

LEXINGTON NEWS

Grange Conference Set at Lexington

By Bertha Hunt

Lexington grange will meet in its hall October 2nd at which time a class will be instructed in the 3rd and 4th degrees.

On October 16th Lexington grange will be host to the state conference for Morrow county. Among state officers who will address the conference are Master Ray Gill, Lecturer, Mrs. G. W. Thiessen, secretary, Miss Bertha Beck; Morton Tompkins of the executive board, and Mrs. Fannie McCall, juvenile matron. There will be dinner at high noon. All grange members will bear in mind that this conference comes to you, to help you solve your problems. Come and join in the discussions. Closed session begins at nine p. m.

The first P. T. A. meeting this year was held Wednesday evening. Mr. Haguwood, district Scout executive, Mrs. Rodgers, county school superintendent, and Miss Althea Stoneman, public health nurse, were present and spoke during the meeting. It was decided that the P. T. A. would take over sponsorship of the Scouts instead of the grange as heretofore. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Mrs. Elsie Beach made a business trip to Portland last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Britt and son LeRoy visited at the Carl Whillock home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvannus Wright and family have moved to The Dalles.

Jack McMillan returned Tuesday from Portland where he has been for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillis and two children who have spent the summer at a ranger station in the mountains have gone to Corvallis.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Scott on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sprinkel and son Dean of Heppner and James Hartz of Goldendale, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson and Duane spent Wednesday in Pendleton.

Dan Way made a trip to Yakima last Saturday.

Mrs. Myrtle Gentry and granddaughter are visiting Mrs. Munkers.

John Miller has purchased the house formerly occupied by the Sylvannus Wright family.

Mrs. Maude Pointer and Mrs. Laura Scott returned home Tuesday after spending two weeks at points in the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt and daughter Louise motored to Yakima Monday.

Leland Castor, lineman for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, was in Lexington Tuesday.

Lou Broadley received a deep cut on the head when she fell down the basement stairs at the Warner home last Thursday. Several stitches were required to close the wound.

BOARDMAN NEWS

Chloe Barlow Home After Serious Illness

By LA VERN BAKER

Chloe Barlow was brought home Sunday from The Dalles hospital where she had been for a long time with typhoid fever.

Ernest Peck was brought home from a hospital in Portland this week after undergoing an appendicitis operation. Peter Farley drove down and got him. Mrs. Peck and Mrs. Utthey went also.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thomas spent Monday in Pendleton on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger of Condon spent the week end visiting friends and relatives in Boardman.

Eldon Shannon returned to Arlington to his work after spending the week end visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, the new seventh and eighth grade teacher, arrived Friday and started teaching Monday. They are living in the house across from the Paul Smith ranch.

A Christian Endeavor party was given at the McCutcheon home on Friday evening. It was the beginning of the Endeavor after they had adjourned for the summer. The evening was spent playing games, and refreshments were served.

Rally Day program was given at the community church Sunday with a pot-luck dinner afterwards. Each class gave a number after which the teacher read the list of pupils who were promoted to another class.

Mrs. Bickford of La Grande spent the week visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Hug.

Dave Johnston stopped in Boardman on his way to Idaho where he intends to enter Idaho State college. Miss Imogene Wilson accompanied his this far where she visited her parents.

A card party was given at the grange hall on Saturday.

Miss Ada Mae Harford of Arlington spent Wednesday visiting friends in Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Horn of Griddle, Calif., visited at the W. O.

Strobel home over the week end. They went on to Midvale, Idaho.

Vernon Root who has been employed in Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root, this week.

Percy Rake and Fred Alt took a truck load of melons to Longview, Wash., on Saturday.

Herb Parson is visiting friends and relatives in Spokane this week. Bruce Pancake of Baker is visiting at the H. B. Thomas home this week.

Ed Skoubo, Lawrence and Charlie Smith and Buster Rands returned from their deer hunting trip with two deer.

Mrs. Victor Gregg of Vancouver is visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon.

Misses Janet Gorham and Virginia Compton spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting and shopping in The Dalles.

