

Old Armory Hall Was Moved to Lone In 1890; Now Home

Mention was made last week in the write-up of the pioneers reunion at Lexington of the old Armory hall where only three of those present at the reunion attended school in the early days. Mrs. Albert Rea, who was one of the three attendants, comes to the front with a little information about this historic building. It was located at Lexington a block west of the present school building, and was bought by Bert Wood and moved to Lone in 1890. It was reconstructed into a house and is now the home of Mrs. John Bryson. The building was the community meeting house fifty or more years ago and got its name from its use by the Lexington company of militia. Ray McAlister and J. O. Kincaid were the other persons present who attended school in the old building.

America First

Not merely in matters material, but in things of the spirit.

Not merely in science, inventions, motors, and skyscrapers, but also in ideals, principles, character.

Not merely in calm assertion of rights, but in the glad assumption of duties.

Not flaunting her strength as a giant, but bending in helpfulness over a sick and wounded world like a Good Samaritan.

Not in splendid isolation, but in courageous cooperation.

Not in pride, arrogance, and disdain of other races and peoples, but in sympathy, love and understanding.

Not in treading again the old, worn, bloody pathway which ends inevitably in chaos and disaster, but in blazing a new trail, along which, please God, other nations will follow, into the new Jerusalem where wars shall be no more.

Some day some nation must take that path—unless we are to lapse once again into utter barbarism—and that honor I covet for my beloved America.

And so, in that spirit and with these hopes, I say with all by heart and soul, "AMERICA FIRST."
—Bishop Oldham.

Sunday morning at 11, the Pastor will speak on the subject "The Sword and the Spirit," an Armistice day message.

New Enrollment Mark Set at U. O.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 30.—Enrollment at the University of Oregon has climbed to a new all time high for fall term, and showed a considerable increase over the fall term of 1936, it was announced here by C. L. Constance, assistant registrar. Enrollment has reached 3,113, breaking the previous fall record of 3,095, set in 1930. Last year total registration for the fall term was 2,904. A few more students may yet report, it was stated.

A substantial gain in men students over both the record and the mark of last fall term was the most outstanding figure noted. Men students this fall now total 1944, compared to the previous record of 1741 in 1930, and 1702 for fall term a year ago. Women this fall showed a slight decrease, from 1202 last fall to 1169, although late registrations may still bring this figure up to "par."

The freshman class lacks only a few students of equalling the mark set in the fall of 1930 of 1055 and late registrations may still top the former record. Last year the total was 973.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green of Portland are visiting this week with Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Agnes Curran.
