

LEXINGTON NEWS

Visual Education Aid P.T.A. Investigating

By Bertha Hunt
The next P. T. A. meeting will be held in the high school auditorium December 8th, at eight o'clock. At the last meeting the question was brought up as to whether the P. T. A. should purchase a moving picture machine for educational purposes in the school. It was decided that a demonstration be put on at a later date before a decision was made. Mr. Campbell has arranged through the Victor Animatograph corporation to have this demonstration given on Dec. 8 when several educational films will be shown. It is hoped that a large number will be present at this P. T. A. meeting.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smethurst, Jr., motored to Arlington Tuesday for Miss Lucille Hall of Rawlins, Mont., sister of Mrs. Smethursts, who will visit in this community and at Heppner.
Lexington grange will install officers at their next meeting on Dec. 11th. A group of members recently constructed a concrete wall and cut timbers to dimension for erecting a shelter over the north basement stairway which was a much needed improvement.
Jack McMillan is convalescing at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland after a major operation which was performed on his elbow on November 2nd.
Kenneth Peck left for Corvallis Sunday where he is attending Oregon State after spending the Thanksgiving holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peck.
E. C. Dougherty was a business visitor in Pendleton last Saturday.
Mrs. T. H. Nichols is ill at her home.
There will be no church services at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon.
Robert McKinney of Blalock is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Dougherty.
The Home Economics club will meet next Thursday, Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Nelson. There will be a short program and everyone is urged to be there by one o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and children spent Thanksgiving day at Spray at the home of Mrs. Cora Steagall, mother of Mr. Steagall.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Campbell for several days last week were Mrs. J. H. Kingsley, grandmother of Mr. Campbell, and his sister, Miss Margaret Campbell of Boise, Idaho, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Campbell and baby of Cove.
Leland Castor, lineman of Arlingtonton, and Charles Kidwell, central office technician, of Portland, of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, were in Lexington Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Vester Lane returned Monday from Portland where they visited Mr. Lane's father, Howard Lane, who is ill in the Emanuel hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Esie Walker and children accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan to The Dalles Friday where they visited Mrs. Margaret Swift who is recovering from a major operation at The Dalles hospital.
Mrs. Elsie M. Beach spent Thanksgiving with her son, Laurel, at Gresham.
Out of town visitors who spent Thanksgiving in this community were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mikesell and daughter of Toppenish, Wash., and Mrs. James Pointer of Silverton, at the Gene Gray home; Dallas Ward of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Velle Winkley of Corvallis, at the home of their mother, Mrs. Ola Ward; Mr. and Mrs. George Hannah and daughter of Kinzua, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Britt and son of Dee and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anderson and daughters of Spray at the Carl Whillock home.
School News
A change has been made in the play cast. Wilma Tucker resigned the part of Olivia, the maid, and Maxine Way has filled the vacancy. Several of the boys have ordered their letter-man sweaters, but only one has arrived. It is being sported boldly around, and we all agree that it looks very nice.

George Lambirth, who has been attending school in Seattle, has returned to Lexington high school to finish the term.
The grade school has begun work on the Christmas operetta, "When Toys Come to Life." Miss Mary Alice Reed is directing the performance.
The seventh and eighth grades hold an amateur program each Friday. This program has proven interesting and a lot of fun for the participants.
The seventh and eighth grade boys challenged the girls' gym class to a basketball game, and won a victory of 16-6.
The high school girls have challenged the boys to a spelling duel. The losers are to give the winners a party.
The honor roll for the second six weeks is as follows: Wilma Tucker 1.40, Zelma Way 1.60, Kenneth Jackson 1.60, Maxine Way 1.80, Ellwynne Peck 2, Dan Dinges 2, Jer-rine Edwards 2.
BIRTHDAYS FETED
The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer was the scene of an enjoyable birthday dinner Sunday evening, honoring birthdays of Hanson Hughes, Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers and Clyde Denny. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward were joint hosts with Mr. and Mrs. McNamer. Following dinner bridge was played with high scores made by W. O. Dix and Mrs. Flora Dimick, and low by R. A. Thompson and Mrs. Agnes Wilcox. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Denny, Mrs. Agnes Wilcox, Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, Mrs. Flora Demick, Mrs. C. C. Patterson, Ture Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix.
Mr. and Mrs. John Turner came over from their home at Pendleton to spend Thanksgiving with relatives and friends.

