

LEXINGTON NEWS

SPEAKER SLATED FOR PIONEER MEET

Program Shaping for October 23; County Grange Council Sets Full Day Coming Saturday

By Bertha Hunt

Don't forget the date of the Pioneer's Reunion—October 23rd—and bring a well filled basket. The committee in charge has a good program for the afternoon; an hour or two of old-time dancing in the evening and the usual dance for the younger set after 9 o'clock.

Mr. Parrish, executive secretary of the Tri-State Transportation council, is slated to be on the program for Pioneer's reunion. This council is an organization making a fight on excessive freight rates and transportation problems in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. E. Harvey Miller, local farmer, is a director of this organization, being one of the three directors representing Oregon. Hear Mr. Parrish and get behind the organization with your support.

Corporal Brian Thompson of Fort Winfield Scott, located one mile from San Francisco, is visiting at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt.

Tuberculosis tests were given in the school Wednesday.

Charles Bartholomew of Pine City was visiting in Lexington this week.

Erma Wickersham and children of Portland are visiting at the Harry Duvall home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine entertained with a dinner party Tuesday evening. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. John Lasich, Arnold Sprauer, Jessie French and Mr. McKenzie.

Louise Hunt was confined to her home last Wednesday because of a cold.

Mrs. Ralph Jackson and daughter Marcella spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Elmer Hunt was a business visitor in Pendleton Monday.

Virginia Amarelli of Heppner has started her class in music lessons here and has several pupils.

Orville Cutsforth was doing business in Waterville, Wash., this week. Ronald Sprauer visited his brother Arnold over last week end.

Bob Cutler brought home a 185-lb. deer this week.

Mrs. Arnold Pieper and her father, J. H. Frad, accompanied Oral Scott to Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Wright are spending the week in Monument for business reasons.

Among Lexington people doing business in the Hermiston vicinity this week were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Breshears and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth.

Margaret Leach shopped in Pendleton Wednesday.

Clarence (Judge) Carmichael, Emery Moore and Ralph Jackson are on a hunting trip this week.

Those attending Pomona grange at Lena Saturday from Lexington were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Smouse, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. Maude Pointer, Mrs. Laura Scott, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Devine and daughter Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Peck, and Mrs. Alta Cutsforth.

Will Van Winkle and Roy Campbell returned from their hunting trip empty handed but reporting a good time and ready to go again. Other members of the party were Charles Van Winkle and Edwin and Dale Van Winkle of Arlington.

Jack Van Winkle and Dan Dinges spent the week end in Hood River.

The Three Link club is raffling off a cedar chest filled with fancy work now on display at the W. F. Barnett store.

The Morrow county state conference for granges will meet at Lexington grange hall Saturday, Oct. 16. A get-together dinner will be served at noon. The program which is open to the public, will begin at 1:30 p. m. Many topics of interest on the grange and agriculture will be discussed by State Master Ray W. Gill, and the state officials in attendance. The program will be approximately as follows:

12, noon, dinner; 1:30, Opening of conference by State Master; 1:35,

The Lecturer and the Work by Mrs. G. W. Thiessen; 1:50, Milestones by Miss Bertha Beck; 2:05, Why Organize Agriculture? by Morton Tompkins; 2:20, Meeting Grange Problems by Ray W. Gill; 2:35, Opportunity Through Woman's Work by Mrs. Mary Lundell; 3:05 Talk by County Agent; 3:20, Our Grange Fire Insurance by C. G. Pattison; 3:35 Grange Bulletin Advertising by Geo. Corson; 3:50 Grange Question Box, answers by State Deputy; 4:10, Our Young Folks by Mrs. Fannie McCall; 4:25, Reports from County Deputy and Pomona Master; 4:40, Recess, providing opportunity to visit with the State Grange party; 5:45, Dinner; 7:00 Group meetings of masters, lecturers, secretaries, home economics and agricultural committees, also insurance agents; 8:00, Recreational program; 8:30, Drill team contest.

The Lexington grange invites everyone reports Burton Peck, master.

TAKES TRIP EAST

Lawrence Redding left Sunday for a visit of several weeks in Missouri and Nebraska, expecting to spend a week or so at Brownington, Mo., his old home town, which he had not visited for some 23 years.

G. T. Want Ads bring results

IN ACCIDENT

Roger Howell was reported to have been taken to St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton with a broken back as the result of an accident near the Jarmon ranch last Thursday evening. Roger, with his father, Joe Howell, was on the way to Pendleton after a visit here when their car overturned. The father escaped injury, according to the report.

SEMI-ANNUAL PENNENY DAYS

NATION-WIDE Sheets
81 x 99
93c Each

Flour Sacks
12 for $1.00

LADIES' Fall Hats
50c

Mountain Mist Batts
2 for 75c

Panne Satin Slips
98c

Double Cotton Blankets
70 x 80
$1.35

Boys' Brushed Wool SWEATERS
Talon Fastener
$2.00 Ea.

New Ladies' BLOUSES
98c

Look! Buy Now!
BOYS' OXHIDE OVERALLS
49c
Men's Big Mac Preshrunk OVERALLS
98c
MEN'S OXHIDE OVERALLS
69c

Boys' Dress SHIRTS
Sizes 12 - 14 1/2
2 for 75c

Girls' Cotton Hose
Long lengths
15c Each

Boy' Outing Flannel Pajamas
79c Each

Towels
10c Each

MEN'S 10% WOOL UNION SUITS
98c

Remnants at new LOW PRICES

Men's Flannel Shirts
79c

70 x 80
Part Wool Single Blankets
$1 Each

GIRLS' TUCK STITCH Pajamas
79c

BOYS' WINTER UNDERWEAR
59c

MEN'S BLANKET LINED Jumpers
$1.59

MEN'S CANVAS GLOVES
3 for
25c

MEN'S PART WOOL Sweaters
$1.98