

Mustangs Upset Dope to Tie in Traditional Game

Hermiston Scores First in Armistice Day Feature

In spite of rain which fell right up to time of the traditional Heppner-Hermiston high school football game last Thursday, a large crowd assembled here to enjoy the game and participate in other events of Armistice day. The scheduled ex-service men's parade was called off on account of the rain, but the game's start saw the large grandstand at Rodeo field filled almost to capacity, and cessation of the rain during the game added to its enjoyability. A large section of Hermiston high rooters, and other visiting team backers helped swell the crowd. Dinner for ex-service men and ladies, sponsored by the local American Legion post, was well attended at the Elkhorn restaurant, and a dance at the Elks hall, also sponsored by the legion, successfully climaxed the day. Here is the Heppner reporter's version of the big game:

Playing their tenth annual Armistice day football game, the lighter but higher spirited Heppner team provided one of the biggest upsets of the season with a powerful last quarter drive that resulted in a tie game against Hermiston, 6 to 6.

Rated by local dopsters as a pre-game favorite, the Hermiston squad played a defensive game for the most part. The backs of the Bulldogs were often shadowed by their own goal posts as Van Marter's good kicking consistently sent the ball out of "coffin corner."

Led by La Verne Van Marter, captain and 190-pound red-headed halfback, the Mustangs, whose two previous games spelled omens of a coming slump, played with inspired enthusiasm, climaxing their last gridiron contest of the year with a 42 yard drive that sent sky-high all hopes of a supposedly in-the-bag Hermiston victory.

Seeking revenge for a similar incident by local alumni and students at Hermiston last year, members of the Bulldog team and a small group of ardent supporters tore down both sets of goal posts on the playing field.

Hermiston scored first with a single touchdown in the dying minutes of the second quarter. Starting from their own 20-yard line, they rapidly advanced to Heppner's 47-yard marker, where Stuart Rankin, captain and left half of the visiting team, slipped over center for two yards, and on the next play made 9 yards and a first down. A pass netted 21 yards and another first down. Buell, Bulldog fullback, was stopped at the line of scrimmage on the following line plunge. Rankin again carried the leather oval for a 4 yard gain, but an offside penalty against Hermiston moved the ball back 5 yards to the 16-yard stripe. Another pass totaled 12 yards. Rankin on a line smash, moved the ball 3 yards for a first down on Heppner's one-yard line. It took just one play to push over a touchdown, with Rankin, workhorse of the Hermiston eleven, again hitting the center of the line for the Bulldog's single tally. A fake kick and pass on the attempted conversion fell incomplete in the end zone. Score: Hermiston 6, Heppner 0.

Realizing that a dearth of time was rapidly tiding away the minutes in which a score, although improbable was still a possibility, the Mustang's "thundering herd" took advantage of the fact that the Hermiston line was beginning to weaken under the pressure of Heppner's plunging ball carriers. Taking a Bulldog punt on Hermiston's 42-yd. line, an attempted pass to Van Marter dropped out of the receivers hands, but a line plunge by Van Marter netted 9 yards. Gilman, Mustang fullback, on an off-tackle play made 3 yards and a first down. A penalty against Hermiston for slugging moved the ball 10 yards to the 20-yard line. An end run by Van Marter and a lateral to Gilman lost a yard. Van Marter again carried the ball for 4 yards. Another penalty inflicted on Hermiston for 5 yards placed the ball on Hermiston's 12 yard marker. A sweeping run around left end by Van Marter, which had been so effective most of the afternoon, gave Heppner the score that meant at least a tie, and possibly a victory, but the try for point from placement went wide of the goal posts. Score: Heppner 6, Hermiston 6.

Returning Heppner's kick-off 13 yards to its own 38-yard line, Hermiston vainly trying to pass their way to a second touchdown, opened up with an aerial barrage. One pass was complete for 17 yards, but three more gained but 4 yards, and they were forced to punt. The game ended with the ball in possession of Heppner.

Six seniors, five of them linemen, played their last game for Heppner high school. Composed of veterans, these half dozen boys formed the nucleus of this year's rather up and down team. They are Emmett Kenny, end; Vernon Knowles, guard; Jackson Gilliam, tackle; Johnny Hays, end; Bill Browning, guard, and La Verne Van Marter, right half back.

Idaho, Washington To Wheat League

Condon.—Delegations of wheat growers from Idaho and Washington are planning to attend the annual meeting of the Eastern Oregon Wheat league at La Grande, December 3 and 4, announces C. A. Nish, league president. While no similar organizations exist in these states, growers there feel that the problems of wheat growers in the three north-west states are identical, and they are interested in the operations of the Oregon league.

One of the principal subjects listed for discussions at this annual meeting is the best use of land and its effect upon production costs, President Nish announces. Although this problem has been considered at many former league conventions, because of the provisions of the 1938 agricultural conservation program and the results of a recent study of the factors entering into the cost of wheat production in the Columbia basin, conducted cooperatively by Oregon State college and the U. S. department of agriculture, there is renewed interest in the subject, he says.

The weed and seed laws will come in for further consideration this year, with discussions of the operation of the new state laws and what can be accomplished under them. Representatives of the agricultural committee of the Portland chamber of commerce will be present to discuss phases of relationships between agriculture and industry, and the labor situation and its effect upon movement of Pacific northwest wheats into interstate and foreign commerce. The possibilities of reduced costs of transportation and power for farms in the mid-Columbia area as a result of the Bonneville dam, is another feature of the program.

George E. Farrell, director of the western division of the AAA, will be present to talk about a proposed agricultural adjustment program for the Pacific northwest.

County and executive committees of the league will convene in La Grande December 2 to correlate their data and formulate reports for presentation to the convention.
