OSC Dean Returns From War-Torn Orient

Corvallis—Delayed 16 days in north China by the war situation there, Miss Ava B. Milam, dean of the school of home economics at Oregon State college, and a party of students and travelers she conducted on a summer tour of the Orient returned here September 12 with first-hand stories of conditions in both China and Japan.

After being marooned for two weeks in Peiping, the party managed to get to Japan by way of Manchukuo, from where they took a British boat to Vancouver, B. C.

Japan is caught in the grip of war hysteria, Dean Milam reports. The government was already calling older men and those with families for army service at the time the Americans were there late in August.

"The Japanese press says the Japanese people are of one mind concerning this Sino-Japanese war, which they usually choose to speak of as the 'China incident,'" said Dean Milam, "but our two weeks in Japan made us believe they are trying to think this and hope by saying so it may aid in bringing about a unified mind."

The Oregon State party saw much history in the making, but are as much puzzled as others as to how the upheaval in the Orient will end.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.
