Balsiger Store Sold To Omar Rietmann

By MARGARET BLAKE

P. G. Balsiger has sold his store and home to Omar Rietmann and is moving to White Salmon, Wash., where he and Mrs. Balsiger will make their home near his brothers. Mr. Balsiger has been in business here for many years. Both he and Mrs. Balsiger have taken an active interest in church work and Mr. Balsiger has served as councilman for several years and also as a member of the school board. It is with sincere regret that the community bids them goodbye—their place here will not soon be filled. On Tuesday evening the entire community gathered in the parlor of the Congregational church to bid them farewell. A pot luck supper was served and several present paid tribute to the years of faithful service Mr. and Mrs. Balsiger have given the community.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Salter are visiting a son at Olympia, Wash. They were accompanied on their trip by their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Bidle of Lexington.

Mrs. Henry Beers and daughter Irma and Miss Beatrice Poly, all of Estacada, have been recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Palmateer at their home near Morgan. Mrs. Beers is a sister of Mrs. Palmateer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Yarnell were called to Bickelton, Wash., last week by the death of a brother-in-law, C. L. Crider. Mr. Crider passed away following an operation at The Dalles the first of last week.

Ralph Harris came up from The Dalles Sunday, remaining until Wednesday. He reports Mrs. Harris to be recovering very slowly from her recent operation. Until the past few days it had not been possible for her to retain the food given her. This condition has improved during the past few days so that it is hoped that she will make a more speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ida Peterson had as her guests for the week end Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson of Portland. On Sunday other members of her family enjoyed dinner with her. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ture Peterson of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobyms and families of Ione.

Everyone is rejoicing over the good rain which fell on Friday night and Saturday. The weather observer at Morgan reports .72 of an inch and the Gooseberry station .7 of an inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bristow have rented the Congregational parsonage and are moving into it this week.

A nice sum was realized by the Past Noble Grand club from the supper they gave at the I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday evening.

Joe Engelman returned Tuesday from Portland where he has spent the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin departed Tuesday for Gibbon. While Mr. Bergevin is on his farm there Mrs. Bergevin will visit her daughter, Betty, at Baker. They will be away about three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Mason are staying at their farm while they are away.

Party, Play Enjoyed By Hardman Folk

By OPAL HASTINGS

Saturday night the high school gave a community party after the grade school play. Twenty came in costume and those not in costume decided upon the prizes to be awarded. First prize was given to Forrest Adams, second to Vera McDaniel and Mildred Clary and third to Cecil McDaniel and Junior Leathers. Dancing, games and supper added to the enjoyment of the evening.

The play, "Just a Little Mistake," was given by the upper grade room under the direction of Miss Morton. The cast was: Mrs. Ball, Vera McDaniel; Elsie, Alice Inskeep; Roy Nona Inskeep; Helen, Ollie Hastings; cook, Herbert Schunk; Jerry, Mildred Clary, and the announcer, Albert Schunk. It was well prepared and we all enjoyed it.

Osel, Frances and Alene Inskeep attended the show in Heppner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson returned Sunday for a trip to Medford. Mrs. Herman Clemmer moved to Heppner Sunday where she will live for a month. She will move to Oral Scott's ranch for the winter.

On Friday afternoon Miss Morton's pupils had a party and spent the time in games and stunts. Refreshments consisted of cider, cookies and candy. Hallowe'en caps and party favors made it a gay event.

Frances Inskeep and Opal Hastings, the teachers of the Little Citizens' club, gave a Hallowe'en party last Thursday for their pupils. Baskets of candy were passed out and refreshments consisted of cake and cocoa. There were ten present: Joyce Buschke, Kenneth Schunk, Jean Schunk, Yvonne Hastings, Sylvia Clemmer, Junior Leathers, Lily Hastings, Harley Gallagher, Billy Lee and Cecil McDaniel.

Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon had a party for her pupils on Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served. Children as well as visitors participated in games. The mothers present were Mrs. Max Buschke, Mrs. Carey Hastings, Mrs. Albert Schunk, Mrs. William Lee, Mrs. O. Leathers and Mrs. Harlan Adams.

Christian Endeavor was led Sunday night by Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon. The topic for discussion was "The Golden Rule."

Mrs. Beulah Bell and Mrs. Steagall motored to Spray after attending institute at The Dalles.

Mrs. Blaine Chapel visited Hardman Thursday.

Both of the school boards are meeting in special session on Saturday, Nov. 6.

Tom Kurth returned from Portland and after a brief visit here he left for North Dakota on Monday night. He expects to go into the creamery business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and children drove to Pendleton Monday. They went to an oculist to have glasses fitted for Yvonne.

Foxy Grandpa —knows what's best for his grandchild!*

1. My lands, the way my Father acts you'd think Baby was his child, rather than his grandchild. He comes over every day and watches me feed and bathe little Tom. Frankly, he used to get on my nerves.

2. Whatever Baby does is all right with him. So if I scolded little Tom, I got scolded. I flared up one day and told him to go. I just couldn't help it. I was so tired, my head ached. I was sorry afterwards, of course.

3. Father didn't come back until the day after and he had a lady with him. "Now what?" I growled. "This is Miss Benson, a home lighting advisor. We're going to light condition this house and don't you argue ..."

4. ... Poor light is making you a nervous wreck. Good light will help you. And it will protect little Tom from possible eyestrain. My grandchild won't be an eye cripple if I can help it."

I.E.S. Lamps make seeing easy!...and they add beauty to your home!*

One of the most popular I.E.S. lamps is the bridge model. It fits in nicely by easy chair or davenport. The translucent bowl makes the light soft and glareless and sends part to the ceiling for general illumination. The model illustrated is available with either parchment or silk shade. The standard has silver and gold finish and a useful night light in the base.

5. As soon as I had the proper light, I felt myself relaxing and smiling again. I realized poor light had been making me a cross-patch. Father knows I'm grateful to him now. I was afraid having plentiful light would cost a lot. It hasn't though because Pacific Power & Light Company's rates are so low. For your children's sake and your own, ask their home lighting advisor to tell you about light conditioning. She'll do it free!
