald Baker arrived in the city yesterday evening on their way home to Salem from Seattle where they took Dean, Jr., to enter dramatics school. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cochell were in the city yesterday, calling on Mr. Cochell's mother, following their nuptials at Goldendale, Wash., last Friday. Billy left the same evening for Bremerton, Wash., to resume his duties in Uncle Sam's navy.

Mrs. Emma Pierce of Eugene arrived Sunday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Clark. Mrs. Pierce's late husband was a cousin of Walter M. Pierce, eastern Oregon's representative in congress.

Frank C. Alfred, district attorney, returned home Tuesday after spending the Labor Day holiday with his folks at Silverton. He was joined in Portland by Mrs. Alfred who made the trip to Silverton with him.

Mrs. Claud Huston is convalescing at the home of her brother, Dr. Ben Phillips in Portland after undergoing a major operation, and expects to return shortly to her home in Eight Mile.

R. C. Phelps and Mrs. W. P. Hill returned home the end of the week from Lebanon where they attended funeral services on Wednesday last week for their brother, the late Ira Phelps.

Harry Duncan returned home the end of the week from San Francisco where he visited for several weeks.

Orrin Wright was in town Tuesday from the farm on Rhea creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Main were in the city over Sunday and Monday from their home at Pomeroy, Wash., coming to attend the Hayes-Warner nuptials at Lexington Monday morning. Mr. Main, former clerk in the local Safeway store, is now manager of the Safeway store at Pomeroy. He reported exceptionally good crops in the Pomeroy section this season.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wells and son Billy from Pendleton visited the end of the week at the home of Mr. Wells' brother, Richard Wells. Billy is entering upon his senior year at Whitman college with the beginning of the fall term, and will be a student assistant to the professor of diplomatic science.

Mrs. Minnie Furlong and daughter, Miss Kathleen, left the end of the week for Portland to make their home. Miss Kathleen expected to enter Mt. Angel college for the coming school year, while Mrs. Furlong will reside in the city with her daughter, Miss Ethel Cradick.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baldwin visited with relatives and friends here Monday on their way from Monument to their home at Salem. Mr. Baldwin drove up for Mrs. Baldwin who had spent a week at the home of her brother, Ralph Reade, at Monument.

Mrs. Hilma Anderson and daughter, Miss Louise, were transacting business in town Tuesday from the Eight Mile farm. Miss Louise will enter Oregon State college, along with her brother Frank, at the beginning of the fall term.

O. C. Stephens was a business visitor in town Monday from the farm near Hardman. Rains the end of the week had interfered considerably with harvest in his section, and he reported his grain still too green for harvesting.

The Lee Scrivner family from Democrat gulch has established residence for the winter in their house on Water street, near the laundry, while the children attend school. Mr. Scrivner was in from the farm Tuesday.

Stephen Thompson was in the city Monday from Pendleton, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson. "Steve" is resettlement administrator for the Pendleton district.

Mrs. Leta Babb and son, Norton King, went to Portland yesterday, Norton being on his way to Corvallis to enter Oregon State college as a freshman at the beginning of the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Adams passed through town Saturday on their way to Hardman to visit for several weeks at the home of their son Floyd and family, coming up from Portland.

Lee Notson left last evening on the return to his home at Dunlay, Iowa, after remaining in Heppner for two weeks assisting in arranging affairs of his father, the late S. E. Notson.

Jim Burnside transacted business in the city Tuesday while being laid off harvest by recent showers. He reported his grain turning out at the rate of about nine sacks to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Copenhaver left this week for California to spend the winter, after residing for a couple of months here. They will visit Willamette valley points on the way.

Charles Barlow, county clerk, left for The Dalles Tuesday morning immediately on receipt of word of the death of his brother, Guy Barlow, in the hospital there.

Frank Fraters, in town Tuesday from the Eight Mile farm, reported harvest completed with the yield below expectations.

Wm. Greener came to town Tuesday for supplies for his mill operations south of Hardman, now in full swing.

Miss Mary White, fourth grade teacher, is living at Heppner hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice have returned to their farm home near Lexington after a sojourn in Portland where Mr. Rice sought relief from a severe attack of asthma.

The Norbert Peavy family is residing in an apartment at the A. J. Chaffee residence for the school year. Mr. Peavy is English teacher in the high school.

Miss Shirlee Smith, commerce instructor, is sharing an apartment with Miss Mary Chaffee, deputy clerk, at the Case apartments for the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox have taken an apartment in the Gilman building while Mr. Knox is directing the athletic destinies at the school for the year.

A. Q. THOMSON
NEW YORK LIFE AGENT
Residence 102½ Court St.
Phone 632

==THE== STAR Reporter
Sun.-Mon. Sept. 12-13
GREAT!

... because it's a triumph of spectacle!

... because it touches your heart!

... because in stars, production, thrills it's even mightier than "Mutiny on the Bounty"!

CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS with FREDDIE BARTHOLOMEW
Spencer TRACY
Lionel BARRYMORE
Melvyn DOUGLAS
A VICTOR FLEMING
production

Metro Goldwyn Mayer PICTURE

Short Subjects:
OUR GANG COMEDY
and MOVIE TONE NEWS
STAR THEATER
HEPPNER, ORE.

Miss Mary Mahr, cousin of Mrs. Parker, and Raymond Francisco of Portland accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Parker on a visit here over the week end.

Mrs. Lena Boesel arrived this week from Winthrop, Wash., for a few months visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Weh-meyer.

Adam Knoblock was in town on Tuesday from the Boardman farm home.

For Sale—Good ranch of 80 acres on Rhea creek. J. E. Musgrave, Ione, Ore. 27-30p

R. L. Bengel, in town Saturday from the Social Ridge farm, reported finishing up his harvest just before the rain struck the day previous.

Miss Kathryn Bisbee visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee. She is county health nurse for Clackamas county.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gonty visited over the week end at the home of Mr. Gonty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hemrich, at Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bayless are attending the state fair in Salem this week.

Oil Heaters

Some REAL BARGAINS

on a number of last year's stock. Priced to CLOSE OUT in next two weeks

NEW MODELS in SPARK and DUO-THERM
NOW ON DISPLAY

See ED DICK

Phone 622

for estimates on any heating problem

CHOP YOUR HAY

with HALF the Power required by ordinary choppers

The PAPEC
DOES THE TRICK

See it NOW in our display room

And speaking of POWER

The CAT

gives the lowest-priced power for all farm power requirements

Morrow County's Own Store

BRADEN-BELL
Tractor & Equipment Co.