Adult Recreation Classes Begin Monday

The recreational classes for adult women will begin Monday evening, October 4 at 8 p. m., announces Mrs. Robert Knox, the instructor. If 15 or more register the first evening it will be possible to reduce the price of the course considerably. All women above the age of 18 are eligible and there is no top limit.

Registration is by the month, payable in advance, which includes 4 or 8 lessons, depending upon the individual's choice. The parish house will be open at 7 p. m. Monday evening for registration and also to answer questions about the class-

The purpose of this class is to participate in enjoyable activity and Jim Inskeep went to work for to have a good time. The first part of the hour will be given over to Oscel Inskeep was visiting his ryhthmic body conditioning exercises and the second part of the evening can be tap dancing, folk dancing or active games, depending upon the vote of the group.

Members of the group may wear any kind of comfortable attire they wish so long as it does not interfere with free movement, Slacks, shorts, bathing suits, or gym outfits of any kind are in order. It is preferred that only soft soled, flexible shoes will be worn to allow for secure footing.

This is your class. You can make it more economical by bringing your friends Monday evening. You can make it more enjoyable by letting the instructor know what you would like to have included in the class work. Mrs. Knox, the instructor, and Mrs. Amorelli, the accompanist, will put forth every effort to make your classes active and enjoyable.

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

Willows grange held its regular business meeting in the hall at Cecil Sunday, Sept. 26, with pot luck dinner at noon.

Marion Krebs was elected in August to the office of assitant steward to fill the vacancy left by Kenneth Lundell who resigned as he was leaving to enter Oregon Institute of Technology in Portland.

A splendid report of agricultural work was given by Geo. Krebs who also spoke of the splendid meetings Friday night, October 8th.

A Booster program and bazaar will charge of the program is Marie Led-Grand Master Zimmerman brings better, Mary Lundell, Helen Lind-

1938 AAA Program Fits Oregon Conditions

Every soil conserving and soil building practice recommended by Oregon district and state meetings Morrow County Pomona grange as needed to make the 1938 agriculeffective in this state has been obtained and will be included in the chairman of the state AAA committee, who, with N. C. Donaldson, secretary, and P. M. Brandt, representing the O. S. C. extension service, took part in the recent conferalso be other program numbers and ence in Washington, D. C., where the new program was formulated.

These conferences were conducted State grange officers' conference on an extremely democratic basis, for Morrow county will be held in Dodd reports, with representatives the grange hall at Lexington Octo- of every state present, and all beber 16th. All grange members as well ing called upon to explain the paras officers and committee groups are ticular needs of their states. Where soil depleting and soil conserving requests were found to conform with goals on each farm.

the principles and scope of the national program they were incorporated, but those that did not meet those requirements were speedily eliminated.

Oregon growers on the whole will be in a position to derive relatively more benefit from the 1938 program than those in almost any other state, Dodd added. Under the previous programs Oregon has made substanshifts from soil depleting to soil conserving crops and practices. A recent undercover survey also revealed that Oregon farmers stand well near the top in their understanding of the AAA program. All of these factors will combine to make the 1938 program more easily applicable in this state, Dodd believes.

County committees will have additional responsibilities and additional authority this year in establishing