PINE CITY NEWS

Earl Wattenburger Weds at Walla Walla

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER
Mr. Earl Wattenburger and Miss Dorene Witherite of Kennewick were married Saturday in Walla Walla. Mr. Wattenburger is manager of the J. J. Chisholm feed store in Pasco. They were surprised by a charivari held Sunday at the A. E. Wattenburger home. Nearly fifty people were present and the evening was spent in playing games. Mr. and Mrs. Wattenburger's home will be in Pasco.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bartolomew left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., to attend a grazing meeting for the interests of eastern Oregon. They will be gone about two weeks.
Mrs. Chris Broderson and daughters who have spent two months visiting at the J. S. Moore home, returned to their home in Seattle Saturday. Johnny Moore accompanied them as far as Portland, going from there to Hollywood, Calif., to spend the winter after his sick spell. He is going to take a course in Diesel school.
Jim Logan of Hermiston and his sister, Mrs. Clarence Connor, of Spokane, spent Tuesday at the A. E. Wattenburger home.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helms and family spent Thanksgiving in Spokane.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vey and Bobby Schiller spent the week end in Emmett, Idaho.
Miss Dora Moore spent the week end at Rainier, Ore., visiting her parents.
Dinner guests at the Marion Finch home Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers and children, Bert Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and family. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Seehoffer joined them and played cards. A lovely dinner was served at one o'clock by Mrs. Finch.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daly and family were Pendleton callers Friday.
Guy Moore of Heppner spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Roy Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch and family of Lexington spent Friday at the Fred Rauch home.
Mr. and Mrs. Reid J. Buseick and children of Long Creek stayed over Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger.
Miss Shirley Jarmon was visiting various places on the creek Saturday. She spent the week end at the Sloan Thompson home.
Word was received that Miss Laura Jarmon was to be married Thanksgiving day. Her new name has not been learned. A brother, Oscar Jarmon, who has been staying at Boston, Mass., is now in San Diego, Calif.
Don't forget to meet the Negroes December 10th at the Pine City auditorium. Basket social afterwards.
Sunday dinner guests at the A. E. Wattenburger home were Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick and family of Long Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wattenburger of Pasco, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Strain of Pilot Rock, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and children, Mrs. Ollie Neill and daughter Neva, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Acres of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foley.
EXAMINER HERE 9TH
The examiner of operators and chauffeurs from the office of Earl Snell, secretary of state, will be at the courthouse in Heppner next Thursday, Dec. 9, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars should get in touch with the examiner at that time.
CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the help and expressions of sympathy tendered us in our bereavement, with gratitude for the many flowers.
The Hans Koepke Family.
J. A. Sharp,
Miss Ilene Kenny was a Heppner visitor Monday while visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, in Sand Hollow. She is taking nurse's training at Pendleton.

SEE HIM SMILE When He Sees WILSON'S That Gift From

—the Men's Store where the most charming stock of Christmas Gift Goods ever displayed awaits your selection—

for Christmas

GRAYCO
End Lock TIES
stay in place
"IT'S THE CLIP"

- SUITS and OVERCOATS
They're CURLEE, showing the style and quality for which CURLEE is famous
- Stetson and Hardeman HATS
Leaders in the head adornment show.
- SWEATERS
The finest assortment, slip-ons, coat types, zippers; many weights and colors.
- SHIRTS - CRAVATS - SOX
All leaders in the winter fashion show.

- GIFT SUGGESTIONS
- GLOVES
 - BILL FOLDS
 - TOILET SETS in leather case
 - BUCKLE and TIE HOLDER
 - SUSPENDERS
 - BELTS
 - GARTERS

Take a GIFT RECEIPT

If you are not sure about size, or other suitability of any article, we will issue a gift receipt so recipient may make own choice of any article

ALL IN GIFT BOXES

THE STORE OF Practical Xmas Gifts

SHE WILL SMILE, TOO
when she opens her present of KAYSER
Mirror-clear HOSIERY
the thoughtful man-shopper can find no more appreciative gift.