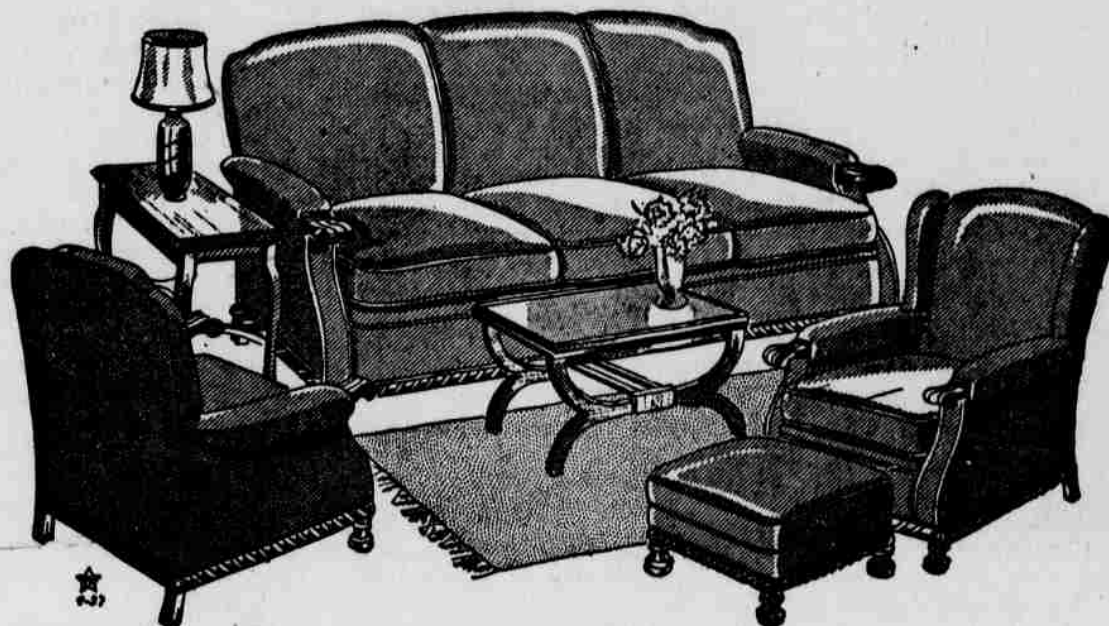

National
Furniture Week
Sept. 24 - Oct. 2

Celebrate With Us and Cut Expenses

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY, National Furniture Week is being celebrated from Sept. 24 to Oct. 2nd. Here are representative values to be found at CASE FURNITURE CO. We have the largest stock of new offerings that it has ever been our pleasure to show.

Living Room SUITES

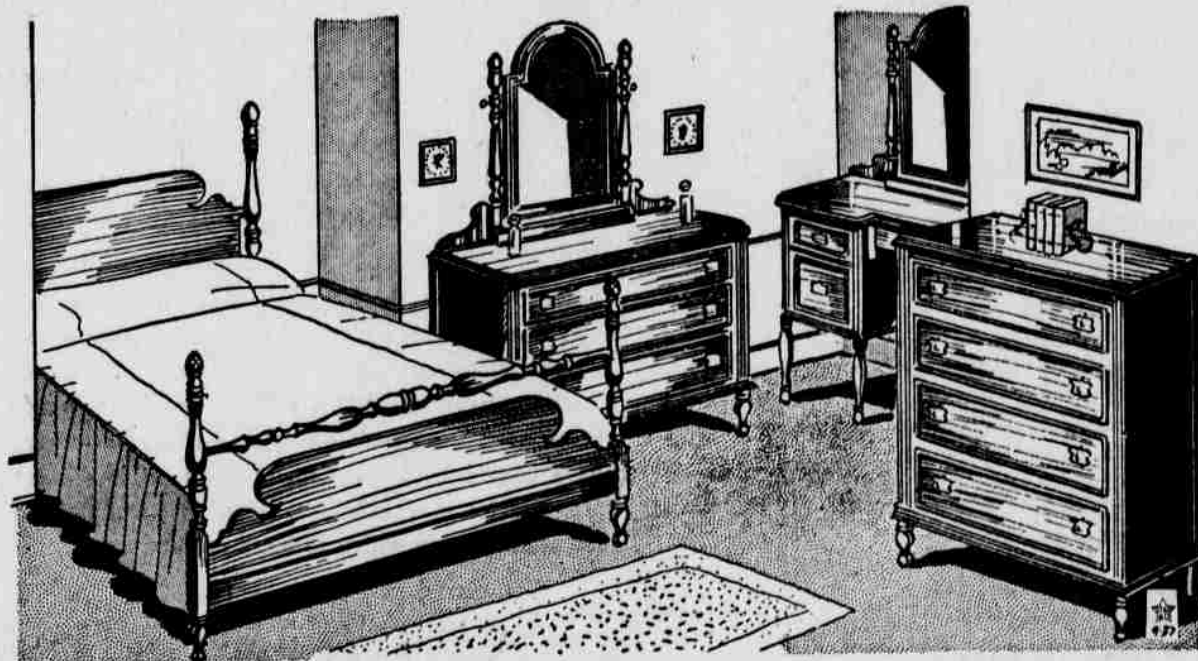

Expertly upholstered, with durable frames. Perfectly matched with an eye for beauty and comfort.

The Referee Says:

"There are all sorts of fighters—but only one can be a Champion."

It's the say way with heaters. There are all kinds of heaters but the Coleman Oil Heater is without question the champion of its class. Cold weather doesn't faze it. It can give better than it takes. The Coleman Combustion Chamber—that's where the fire is—is made of the finest grade of 20 gauge copper bearing steel. It can take heat punishment for years and years. When you install a Coleman Heater it is there to stay for a long, long time. Your yearly depreciation is less—your fuel cost is less. See CASE FURNITURE CO. about a Coleman Circulator—the heater than takes punishment and likes it.

Bedroom SUITES

Built of walnut, carefully matched, and of guaranteed construction. An ensemble that is different from the usual run of suites.

CASE FURNITURE CO.

Modern Home Furnishers

Heppner, Oregon